

Democratic Candidate FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, JN.: A. GAMBLE, OF LYCOMING COUNTY.

The Fourth came off in fine style. The celebration was neat and satisfactory. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Weaver, and Bucklew. The Fantastics entertained the exercises.

The next regular meeting of the Commissioners and Treasurer, of Columbia county, will be held at their office in Bloomburg, on Friday, the 20th of July.

The Country.

There cannot be a more pleasant season of the year, to take a jaunt into the country, than the present. The harvests are just ripening for the sickle, the green and thriving corn is spreading its broad leaves to the sun.

A man who could not in this season enjoy an excursion to and in, the country, is incapable of that intensity of feeling which is the concomitant of a cultivated and well regulated mind.

Such thoughts and such feelings as these, are they, which, at such a time, fill the breast of every right thinking man. We say again, that an excursion into the country at this season of the year fills the mind with the most pleasurable emotions.

The Democrat of Danville, Penna., says that the Moutour Rolling Mill at that place has again been put into operation, and its well working machinery is going on in fine style.

The above is copied, from Gen. Taylor's organ at Washington: The Republic. It is the only item we have seen from that quarter in relation to the Tariff, and what it means we leave the public to judge for themselves.

There is a terrible disease raging through the country, called Collamer-nobles! It is quite partial in the selection of its victims, and singularly to relate, confines itself entirely to democratic Postmasters!

There were 65 deaths at Boston during the past week. Males 32, females 33.

SPANISH HISTORY.—When Gen. Scott was in Mexico he seized and brought home near five thousand volumes of historical works, all in the Spanish language. Some of these are said to be over three hundred years old, and contain a perfect history of Mexico from its conquest by the Spaniards.

HEAVY GOVERNMENT ORDER.—The Norris-town Watchman says that Messrs. Moore & Hooven, have received at their rolling mill a government order for about 90 tons of bar iron of unusual dimensions; 60 of the bars to be 46 feet long 5 inches wide by seven-eighths thick, each bar weighing 800 lbs., and 200 bars of 35 feet long, of similar width and thickness; the iron we believe is wanted by the Government to be used in the building of Ocean Mail Steamers, the order for which we learn, could not be filled at any other establishment in the country.

GLORIOUS TIDINGS! THE NOMINATION OF THE Hon. John A. Gamble As the Democratic Candidate for Canal Commissioner of Pennsylvania.

We rejoice to be enabled, this morning, to announce to our democratic friends, everywhere, that the Democratic State Convention, on Thursday last, at Pittsburg, nominated the Hon. JOHN A. GAMBLE, of Lycoming county, as our standard bearer for Canal Commissioner. In this selection, we are quite certain, the Convention discharged their plain duty, and their action will meet the cordial approbation of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and be ratified by a most triumphant victory.

Which fact, was established to the entire satisfaction of the Convention, prior to his nomination.

We improve this occasion to add, that as the Columbia Democrat, was the first paper in the state to name Mr. Gamble, for Canal Commissioner, and has continued to advocate his claims devotedly ever since, it is a source of high gratification for its Editor now to find his course thus endorsed by the great Democratic empire of the whole Commonwealth.
