Call off your Dogs!

Mr. Pearce's organ here, the rising Star, is again figuring to get him, as they have many others all candor, if the Star speaks by his authority !- as possible, give you that. Tell us frankly, Mr. P., before our next issue, or eall off your pups!

Reuben W. Weaver.

This distinguished gentleman, has devoted columns of the Star, the past few weeks to our own personal detraction. This has nothing to do with his disorganizing political conduct, nor does it raitigate his treacherous course, or make amends for the wrongs committed against the democratic party. He dare not deny the specifications, and this leaves him and his little party, just where they have always been, only in a "little tighter place."

nicant, contemptible and dangerous individual worthy little contemporary of the Star, popped Mr. Weaver represents us to be, why does he de- out of the crowd and passed up town. Who is vote so much attention to us? Why does he not that little fellow, who appears to be generally on treat us as we do him, as unworthy of serious no- hand, said one of the bystanders. That little feltice and let him run? Why did he before he set low, answered another, that is Reuben, the Chairout for "political distinction" - which we then man of the Standing Committee, and renowned (as we are now endeavoring) tried to give him, editor of the "disorganizer's journal." Is that make a desperate effort to become interested in our said the other, the soul, the centre and the cirestablishment? These are points to which atten- cumference of the democracy of Columbia countion might be properly directed. But they are ty! Then I give it up. not profitable for his purpose.

In his paper of Thursday, Reuben says,he"was once puffed by Tate of the Democrat." And uses it as a pretext to inform a portion of the world, that he once had a lot of Cards printed and paid two dollars therefore! Now, is there any thing wrong in this. Reuben was born with a silver spoon in his mouth, if we take the bombastic declarations he has lately made through the Star, of his "capital" "wealth," "payments," &c., (of which several gentlemen of the Bar own they are | wood to., Miss Polly S. Wilson, of Liberty tp. ashamed) and why should he not pay for printing cards as well as other people, as that was also a mean of forwarding his march to "political distinction." The same with the notice he speaks of as once published, and which he has not the philosophy to comprehend. Its avowed object then was as this is now, to give him, as we would any other nice young man, "distinction in the world."

Reuben says he "ENEW NOTHING UNTIL IT AP- Buoyant hopes and bright prospects bedecked her FEARED IN PRINT," we beg to inform the balance path-way, but the bright earth-stars have fled, of the world, that in this he lies-under a great leaving a devoted husband and helpless infant to mistake. The week that article appeared, we mourn, in her departure the fond hopes of future tify, Mr. Reuben W.
