

Our Table. SARTAIN'S MAGAZINE, for August, edited by Mr. Kirkland, and professor Hart, is a capital number. "The Independent Voter" is to our notion an excellent engraving and tells a good story. Theobald's Mother, is also well done. He is quite a fine looking man. We hope the people won't foxy him to death. The rest we don't much admire. Sartain is always a very readable Magazine.

We have received Sears New Pictorial Family Magazine, for January 1849, being No. 1. Vol. 1. One dollar in advance. It contains 50 or 60 pages of interesting reading matter. It is published by Robert Sears, 125, Nassau st., New York.

We have also received according to arrangement "SEARS PICTORIAL FAMILY BIBLE," got up in excellent style, containing Marinal references, weights, measures, chronology and a Map of Palestine, also one thousand engravings—Price only six dollars.

On last Thursday night, some person or persons unknown, broke into the Grocery & Feed Store of David Clark, Esq., of Catawissa, near the Bridge; and stole therefrom, between forty and fifty dollars in money, and a quantity of goods amounting in all, to over one hundred dollars. No one is suspected, but it is thought that the Burglars understood the Geography of the place pretty well, from appearances.

John A. Gamble. The nomination of this gentleman by the Democratic State Convention, for the responsible office of Canal Commissioner, is hailed with a Zeal and animosity of sentiment, seldom equalled and never excelled by the Democracy of Pennsylvania. This is as it should be. We notice the gratifying fact, with the unmistakable assurance, that the election of Mr. Gamble, in October next, will—in all human probability—prove the complete and triumphant redemption of the old Keystone State.

The Union Star, still evades the question at issue. We ask Mr. Wood, again—plainly and pointedly,—if he desires the restoration of the Tariff of 1842? That is the point. His own or our former discrepancies have nothing to do with this matter. Dare he answer?

A whig meeting, to appoint Delegates to the State Convention, will be held on the 30th of July, in Bloomsburg.

We learn with regret, that the team of three horses, belonging to Mr. Jesse Hughes, of Catawissa, ran off with him near the saw mill of Isaac S. Monroe, on Thursday evening, injuring him severely. We have not been able learn the particulars with sufficient certainty to give them to the public.

The Great Cattle Show. Messrs Raymond & Co's, great Menagerie, will appear on next Friday, in Bloomsburg. It will naturally attract very general interest. See advertisement.

A Federal Growth. The West Chester Register and Examiner, an old federal print, of the elder Adams' School, is out against the nomination of Mr. GAMBLE, the democratic nominee for Canal Commissioner, and takes the Columbia Democrat, sorely to task for yielding him its humble support. The Wilkesbarre Advocate, the northern organ of the same political faction, conducted by an apostate democrat, is also actively engaged in the same laudable enterprise. To all this the democracy can have no objection. Mr. Gamble must expect the malignant opposition of the enemies of liberal principles. Go it, gentlemen federalists—let loose your dogs of war.

CHOLERA.—The total no. of cholera cases in Philadelphia, from May 30th to last Saturday evening, were 1,095—of which 404 proved fatal.

MARRIED: On the 12th inst., by the Rev. D. J. Waller, Mr. JOHN HARTMAN, and Miss ELIZABETH M. GUILD, both of Hemlock township.

On the 1st inst., at Carbondale, by the Rev. E. D. Willis, P. S. JOSLIN, Esq., and Mrs. CAROLINE WHITMAN, both formerly of Berwick.

On the 4th inst., at Carbondale, by the Rev. E. W. Gerhart, Mr. JAMES TEWKSBURY, of that place, and Miss ELVIRA FULLER, formerly of Berwick.

On the 19th inst., by the Rev. Alex. Hebertson, J. M. B. PETRIKIN, Esq., of Muncy, and Miss FRANCES H. LLOYD, of Fairfield township, all of Lycoming county.

On the 28th ult., in Centre township, by Rev. I. Bahl, Mr. CYRUS BOON, and Miss AMANDA E. HAYMAN.

On the 24th ult., in Briar creek township, by John Doak, Esq., Mr. ASA SHELLHAMER, and Miss ELIZA HEAVNER.

WHEREAS, the Hon. JOSEPH B. ANTHONY, President of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and Court of Common Pleas and Orphans Court, in the Eighth Judicial District composed of the counties of Northumberland, Columbia and Lycoming; and the Hon.
