Sabhath Convention.

The undersigned, having been appointed by the Preshytery of Northumberland a committee of their body, to consult with the friends of the sabbath, along the North and West Branches of the Susquehannah, upon the subject of holding a convention for promoting the better observance of the employed upon our various internal improvements would give the following notice.

A convention will be held on Wednesday 20th of June, at 10 o'cloch A. M., at the Presbyterian church in the Borough of Northumberland, to take into consideration the means whereby the friends of Divine and human law may most effectually promote the holy and philanthropic object for which the sabbath was originally instituted. All religious bodies, and Sabbath Associations, and neighbrhoods interested in the cause, are invisted to send delegates to this Convention

Appointments by the Post Master General.

JOHN M. CHAMBERLAIN, Blogmsburg, vice L. B. Rupert, removed,

[Mr. RUPERT, is one of the best men in Colambia county, always a faithful and accommodating officer, against whom there was not the first allegation preferred, but then he is a democrat, the last son of a revolutionary patriot, and this we suppose is General Taylor's understanding of " removals for cause." Mr. Chaimberlain, his succesor, is an unexceptionable citizens and we have no doubt, will make a good officer, although his appointment has caused consternation in the Federal camp, and leaves "confusion worse confounded." We are informed by Mr. Chamberlain, that the Post-office will remain at Rupert's Store, until the close of the present quarter-first of July-when it will be located up town opposite the American House.]

----Canal Commissioner

We just week announced the name of JOHN A. GAMBLE, Esq., in accordance with the voice of Columbia county, as the next democratic candidate for Canal Commissioner. Since that time, we have had an opportunity of learning further the sentiments of our people on that subject, and we are pleased to find, what we long ago predicted, that the Democratic party of Columbia county, are decidedly favorable to his nomination .-The Montrose Democrat, a radical democratic paper, in the support of Col Asa Dimmick, for that station, admits that Mr. Gamble, has the most delegates in his favor, and we notice also, that the democracy of Fayette county, -the residence of Senator STURGEON, -have instructed their Delegates to support Mr. Gamage for Canal Commissioner.

"RANDOM SHOTS," No. 18, omitted this week, will appear in our next Democrat.

That Bill.

Our subscribers, will find on the first page of this week's Democrat, a copy of our bills. We are now filling them out, and sending them to persons indebted, and merely put this one forth in order they may know what it is like, when authentically addressed. We are compelled to adult this course with all who are in arrears, as we must collect our out-standing accounts without delay, and sincerely trust our friends will remit by mail at our risk. In return we will receit all such remittances at our own expense.

We have a number of subscribers on our list who have read our paper between two and three years without having paid us one cent! They have been regularly billed, more than once, with the request to send us even a part of our dues, but our appeals have been utterly disregarded .more we shall appear to their----magmanimity, --- and ----.

The Union. -In another column will be found the Prospectus of the Washington Union. The Paper will henceforth be conducted by RITCHIE, and BURER. It is a sheet of marked ability .-Both Editors wield able pens. The interests of the Party and the country will not suffer in their hands. Turn to the prospectus-we have not room to say more.

A Heartless Villain - A man manud J. G. Mills, a dentist at Harrisburg, formely of Danville, is stated, in a letter to the N. Y. Herald, to have ruined three sisters in one family, and has harely escaned Lyace law in consequence. He first, it is said, ruined one poor girl and compromised the matter. During this period he was paying alregion to the eldest of the sisters alluded to -The father hearing of this affair, forbade him the societ, having learned also that Millie, by his cracity and neglect, had brought his first wife to e a remaigae grands.

As soon as we can read it over carefully, we will try to condense it, and give our opinions of its doctrines and positions. As yet, we are not prepared to say how we will like it. Thomas Lord's day, especially on the part of those persons H. Benton, is undoubtedly a great man. We think he has committed some political beresies in his life, but we believe his Democracy has never been doubted, although his silence has been variously construed.

THE PEOPLE OF CALIFORNIA AGAINST SLAVE-RY .- A meeting was held in San Francisco, California, on the 17th of February, to further consider and act upon the question of negro slavery in the territory of California. The following resolution, unanimously adopted, shows what the feeling of the people is towards that "peculiar institution."

That the delegates who are to represent the district of San Francisco in the Convention that is to be held at San Jose, for the formation of a provisional constitution, are hereby desired, requested and instructed, by all honorable means, to oppose any act, measure, provision, or ordinance that is calculated to further the introduction of domestic slavery, ar of free negroes as apprentices, or otherwise, to be employed in the Territory of California.

The French in Rome. A correspondent of the Herald, writing from Rome, gives an account of the releans of the French prisoners of war, and the subsequent fraternal escort that was given them. The French had their swords'returned to them and were conducted into the town to a collation. Some of them expressed themselves with a good deal of feeling, and all were completely crest fallen. Gen. Avezanno shook hands with most, and they were embraced by many of the Italian officers. In a short time, Gen. Avezenno went with his staff to oin them in the Corso, where the French soldiers were collected, and in friendly conversation, with crowds of Romans, some of whom offering them cigars, some giving bread, and others taking them to drink wine. It was delightful to see with what good-will and alacrity the Romans responded to the ge- Alem Marr, and Wm. McEntyre, containing nerous and noble invitation of the government. The military band played the Margood deal of eloquence and writes for some of the French papers, was requested by the officers to address the people from the balcony of the restaurant; and he thanked them. in the most expressive terms, for the noble conduct shown to his fellow countryman, and he was received with most rapturous applause from the people, and cries of "Vive la Repubbe Romaine!" from the French soldiers in the street. The late prisoners were then conducted in procession, most of them arm in arm with Romans, to the gates of the city; but as they passed by St. Peter's, they went in of their own accord, and, before the grand altar, knelt down and swore never to serve again against the Roman Republic.

PROSPECTUS OF THE UNION.

A Douby, Semi-Weekly, and Weekly Newspaper : published at Washington, D. C., and devoted to Politics, Literature, and general intelli-

On and after the first day of June, the "U-NIOS" will be published under the joint editorial management and control of the subscri-As both of the undersigned have been before the public in different stations-one of us for nearly a half a century, and the other for several years-we believe it will not be deemed arregant in us to suppose that any more than a general declaration of our principles, and the course which we intend to pursue, 14 do 10 50 will be necessary at this time. 14 do 10 50 | The political character of the Union' will

10 00 remain unchanged As it has litherto done from the date of its publication to the present time it will continue to advocate the great imporphes of the democratic party as expounded by its illustrious founder, Thomas Jurrenson, and carried into successful practice in the administration of the government by ubsequent democratic Presidents; principles which have secured for our beloved country an expansion, progress, and glory unexampled in the history of ancient or contemporary empines, and elevated it to the first rank among the nations of the earth. Those principles have been more fully developed in the original Prospectus which we publish at the commencement of the publication of the Union, and re-published in its colums a few days ago. They demand a system of taxation and revenue which shall be equal and just upon ill classes and individual, oppressing none and favoring none: economy in the expendi-8 ture of the public monies; the separation of 5 the tiscal affairs of the general government 5 from all connexion with State institutions or 5 corporations created by itself; a strict construction of the constitution, confining the everal branches of the general government to their particular spheres of action, and requiring of all a faithful performance of duty and especially demanding and insisting that the President of the United States shall not abdicate his high powers and his responsibilities to an irresponsible cabal, under the name of a cabinet, who were not chosen by the people, and are not accountable to them at the ballot-hox.

Such are, in general, the principles which the 'Union' will advocate; and, in performing the duties which they have jointly assumed, the undersigned are aware that, in the presenterisis, and perhaps, on some occasions, with severity. But, in executing their high functions as conductors of the pulgic press, they will not forget the dignity nor the amenities due to their position, while they perform their duty 'o the people with the firmness and fidelity which the occasion may demand

Aware that the 'Union' is the sole organ at the seat of government, of the great demo-Licenses for beer houses must be paid cratic party, which represents the people of 14 do 10 50 to the Treasury on or before the 1st of Ju- the United States not only in principles and sentiments, but also in numbers, the undersigned will endeavor to conduct it in a liberal and catholic spirit which the true interests of their country and party demand at their hands. They are not blind to the fact that in a republie so extensive as this, and embracing such a wide range of latitude and climate, differ-BY virtue of a writ of venditioni exponas to me ent interests and different institutions must spring up apparently conflicting with each spring up apparently conflicting with each other, but, in reality, each contributing to the advancement of the whole. This apparant conflict of interests and institutions, of course gives rise to sentiments as apparently diverse, but which, rightly understood, and under just restraint, can do no injury to each other .--With regard to these conflicting sentiments and opinions, growing out of local causes and institutions, it will be the object of the undersigned not to interfere, except to inculcate concession and forbearance on all sides, and to secure to each the just protection which the constitution promises to all.

Our andeavors will be to unite all the alements of the democratic party in support of its common principles, and in an effort to regain its a cendency, which has been lost by the mistaken trust and confidence which some of its membershave reposed in a man, now occupying the presidency, who had gained high military honors, made promises and pledges which he has, from incapacity to fultil his high duties, or from intentional design, grossly violated, thus betraying to the enemy those who confided in him, and bringing disgrace upon the Presidential office.

In carrying out these purposes and intentions, the undersigned feel that they shall stand in need of the active and energetic cioperation and support of the undivided democracy of the country. The party in power has secured its ascendency by a froud upon the people, and has most shamefully violated all the pledges which it made to attain power. It will endeavor to maintain its ascendency by the same unscrupulous means. It is the party representing the foreign sentiments and principles now too openly prevalent in this country, and which are at war with the principles of our government and with popular liberty. it is the party which always allies itself with every foreign enemy with which our country may trappen to be at variance. It is the party that espoused the cause of Great Brittain in the war of 1812, and leagued with Mexico in the war of 1840. Sound political morality, fidelity to republican principles, and that spirit of true patriotism which ever frowns upon treachery to one's country, require that this party shall be expelled from the power which it has gained by such reprehensible means, and now exerising for such unjustifiable ends. And in this great work we invoke the energetic and untiring aid of every patriot and and every friend to popular liberty and free government, assuring them we shall endeavor not to be wanting in honest efforts to accomplish that part of the work of reform which may devolve on us.

But, while the "Union" will be mainly devoted to politics, it will not overlook the demands of the domestic circle. It will contain all the important news of the day, and devote a masonable portion of its colums to matters of science, the arts, and general literature THOMAS BITCHIE.
