RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

Divine services will be held in Bloomsburg, to-morrow, (Sunday, Nov. 15th,) at the following Churches:

Lutheran Church.—Rev. E. A. Sharretts. Service at 6½ o'clock, P. M.

Presbyterian Church.—Rev. D. J. Waller.—Service at 10 o'clock, A. M.

☞ The Free Schools of this place "opened doors" on Tuesday morning last.

☞ If you wish to know who sells the best goods at the lowest prices, read the advertisements in the Democrat.

☞ Mr. James Hand, an old citizen of Columbia county, we are sorry to learn, met with a serious accident on last Tuesday afternoon. It appears, that Mr. H., was hewing some timber, with a hand-axe, when the axe glanced cutting his leg very severely.

☞ Wood piles are very numerous on the streets. Evidently our citizens are determined to be prepared for a long and dreary reign of the Winter King, who will soon set himself upon his icy throne and deal out cold weather "freely and without price."

☞ The weather the past week was rather pleasant. Perhaps we are going to have Indian Summer now. The evenings are quite cool, and standing around the street corners after night has ceased to be indulged in to any great extent. It goes hard too for a fellow to keep in doors in the evenings, but it must be done or freeze.

☞ We should be pleased to have our citizens communicate any local news that may occur under their observation, or any other source, if well authenticated. As we are confined to the office on account of business, any local matters that is of importance, will be gratefully received by us.

☞ As there are indications of a rise in the price of coal, it would be well for those of our patrons who have not done so, to procure their winter's supply immediately. We believe prices, at present are as low as they have been this season, and they will certainly range no lower, as we observe the trade is becoming more brisk.

☞ Yesterday, the cattle market in Philadelphia fell one dollar on the hundred weight below the price of last week. The market is very dull, and the supply largely exceeding the demand. There is a prospect, before the winter is over, of beef being down to a fair average price. It has been up for the few years to an inordinate figure, but not proportionately greater than every other kind of food.

☞ We had come to the conclusion last week, of noticing no farther, the unoffensive paragraphs, from the Republican, but knowing the Doctor to be an ambitious man, and one that likes to have his writing noticed, we will therefore give him the benefit of another article, hoping, however, he may survive the wreck of time and the crush of blasted hope. He may perhaps, in the hours of his deepest adversity, find consolation in the effusions of one similarly situated, when he sang his own fate:—

"I feel like one who treads alone
Some banquet hall deserted,
Whose lights are dead, whose garland dead
And all but me departed."

☞ Those who have small mechanical jobs to be performed, that they mean to have done, and that they can afford to do at any time, would render the best possible assistance to worthy mechanics by having them done now, when work is slack and winter coming on. Families that have clothing to make up this winter could relieve many seamstresses waiting in want for employment by putting the jobs immediately into their hands. There is scarcely a family in the city but has some job or other of work to do, which would not inconvenience them the least to have it done now. It is not required that people shall incur useless and idle expenditure to keep others employed, nor is it necessary. The ordinary wants of the season, if now required to be supplied, would go far to relieve labor, and restore a better condition of things.

☞ A few evenings ago, while wending our way through one of the principal thoroughfares of this place, our ears were saluted with curses deep and loud, emanating from a boy about 10 years of age.—We looked around to see the object of his wrath, when we beheld a little girl, his sister, trying to persuade her brother to "go home, as it was getting late," and was afraid to go alone. She plead in words of kindness, but it was in vain, for his answer was those of curses. Is it not deplorable, that the youth of our town are not better trained by their parents? On them rests the responsibility of want of respect for age and morality by their children. "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it," is a maxim but little heeded by parents nowadays, the results of which are daily discernable in the lawless recklessness and depravity of the youth of both sexes. Whither are we tending, and who will step forth to arrest this onward march of vice and immorality?

☞ There is no department of a country newspaper which is more important or should receive more attention than the Local. The circulation of such papers being almost exclusively confined to the immediate sections in which they are published, of course it is but right that the patrons should expect to see chronicled with particular care all matters of interest occuring in their particular localities. No paper can be supported which neglects or pays but slight attention to this Department; and it is equally true that one which treats this matter in its proper light cannot fail of a liberal patronage. It is our desire, as it shall be our aim, to make the Local Department of the Democrat a complete index (as far as possible) of these local items which are perused first of all in a county paper. And to do this we would ask the aid of all our friends through the county. If, when anything of interest occurs, they would let us know of it, they would confer a favor not only upon us, but upon all the readers of our paper.—There are occurrences happening every day which would be of interest, but which are not published simply because they never come to our knowledge. Will our friends throughout the county assist us in this matter?

As far as our town itself is concerned, we hope to get along more easily. Still, if any of our merchants or manufactures contemplate getting on a "bust," or any of our citizens generally meet with broken heads, arms or legs, such information shall receive due publicity on coming to our ears. Our motto is "Progress"—we go in for pensioning printers and preachers, and lamming lawyers and loafers. With such a commendable principle of action, who'll obstruct our march, or doubt of our ultimate success?

☞ Times are getting monstrous hard just now. As an evidence of this, we notice that a darkey who follows the lawful occupation of cutting wood, and doing other miscellaneous jobs about town, has, within a few days past, posted on the crown of his hat, a piece of paper with the words—"Terms, Cash"—very plainly written thereon. We hope he may have a happy time getting his "cash." We know that we have a happy time getting some of ours.

☞ The Postmaster General has recently decided that if Postmasters do not give publishers of newspapers notice when their papers remain in the Post Offices without being taken out by the subscriber, within five weeks, they are liable for the pay.

Removal.—The post office in Berwick has been removed from Messrs. McHenry & Owen's Store into the Office of the "Berwick Gazette," and Levi F. Irwin appointed Postmaster, vice John J. McHenry, resigned.

☞ We understand that the Furnace and iron ore land of Samuel R. Woods, at Red Bank, Point township, have been sold by that gentleman for $200,000.

☞ The Postmaster general has ordered a contract with Col. John Cummings, of Selinsgrove, for conveying the mails daily from Sunbury to Williamsport by railway.

☞ If you have a sore or painful disease, go and get a bottle of Du Vall's Galvanic Oil, and you will not rue it—no! you will purchase more; this has been the case, and will be so in time to come.

Sold by G. M. Hagenbuch, J. R Moyer and E. P. Lutz, Bloomsburg, and Country Merchants, generally.

MARRIAGES.

On the 29th of October, by Rev. Jno. A. DeMoyer, Mr. Michael Brown to Miss Hannah Hess, both of Mifflin township, Columbia county.

☞ The Five Per Cent. Saving Fund of the National safety Company, Walnut street, southwest corner of Third street, Philadelphia, now has nearly One Million and a Half of Dollar all in Real Estate, Mortgages, Ground Rents, and other first class securities, to the benefit to depositors.

☞ THOMAS W. MATTSON, Received the Prize Medal at the World's Fair in London, 1851, for TRUNKS, CARPET BAGS, Boots, shoes and Gums.—Great inducements are now offered to purchasers of the above articles. This is much the largest stock of Trunks, Carpet Bags, Valices &c., in Philadelphia very cheap, or cash. Manufactories: 130 Market Street, S. W. corner, and 128 Market street, S. E. corner of Fourth.

☞ HURLEY'S SARSAPARILLA.—For all diseases of the blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and efficiently on the liver and kidneys, strengthens the digestion, gives tone to the stomach, makes the skin clear and healthy, and restores the constitution, enfeebled by disease, or broken down by the excesses of youth, to its pristine vigor and strength. Every prudent person should use a few bottles, particularly during the spring and summer months.

☞ A COOL REFLECTION.—"For every mile that we leave the surface of our earth, the temperature falls five degrees. At forty five miles' distance from the globe we get beyond the atmosphere, and enter strictly speaking, into the regions of space, whose temperature is 225 degrees below zero, and here cold reigns in all parts." The gentleman who went "beyond the atmosphere," and held the thermometer in the "regions of space," has since his return declared that the next coolest thing is a suit of those light, elegant and graceful summer clothes, which have rendered the fashionable Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 607, late 209 Chestnut street, famous on this territo ial orb.

☞ WHITE TEETH, PERFUMED BREATH AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION—can be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers" as a dentifrice, would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster! Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate that their friends will never mention it. Beware of counterfeits. Be sure each bottle is signed

FETRIDGE & CO., N. Y.

☞ In this Mammoth-worshipping age, it is rare to find a man place his usefulness to the public before his interest. During a late visit to the 'City of Spindles,' we were presented by a professional friend, to the celebrated chemist, Dr. J. C. Ayer, whose name is now perhaps more familiar than any other, at the bedside of sickness in this country. Knowing the unprecedented popularity of his medicines and the immense sale of them, we had expected to find him a millionaire and rolling in wealth. But no we found him in his laboratory, busy with his laborers, among the crucibles, alembics and retorts—giving his best personal care to the compounds, on the virtues of which thousands hang for health. We learned, that notwithstanding his vast business and its prompt returns in cash, the Doctor is not rich. The reason assigned is that the material is costly, and he persists in making his preparations so extensively, that the next profit is small.—American Farmer, Phila.

WILD CHERRY AT THE SOUTH.

Our agent at Athens, Georgia, sends us the following letter, with permission to publish:—

Athens, August 24.

Dear Sir: Having been afflicted for more than ten months with Chronic Inflammation of the Lungs, at times very severely, and having adopted many medicines without any but temporary relief, I purchased about three bottles of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry from the effects of which I obtained more relief than from all the medicines I have ever taken for that distressing disorder. I have, by the repeated use of this valuable Balsam, been more free from pressure for breath and oppression on the Lungs, than I had anticipated, and indeed conceive that I will be cured by continuing its use of this most disheartening malady. I do most cheerfully tender you this acknowledgment, which you will use as your judgment dictates.

☞ A CARD TO THE LADIES.—Dr. Dorosco's Genuine French Pills are infallible in removing stoppages or irregularities of the menses.

These Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as a preventive to those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family.

Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so are cautioned against using these Pills, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any injury to health; otherwise, these Pills are recommended.

Directions accompany each box. Price $1. Sold wholesale and retail, by

GEORGE M. HAGENBUCH,

ONE PRICE ONLY!

LIPPINCOTT & HUNTER'S Clothing Warehouse, South West corner of Fourth and Market streets, Philadelphia. The only One Price Clothing Store in America. Cash purchasers of Men's or boy's Clothing, at wholesale and retail, can here make their selection from an immense stock of fashionably cut and well made clothing, got up with a view to give satisfaction to all, and at the very lowest possible selling price. & marked in plain figures on every garment, all buy at the same price, and whether they are judges of goods or not, they cannot be decieved. One uniform low price to ask and take, suits everybody, wile the usual mode of asking two prices, and taking all that can be got, suits nobody, and cheats three-fourths; for instance a man asks $15 for a coat, and afterwards agrees to take $10, and it is equally certain, that he would have taken $15, if he could have got it, and thus actually charged the purchaser out of five dollars. To remedy this evil and establish confidence in the trade, LIPPINCOT & CO., fix a uniform below prices on all their goods, (very much below the usual rates,) and will not vary one cent under any circumstances.

☞ A PHYSICIAN'S LEGACY TO YOUNG MEN.

"The glory of a young man
Is his strength."

(From the Sunday Dispatch, New York, Aug. 24, 1857.)

Our readers are aware that we seldom, if ever, recommend any medical publication, if not endorsed by the very highest authority. As such an instance we may mention Dr. Cogswell's new publication on Nervous Debility and other weaknesses, the result of early indiscretions. It is a small but valuable pamphlet.—His preparations the "Renovator" and "Nervine" are now considered the sole and only effectual remedies extant for the complaints referred to.

Dr. Cogswell's Seminal Regenerator and Royal Nervine, the sovereign remedies for Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Impotency, Involuntary Emissions, Fits, &c., are for sale by most of the leading Druggists in the country.

Dr. C.'s Pamphlet, as above, containing full advices for the cure of Spermatorrhœa, &c., can be had in a secure envelope, by enclosing a stamp to
