

News and Items.

One of the boys induces the following to his lady-love:
And when the reverend sir shall say,
"My son take thou this daughter!"
I'll answer him in fearless tone,
"I shan't do a thing shorter!"

"Will you my son support and nourish
This flower I give to thee!"
I'd give my white kid gloves a flourish,
And answer, "Yes Sir-ree!"

The Last Operation. A cattle speculator in driving through Jersey, incorporated the loss cattle of the farmers with his own drove and sold the whole lot. The farmers are after him.

A Strike.

A meeting of the boys, in favor of more work and higher wages, was held at the "corner," on Monday evening, August 25, 1849, when it was unanimously

Resolved, That we the boys of New York, consider the Police of New York a nuisance that should be removed.

Resolved, That we lam the Cubans; eat up the Canadians; smash the Mosquitoes; and elect Tom Bugger the next president.

Resolved, That we go agin the Cholera and Hose Company No. 9.

Resolved, That we are opposed to Colleges and Mastaches.

Resolved, When this meeting adjourns, that it break up in a grand row, and we all go on a bender for a week.

Resolved, That we are in favor of Coney Island, American Segars, and Target excursions.

A couple of Nantucketers in California went out into the woods one day in August, and shot fifty-five birds of some kind, which they sold before night, in San Francisco, for fifty-five dollars.

BENJ. HAYMAN, Sheriff.

THE GLOBE.

A Congressional, Agricultural, and Literary Newspaper.

This approach of Congress calls out the Annual Prospectus of the Globe Establishment.

The time is full of interest. The coming in of a new Administration—the consequent broaching of a policy touching the internal concerns of the country—the new and most important issues arising from the late vast accession to the public domain, and the great national objects associated with it—the impending difficulty in our relations with France, and the possible complication of our affairs with the troubles of Europe—conspire to create great expectation as to the proceedings of the next Congress. The approaching Session will probably continue till late in the summer of 1850.

The debates, from the agitation of so many questions of vital interest to the Republic, will draw forth all the talent of the National Legislature. To bring its deliberations home to the people, on each succeeding day, while measures are maturing, is, in effect, to bring the whole nation into council. The discussion, spreading from the Capitol to the remotest parts of the Union, forms a public opinion which reacts upon Congress and controls its decisions.

To become a useful instrument, however humble, to assist the working of the admirable machinery of our popular institutions, is the ambition of the conductor of the Globe. Extraordinary preparations have therefore been made to meet the increasing demands of our rapidly-improving and growing country for Congressional intelligence.

The Globe Press has already enlisted the ablest Reporters yet known to Congress; its materials and machinery are of the best sort; and the exclusive devotion of the individual who for so many years has made it his study to embody and publish the labors of Congress, gives reason to hope that an advance will be in the accomplishment of this undertaking commensurate with its increased importance. But the accumulation of expense consequent on the additional number of Reporters required—the extra charges incurred in printing at night the debates of the preceding day—the vast addition made to the mass published, by the protracted sessions and the fuller reports given—will render our enterprise a failure, unless Congress shall so far patronize it as to become a purchaser of this portion of the daily sheets issued, as shall contribute to make the reports that fill them. The undersigned has ventured on the preparation he has made for the next Session, in the expectation that Congress will subscribe for as many daily sheets for each Member, at the subscription price, as will, in part, defray the expense of reporting, and give them circulation as Congressional documents in their several districts. This will enable the Publisher to bear the charge of reporting, and it will give an impulse to the circulation of the Congressional Print, which, although the cheapest in the Union (the expense of preparation considered) will yet yield sufficient profit to make the system permanent.

JOHN C. RIVES having purchased the interest of J. P. BLAIR, in Jackson Hall—the printing office machinery and material—becomes the sole proprietor thereof, and will give his exclusive attention to the Congressional Department of J. C. PICKET, who continues the Miscellaneous Department of the Newspaper. J. P. BLAIR retires from both concerns with prayers for their permanent usefulness and prosperity.

The Globe will be published daily during the session of Congress, and weekly the remainder of the year, and will undergo distribution in the form of a WEEKLY GLOBE, a CONGRESSIONAL and an APPENDIX.

The WEEKLY GLOBE will contain Agricultural and miscellaneous articles; and will occasionally give debates of such importance as command universal interest.

The price of the WEEKLY GLOBE is reduced to one dollar, with a view to obtain a more general circulation. Subscribers who have hitherto paid $2 per annum, will be charged only $1 after the expiration of the first year.

The CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE will embody, as it has done for the last sixteen years, Congressional proceedings and debates exclusively.

The APPENDIX will embrace the revised speeches separately, and the messages of the President of the United States and the reports of the Heads of the Executive Departments.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix will be published as fast as the proceedings of Congress will make a number. Subscribers may expect one number of each a week during the first four weeks of a session, and two or three numbers of each a week afterwards, until the end of the session. Each volume will probably comprise 2 thousand royal quarto pages, of small type, complete indexes to the Congressional Globe and Appendix will be sent to subscribers soon after Congress adjourns.

Nothing of a political aspect will appear in the Globe; save that which will be found in Congressional reports. A paper assuming to be an impartial vehicle for all sides, cannot maintain its character if the editorial columns reflect a party hue.

TERMS.

For one copy of the WEEKLY Globe (daily during the session of Congress, and weekly during the recess) a year, $5 00

For the Daily Globe for less than a year, at the rate of $1 cents a month.

For one copy of the WEEKLY Globe for one year, $5 00

For one copy of the CONGRESSIONAL Globe during the session, $3 00

For one copy of the Appendix during the session, $3 00

For four copies of either, or part of both, during the session, $10 00

For ten copies of either, or part of both, during the session, $20 00

The price for these papers are so low, that advance payments are indispensable to carry them on.

Postmasters who may obtain subscribers will be allowed twenty per cent. on the subscription prices for single papers, which they may retain when they send on the names of subscribers and the subscription money. The price for the Congressional Globe and Appendix to Clubs who take ten copies, is so low, that no inducement can be afforded. Subscriptions may be remitted by mail, at our risk, in money at par in the section of the country where subscribers reside.

The Congressional Globe and Appendix, or the Daily Globe, as they may elect, will be sent to all editors who may publish the Prospectus as offered, three times before the first Monday in December, and send us one copy of their paper containing it distinctly marked as such, with a pen to direct our attention to it.

PURE FRESH COD LIVER OIL.

This new and valuable medicine, now used by the medical profession with such astonishing efficacy in the cure of pulmonary Consumption, Scrophulous, Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, General Debility, complaints of the Kidneys &c., is prepared from the liver of the Cod Fish for medicinal use, expressly for our sales.

HEALING POWER.

[Extract from the London Medical Journal.] "C. J. B. Williams, M. D., F. R. S., Professor of Medicine in the University College, London, Consulting Physician to the Hospital for Consumption, &c., says: I have prescribed the Oil in above four hundred cases of tuberculous disease of the Lungs, in different stages, which have been under my care less than two years and a half. In the large number of cases, 200 out of 234, its use was followed by marked and unequivocal improvement, varying in degree in different cases, from a temporary retardation of the progress of the disease and a mitigation of distressing symptoms, up to a more or less complete restoration to apparent health."

The effect of the Cod Liver Oil in most of these cases was very remarkable. Even in a few days the cough was mitigated, the expectoration diminished in quantity and opacity, the night sweats ceased, the pulse became slower, and of better volume, and the appetite, flesh and strength were gradually improved.

"In conclusion, I repeat that the pure fresh oil from the Liver of the Cod is more beneficial in the treatment of Pulmonary Consumption than any agent, medicinal, dietetic or regimenal, that has yet been employed."

As we have made arrangements to procure the Cod Liver Oil, fresh from head quarters, it can now be had chemically pure by the single bottle, or in boxes of one dozen each.

Its wonderful efficacy has induced numerous spurious imitations. As its success depends entirely on its purity, too much care depends on procuring it genuine.

Every bottle having on it our written signature, may be depended upon as genuine.

Amphlets containing an analysis of the Oil, and notices of it from Medical Journals, will be sent to those who address us free of postage.
