ALEM B. TATE, LOCAL EDITOR.

Bloomsburg, December 5, 1857.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

Divine services will be held in Bloomsburg, to-morrow, (Sunday, Dec. 6th,) at the following Churches:

Lutheran Church.—Rev. E. A. SHARRETTS. Service at 11 o'clock, in the morning.

Presbyterian Church.—REV. D. J. WALLER.—Service at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Methodist Church.—Prayer-meeting at 10 o'clock, in the morning. Preaching at early candle-light in the evening.

☞ There will be divine service in the Lutheran Church, this afternoon, by Rev. E. A. Sharretts, at 2 o'clock.

☞ The Susquehanna River, opposite this place, has during the past three or four days, been covered with floating ice.

☞ The very freeze-ing article upon which Doctor JOHN commented so warmly in the last Columbia County Black Republican Organ, was not written by COL. FREEZE, nor did he see it until it was in the paper.

☞ JACOB HARRIS, Esq., the Administrator of the Estate of David Smith, deceased, will offer to sell, at Public Sale on Saturday the 2nd of January next, as will be seen by his advertisement in this paper, and published bills, a valuable Farm and Plantation, situate in Hemlock township, Columbia co., Pa.

☞ ——"As we part then, Alem, Good bye." Col. Co. Rep.

Good bye, Doctor Puleman. We are loath to give you up, but as it is your ardent desire, to do so, we will therefore leave you, as the Irishman did his pole-cat, with the full assurance, that "if left alone, you will soon stink yourself to death."

☞ We observe by our exchanges, that the benevolent and charitable in every city and town throughout the country, are making systematic efforts for the relief of the destitute: some are dispensing charity, and others are furnishing them with work on the streets, thus enabling them to earn their own living, which is the preferable mode of providing for the poor, where it can be done without detriment to the public interest.

☞ Mr. HENRY P. WHITEMAN, has purchased of Mr. Yaple, the Bloomsburg and Cambra Mail route and now runs upon it a splendid three horse Troy Coach—This will prove a great convenience to the traveling community, being the principal connecting link between the people of the North and the Rail Road Depots, leading to and from Philadelphia and the West.—Mr. Whiteman, is a pleasant and very accommodatin; young gentleman, and we trust his line of Coaches will be generally patronized. See his card in this Democrat

☞ Sunday last, was a most splendid and fascinating specimen of Indian Summer, and the calm cerulean seemed as mellow as the period which ushers creation into life in May. The atmosphere was pleasant to the senses, and the sun veiled in a smoky haze, so peculiar to this portion of the globe, at this period of the year. A mild winter is predicted, which would exert a beneficial effect upon the condition of the suffering poor. But, why should they be singled out—the rich are as poor as the poorest. Wealth makes no man rich. Peace of mind and a crust of bread, moistened by a glass of nature's purest water, constitutes a wealth far preferable to the treasures of the rich and pampered slaves of vice, extravagance and sin.

☞ At this season of the year every one seeks to enjoy the comforts that surround the fireside during the long winter evenings, and entertain himself, or be instructed relative to the movements of the world in general and around him. How is such to be obtained? Can he seek knowledge by confining himself within doors, and shutting out all communication whatever with the world? Can he set idle and know what is going on around him? Numerous interests, to suit all classes and business men of every kind might be cited, where heavy losses and failure to procure a current fee for work, produce, manufactures, etc., etc. And why? We answer, because such persons are negligent to subscribe to a good County paper containing such intelligence, as to them, during one year, would prove more beneficial fourfold than the amount of subscription.

☞ Who does not like to see flowers in Winter? To enjoy them it is not necessary to cultivate some tender exotic, which is withered by the least frost, but with little trouble we may have at any period our early spring flowers, whose first appearance we hail with so much delight. At this season, just at the setting in of winter, dig roots of the blood root, wild violet, liverleaf, or any other of flowers of spring, and put them in boxes or pots. If they are to be frozen, boxes are the best, as the latter may break. At any time during the Winter bring them into the warm parlor or kitchen, and they will speedily shoot up and blossom. Those which have a large fleshy root, in which the material of their growth is stored, surprise us by the rapidity of their development. Those who possess the means may prefer the hyacinth, and other bulbs, but no less gratification may be derived from these children of our native woods and glades.

PEN, PASTE & SCISSORS.

☞ Not in demand—duns.

☞ In demand—gold and silver.

☞ Low—and still going down, spirits.

☞ Good eating.—Neyhard & Jacoby' Oysters.

☞ Grandiloquent—the Jewsharp music of several b'hoys about town.

☞ Gov. Packer's inaugural will take place on the 2d Tuesday of January next.

☞ Rather cool—asking a man on the street to lend you his umbrellr when it is raining.

☞ Why is a young lady sobbing for a new silk dress like the monetary pressure? Because she is a cry-sis.

☞ Rather slow—for a couple gallants, after taking ladies to a party, to allow them to go home themselves.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger, calls a telegraph despatch a "Morseotype," and heads the column "Morseographical."

☞ Governer Walker of Kansas is now in Washington City, and has had several interviews with the President.

☞ In Paris they hire a lady to faint in the boxes at a critical passage in a new tragedy.

☞ The bills of the Honesdale Bank now command a premium of two per cent, at Philadelphia.

☞ Michael O'Brien has been arrested at Chicago, Ill, on the charge of murdering his wife.

☞ The King of Delhi has surrendered to the British troops, and his life has been spared. His two sons were shot.

☞ The Lewisburg Chronicle, says:—The $5 advertised as found in our last, is not called for. Happy times! when nobody misses a $5.

☞ Flour, potstoes, ect., will be taken at this office for indebtedness to the same. A small amount of money will not be refused.

☞ Navigation has again been resumed on the North Branch Canal, and from present appearances of the weather, we predict it may continue for some time to come.

☞ We have observed some Turkeys in town, in anticipation of the approaching holidays, we suppose, but "nary a one" has come this way.

☞ On Sunday last, a fire occurred in the store of Martin & Baker, of Jersey shore, destroying the principal contents—loss considerable.

☞ The workingmen engaged in some of the large manufacturing establishments of Harrisburg, have resolved to give one day's wages monthly, during the winter, to the suffering.

☞ A man was in our office on Saturday last, says the Muncy Luminary, who resides within seven miles of this borough, who informed us that that was the first time he had been in the town for 8 years.

☞ The Danville Intelligencer says a highly interesting and success-ful protracted meeting is progressing at the M. E. Church, in Danville, under the pastorship of Rev. Mr. Wilson.

☞ The Williamsport Press, does not speak well of the citizens of that place, in noticing exhibitions, concerts, &c., gratuitously, and withhold their job work from it. Don't notice them, friend BUTT.

☞ They look hard—the greasy, dirty, ragged one and two dollar bills, which have again taken the place of the hard.—If the Cholera should again become general in the cities and towns, those guilty of putting such filth again in circulation will be held responsible.

☞ If every lady in the country would resolve not to buy another silk dress for a year to come, millions of dollars would be saved to our country, which would be a complete panacea for hard times. The gentlemen might make a similar saving by limiting their consumption of liquors, tobacco, cigars, &c. Try it.

MARRIED.

DIED.

In Bloomsburg, on Wednesday morning last, of Consumption, Reuben W. Weaver, Esq., Editor of the "Star of the North," in the 32d year of his age.

In Bloomsburg, suddenly, on Sunday morning last., Mr. Daniel Leacock, Sr., formerly of Easton, aged 63 years.

In Briarcreek township, Columbia co., on Sabbath last, Mr. John Freas, Sr., aged 67 years and 1 month.

In Buck Horn, on the 20th of October, Harriet Elizabeth, daughter of Amos B. and Mahalah Hartman, aged 1 year and about 9 months.

This is much the largest stock of trunks, Carpet Bags, Valises &c., in Philadelphia very cheap, or cash. Manufactories: 139 Market Street, S. W. corner, and 138 Market street, S. E. corner of Fourth.

☞ A COOL REFLECTION.—"For every mile that we leave the surface of our earth, the temperature falls five degrees. At forty five miles' distance from the globe we get beyond the atmosphere, and enter strictly speaking, into the regions of space, whose temperature is 225 degrees below zero, and here cold reigns in all parts." The gentleman who went "beyond the atmosphere," and held the thermometer in the "regions of space," has since his return declared that the next coolest thing is a suit of those light, elegant and graceful summer clothes, which have rendered the fashionable Emporium of Granville Stokes, No. 607, into 609 Chestnut street, famous on this territorial orb.

☞ WHITE TEETH, PERFUMED BREATH AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION—can be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." What lady or gentleman, would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when by using the "BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS" as a dentrifice, would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster! Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate that their friends will never mention it. Beware of counterfeits. Be sure each bottle is signed

FETRIDGE & CO., N. Y.

CARLYLE, Friend Ayer:—In this age of quacks, charlatans and mere windy gaseous pretenders to heal, who blow at every corner, and in the face and ears of all men, their loud, blaring Jerich trumpets and other noisy boisterous wind instruments of marvelously twisted brass, in such a woefully shamridden epoch as this, I say, it is comforting, nay even cheering to the earnest well wisher of his race to know there has arrived in this world a genuine Physician—to light once more upon something besides mere Sangrados and Dan Mercurial Jalaps, with their phlebotomies, poisons and warm water.

Your Cathartic Pills and Cherry Pectoral, carry us forward to Baleyon days—to millenjet Pharmacopeas, when Science, deep diving down into the principles of things, shall, with infinite cunning, bring out the genuine Elixir Vitæ; for of a truth there is manifestly enough somewhat of that same Life Essence in your subtle vegetable distillations and compounds.

You realize to us the visions of those painfullest smoke dried Alchymists—bootless seek-re—dreamers among retorts and crucibles, touching the quintessential hidden virtue of the universe, which should antidote distemper, and break for man the Wheel of Time.

COUNTERFEIT WISTAR'S BALSAM.

We would caution the purchasers of the Balsam of Wild Cherry against an imitation article which has made its appearance in many places, and which might deceive the unwary by its resemblance to the genuine bottle. Of the mixture we need not speak. Unprincipled scoundrels can always be found ready to counterfeit anything, by which they can put money in their pockets, and they are sure to choose the most popular and well known article on which to practice their villainies. It is a lamentable fact that there also dealers in medicines who are willing to lend themselves to carry out this imposition, by selling such trash as genuine, because they can buy it for less than half the cost of the real article. Avoid such a man as you would a dealer in counterfeit money, for he is the greater scamp of the two.

They have never dared to forge the written signature of I. Butts, having a wholesome fear of the State Prison before their eyes. Be sure that you find on the outside wrapper the written signature of I. BUTTS, and you may rely upon its being genuine. Buy none other.

These Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as a preventive to those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family.

Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so are cautioned against using these Pills, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any injury to health; otherwise, these Pills are recommended.

ONE PRICE ONLY!

LIPPINCOTT & HUNTER'S Clothing Warehouse, South West corner of Fourth and Market streets, Philadelphia. The only One Price Clothing Store in America

Cash purchasers of Men's or boy's Clothing, at wholesale and retail, can here make their selection from an immense stock of fashionably cut and well made clothing, got up with a view to give satisfaction to all, and at the very lowest possible selling price a marked in plain figures on every garment, all buy at the same price, and whether they are judges of goods or not, they cannot be deceived. One uniform low price to ask and take with everybody, with the usual mode of asking two prices, and taking all that can be got, suits nobody, and cheats three-fourths; for instance a man asks $15 for a coat, and afterwards agrees to take $10, and it is equally certain, that he would have taken $15, if he could have got it, and thus actually cheated his purchaser out of five dollars. To remedy this evil and establish confidence in the trade, LIPPINCOTT & CO., a uniform below price on all their goods, (very much below the usual rates,) and will never vary one cent under any circumstances.

The first 200 Prizes, similarly printed and enclosed, are placed in another wheel.

The wheels are then revolved, and a number is drawn from the wheel of Numbers, and at the same time a Prize is drawn from the other wheel. The Number and Prize drawn out are opened and exhibited to the audience, and registered by the Commissioners; the Prize being placed against the Number drawn. This operation is repeated until all the Prizes are drawn out.

Approximation Prizes.—The two preceding and the two succeeding Numbers to those drawing the first 8 Prizes will be entitled to the 32 Approximation Prizes. For example: if Ticket No. 11,250 draws the $60,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 11,248, 249, 11,251, 11,252, will each be entitled to $300. If Ticket No. 500 draws the $30,000 Prize, those Tickets numbered 548, 549, 551, 552, will each be entitled to $250, and so on according to the above scheme.

The 5000 Prizes of $20 will be determined by the last figure of the Number that draws the $60,000 Prize. For example, if the Number drawing the $60,000 Prize ends with No. 1, then all the Tickets where the Number ends, in 1 will be entitled to $20. If the Number ends with No. 2 then all the Tickets where the Number ends in 2 will be entitled to $20, and so on to 0.

Certificates of Packages will be sold at the following rates, which is the price:

Certificate of Package of 10 Whole Tickets,				$80
