SATURDAY MORN., DEC. 8, 1849.

Agencies for the Columbia Democrat.

V. B. PALMER, Third and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia.

E. W. CARR, Third and Walnut streets, Philadelphia.

GEORGE PRATT, No. 110, Nassau street, New York.

TELEGRAPH LINE OF THE SUSQUEHANNA.

Mr. A. C. GIBB, agent of Professor Morse, visited Danville recently and is now making the arrangements for building the Susquehanna River and North West Branch Telegraph; he is soliciting stock for this important enterprise. By this line, it is proposed to connect all the principal towns on the Susquehanna, and the branches, with Harrisburg Baltimore, &c.

The Philadelphia County Commissioners have given their approval of Mr. HAYLAND'S plan for the new public buildings to be erected on the Walnut street front of Independence Square.

THE CANAL at Albany, N. Y., was entirely frozen over on the morning of the 23d inst.

Arrested.—Robert J. Walker, Secretary of the Treasury during Mr. Polk's administration, was arrested whilst passing through this city in the cars on Saturday last, and detained by the sheriff until he could find security to appear and answer for a claim of $5000. Mr. Henry Hicks, formerly Collector under Mr. Walker, and Mr. Alexander Porter, formerly Marshal of the State, entered bail for his appearance, and Sir Robert was discharged. He was detained in town during the whole day, and left in the night train.

Wilmington Jour.

We clip the above from that most contemptible of contemptible whig papers, the Union Star. Let us see how the fling at Mr. Walker, can be blown to air, by a simple statement of the facts. The Star says, the claim was $3000, this is simply false, and the Editor knew it when he penned it. The claim is only $3,750. It would also appear from the article in the Star, which professes to be copied from the Wilmington Journal, that the arrest was for a personal debt, and on which Mr. Walker, was the third endorser; and still further, it was drawn nine years since in Mississippi, and which, having been one time contested, Mr. Walker, proved that he had not received value therefor, and the action was defeated.

Now mark how plain a tale has put him down. Do the whig papers suppose they can act this off against the arrest of Fitz Henry Warren, at Springfield, Massachusetts, not long since? See the similarity of the cases! Mr. Walker, arrested on debt which he never contracted. Fitz Henry, on one of his own. Mr. Walker, the third endorser. Fitz Henry, a personal matter. Mr. Walker, never received consideration. Fitz Henry did, and tried to cheat his creditors.

Over and above, Fitz Henry, ran off between two days, leaving no trace of his whereabouts; and finally turned up in Iowa. These facts can not be denied, and yet, the whigs think to set it off, by publishing only half the truth against Mr. Walker. No doubt they had rather we would publish but half, about Mr. Warren. Undoubtedly to the last, they make public the affairs of a private citizen, to defend a scamp. The Star by endorsing the Journal is a publisher of the slander, and—but the Star will do any thing.

Fifteen Jewish couples were recently married in one day, at a country town near Prague, in Bohemia.

M. de Lomartins is said to be about to retire to the east, a large tract of fertile land near Smyrna having been assigned him by the Sultan.
