

COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.
LEVI L. TATE, EDITOR.
Bloomsburg, Jan. 30, 1858.

STATE CONVENTION.—At a meeting of the Democratic State Committee, held at the Hotel, Bloomsburg, January 10, 1858, it was resolved, That the next Democratic State Convention be held at Harrisburg, on the 4th day of March next. Pursuant to said resolution, delegates from the several Senatorial and Representative districts of the State will convene in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at the Capitol, on THURSDAY, MARCH 4, 1858, at 10 A. M., to nominate candidates for Judge of the Supreme Court and Chief Commissioner, and for the transmission of such nominations to persons of the authority of such Conventions.

J. N. HUTCHINSON, Secretary.
R. J. HICKMAN, Chairman.

THE INAUGURAL.
We publish on the outside of this day's Columbia Democrat the inaugural address of Gov. Packer, and we call to the especial attention of our readers. It is short and plain and pointed. It is a document to reach the hearts and understandings of the people. On questions of State policy it is sound and conservative; and we believe, agree in sentiment with the great mass of the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. On the currency, on special legislation, on the veto power, on the finances, the opinions and views of Gov. Packer are those of the people of Pennsylvania.

We hope that he in conjunction with the Legislature will fairly endeavor to carry them out—we are sure if they do, they will have the warm and hearty support not only of the party, but of the people. Gov. Packer should remember, however, that he who goes into office with so large a popular majority requires steeper footing to keep his balance, than the man who secures it by the skin of his teeth. There is need to be circumspect and frank, and above all to live up to the doctrines of State policy promulgated in his inaugural address.

The administration is now in the hands of the democracy—the party that can succeed and has succeeded; and at its head are some of the ablest and purest men in the state. We heartily wish them the perfect success which we know, it will be their ambition to deserve.

Your Paper Comes to this office but is not taken out I do not know any such man here perhaps it should go to Brady Kalamazoo the village is called vicksburg yours

T Bosro D P M
The above note, verbatim, reached our office a few days ago, in due course of mail. It is dated one year back, whether by design or through ignorance, we cannot tell, but as it has no intimation of from what State or Territory it emanates, neither mention of the name of the subscriber to whom it was directed, nor states the length of time it has lain in the office, we have reason to believe, that the writer of the above is one of the Jackasses, who suppose they were placed in office for the purpose of swindling Printers. For nearly three years, we have every week regularly sent the Columbia Democrat, to the address of THOS. WRIGHT, at Vicksburg, Kalamazoo Co., Michigan.

We now forward our bill to the above named chuckle-headed "D. P. M.," and demand payment as directed by Act of Congress, owing to his neglect of duty. He is clearly in for his payment. And so we shall serve every skunk who fails to duly notify us of the refusal of our paper by the subscriber within the period prescribed by law.

Biography of Eliza Kent Kane, by William Elder. Philadelphia: Childs & Peterson, 1858—pp. 416.
The life of Dr. Kane deserved to be written, and to be written now, while the facts in his great career were fresh, and attainable. If we had time and space we should like to review this volume at considerable length, both for the matter and the manner. We are sorry to say we never read his Explorations, but we have read his life with great interest and we are now anxious to read his works. He was a man of great energy of character, whom no difficulties could deter, and no dangers appal—honest, frank and generous.

How beautifully, touchingly, and eloquently has his biographer told us of the man, his trials and his triumphs—his boyhood and his manhood—his sickness and his death—he died at the age of thirty-seven. His whole life was a struggle with disease and difficulty. In it there is a lesson to be learned.

The book is elegantly got up, and handsomely illustrated, and we thank the publishers for their promptness and kindness.

Atlantic Monthly, for February, is on our table. It has twenty-one articles. The leader is "The Great Failure," and is a well written, sensible paper. "The Antisocial of the Breakfast table" is capital. Some of the poetry is very good; the stories are well written. It is a better number than the last one—has a great deal of excellent reading—paper and type beautiful. $3.00 per year, Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, Massachusetts.

Valentines.
Mr. THOMAS MAGEE, the celebrated Valentine manufacturer, corner of Second and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, advertises his friends and the public in another column, that he is prepared to fill their orders for anything in the line of Valentines—wholesale or retail. We have dealt with Mr. Magee for years—know him to be a gentleman and scholar—and confidently commend him as a fair dealer, and his wares as unsurpassed for beauty and cheapness. Stationers, Paper-dealers, Shop-keepers, &c., should at once send their orders to Mr. M. and have a good supply of choice Valentines, Envelopes, Cards, etc., in due time for St. Valentine's annual visit upon the 14th of next February.

Girard Life Insurance Company.
This old and well tried Life Insurance and Trust Company, is located at No. 408, Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Their Card is in another column of this paper, by which it will be seen on what terms Insurance can be made, and to which we invite special attention. We know that the Company are honorable gentlemen and it is everywhere regarded a safe and sound institution.

We advise our friends in Columbia and elsewhere, to get their lives insured. It is the part of wisdom. We have been appointed Agent for the Company, and will take great pleasure in giving all necessary information.

Speech of Wm. Montgomery.
Hon. WILLIAM MONTGOMERY, of the Fayette District, has our thanks for a copy of his recent speech in Congress, on the Neutrality Laws and the arrest of Mr. Filbuster Walker, by Commodore Paulding. Mr. Montgomery takes the right view of the matter, and nobly defends the action of Commodore Paulding, in arresting the outlaw, whether found on American or Foreign Territory. The speech is one of commanding interest, and is truly creditable to the head and heart of the talented young democratic Representative of "the Star of the West."

Beware of the Swindler.
Rev. C. S. Burnett, who pretends to hail from No. 831, Broadway, N. Y., is a cheat and swindler. He managed some time last August, to get his humbug Card into a number of country papers, on fair promises to pay, and amongst others, the Columbia Democrat. We now post the alleged Rev. C. S. Burnett, a scoundrel and swindler, and caution the public so to regard him everywhere.

Peterson's Detector.
We are in the receipt of "Peterson's Philadelphia Counterfeit Detector and Bank Note List," for February. This is a new publication, handsomely gotten up and well arranged, and believed to be correct and reliable. Address, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, No. 306, Chestnut Street, Philadelphia; $1.00 per annum, in monthly numbers.

Hon. WILLIAM STRONG, the newly elected member of the Supreme Court of this State, is a leading member of the Presbyterian Church in the city of Reading. He was Superintendent of the Sunday school connected with his Church. A few Sundays since he presented 93 of his scholars who had acquired proficiency in the catechism during the past year, with a handsome new Bible.

ELECTION IN KANSAS.—The result of the late election in Kansas, is still shrouded in doubt. We have different reports—some of which allege that the Democratic State ticket has been elected, and others that it has been defeated. All the reports agree, however, that the majority against the Lecompton constitution will be very heavy.

Peterson's Ladies' National Magazine.
The January and February numbers of this popular National Magazine are on our Desk. We have perused its pages with interest, and much admire its rich adornings and the beauty of its artistic skill in way of fine fashion plates. Address Charles J. Peterson, No. 306, Chestnut Street, Philadelphia; $2.00 per annum, in advance.

Supreme Bench.
Gov. PACKER, has appointed WILLIAM A. PORTER, late City Solicitor, to the Supreme Bench, in place of Judge Knox, resigned.

Sentence of Wm. Muller.
Judge Conyngham, has passed sentence of death upon William Muller, of Luzerne Co., for the murder of George Matthias.

The leading mercantile houses in Montreal and Quebec, have discarded the "pounds shillings and pence" system of accounts and adopted the decimal, or "dollars and cents" currency.

Mr. Samuel Hammer, of Danville, is appointed route agent from Scranton to Rupert, on the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg (Pa.) Railroad.

Valentines.—The prettiest and ugliest, the cheapest and most modern VALENTINES AND ENVELOPES extant, can be had at the office of the Columbia Democrat.

Letter from Harrisburg.
HARRISBURG, January 20, 1858.
The inauguration of Wm. F. Packer yesterday and its concomitants, was one of the most brilliant sights ever witnessed at the State Capitol. Every avenue was thronged, and every place of public resort by citizens and strangers, by soldiers and civilians. It is conceded on all sides that the attendance was far greater than ever before seen here. Long before daylight the notes of preparation were heard—the military were harnessing their arms, the citizens their turnouts, that everything might combine to make the affair go off with success. Nor could the weather have been more propitious. The previous day had been lowering and heavy; but Tuesday morning opened bright and beautiful, with just enough of "a nipping and an eager air," to give a zest to the sight-seers.

Dr. Charles Seiler, of Harrisburg, was the Chief Marshal and Major Gen. Wm. M. Keim, of Reading, the Commander in Chief of the military. The procession commenced its line of march at eleven and reached the Capitol at a little after twelve o'clock. At the "Jones House," Gov. Pollock was taken into the carriage in which rode the Governor elect. The following is the order of the procession:

Maj. General Keim and Staff, consisting of Maj. S. L. Young, Maj. A. Jordan Swartz, Maj. W. A. Sands, Maj. J. G. Herr, Maj. James Freeland, Col. Geo. A. C. Seiler, and Surgeon Dr. Reid.
Pennsylvania Dragoons.

Band.
Lancaster Fencibles.
Barracks Band.
National Guards.
Band.
Lebanon Artillery.
Marshall Music.
Logan Guards.
Brig. Gen. Williams and Staff, consisting of Maj. W. A. Dolaney, Maj. F. K. Boley.
Maj. Jas. R. Espy.
Brigade Inspector, Maj. Jao. Wright.

Harmony Band Phil.
Black Hussars, as escort of Gov. elect.
1. Governor and Governor elect, with the Chairman of Joint Committee of Arrangements of the Senate and the House.
2. The two Secretaries of the Commonwealth, with the Chairman of the Joint Committee of the Senate and House, to wait on Heads of Departments.

3. The two Attorney Generals, with two of the Joint Committee of Arrangements.
4. The two Deputy Secretaries of the Commonwealth with two of the joint committee to wait on Heads of Departments.
5. Auditor General and State Treasurer with two of joint committee of Arrangements.
6. Surveyor General and Superintendent of Common Schools with two of joint committee to wait on Heads of Departments.
7. Canal Commissioners and State Librarian.

Gen. Seiler, Chief Marshal, and Aids.
Adjutant Eyster.
Band.
Newport Artillery.
Band.
Fisherville Guards.
City Band, Reading.
Reading Rifles.
Valley Infantry.

A platform had been erected in front of the Capitol large enough to contain about two hundred and fifty persons, which was occupied by the members of the two Houses, ex-members, and distinguished strangers. Mr. Speaker Welsh administered the oath of office:

"You do swear that you will support the Constitution of the United States—You do also swear that you will support the Constitution of the State of Pennsylvania, and that you will discharge your duties as Governor of this Commonwealth with fidelity."

After which His Excellency stepped to the front of the platform, and in a loud, clear voice read his inaugural to an audience so vast, that the half could hardly catch its highest tones. It occupied about half an hour in the reading, and I know you will readily agree with me when I say that if the vigor of the war is indicated by the manifesto, then will Gov. Packer's administration be a fortunate one. The latter part of it, on the Kansas question, was vehemently applauded, and the speaker was compelled to suspend his remarks for a moment. It was delivered, too, in a bold, fearless and emphatic manner, that added very much to its effect. There is no doubting as to which side he is on.

In the afternoon Gov. Packer reviewed the troops which were drawn up in Market Square, and made a most soldierly appearance. He was accompanied by Adjutant General Thomas J. Power.

The day previous to the inauguration, the retiring Governor gave the Governor elect and his Cabinet a dinner at the Jones House. The party consisted of Governor Pollock, Attorney General Franklin, Secretary Curtin, Deputy Secretary Sullivan, and Schools Superintendent Hickock, of the old regime; and Messrs. Packer, Knox, Hiestler, and Diffenbach of the new. The dinner was got up in Governor's best style, and therefore was a superb affair. It was a graceful act on the part of Gov. Pollock, and bespeaks for him that kindness of heart that even his enemies have not denied him.

We do our friends a real service in calling attention to a medicine of such acknowledged merit as Wistar's Balsam. We are all liable to coughs and colds, which cease to be dangerous when recourse is had to the Wild Cherry.

The Senate Committees.
HARRISBURG, Jan. 11.—The following Standing Committees of the Senate were announced to-day by the Speaker, viz:—

Committee on Finance—Messrs. Buckalew, Coffey, Wright, Southern, and Vetter.
Committee on the Judiciary—Messrs. Wilkins, Finney, Crosswell, and Scofield.
Committee on Banks—Messrs. Crosswell, Finney, Bell, Coffey, and Marsalis.
Committee on Corporations—Messrs. Wright, Southern, Steel, Schell, Shaeffer.
Committee on Railroads—Messrs. Ingram, Gazzam, Crosswell, Turney, and Kutherford.
Committee on Education—Messrs. Brewer, Harris, Wilkins, Gregg, and Miller.
Committee on Accounts—Mr. Evans, Chairman.
On Estates and Escheats—Mr. Bell, Chairman.
On Pensions—Mr. Gregg, Chairman.
On the Library—Mr. Randall, Chairman.
On Canal &c.—Mr. Ely, Chairman.
On Election Districts—Mr. Scofield, Chairman.
On Retrenchment and Reform—Mr. Steele, Chairman.
On Agriculture, &c.—Mr. Knox, Chairman.
On Roads, &c.—Mr. Laubach, Chairman.
On Vice and Immorality—Mr. Miller, Chairman.
On Claims, &c.—Mr. Schell, Chairman.
On Printing—Mr. Gazzam, Chairman.
On Buildings—Mr. Marsalis, Chairman.
On New Counties—Mr. Craig, Chairman.

"All the Decency."
The Free State Legislature of Kansas on the receipt of President Buchanan's Message, passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That James Buchanan, President of the United States, be entitled to the name of Muggins; and that a copy of this resolution be sent to him. The resolution passed amid deafening cheers."

The Free State legislators, if all their ingenuity had been directed to damaging their own cause, could have found no more sure method of securing that result than by the use of such disrespectful language towards the Chief Magistrate of the nation. Billingsgate is the alternative for argument only when the cause for which it is employed is too weak to be bolstered by sound logic, or when, as is usually the case, the logicians are from Alabama and the five points. President Buchanan cannot be injured by such puny attempts, nor is it likely he would have any other feeling than a proper contempt for those who attack him with such scurrility, should he ever be apprised of it. But the country will resent the insult for him. He has been endorsed by the people of the Union as the most fit man in the Union for its highest office; and he will be supported in the position in which he has been placed, despite the blackguardism of any person or class of persons.

The Pleasure of Paying Debts.
We have no higher enjoyment than to pay honest debts, and we had as lief lie down in a bed of needles as to have men come to us and ask for money when we have it not. It is really a fact that we have recently been "working for nothing and finding ourselves." Thousands of dollars are due us in small sums that it would hurt no one to pay, and yet if we could get them together it would enable us to satisfy every one to whom we are indebted.

Next week our regular term of Court commences. Hundreds of our friends will be in town, and we ask them TO REMEMBER THE PRINTER'S SMALL BILLS!

Let us be able to say that we have received money enough to pay up the expenses of the Columbia Democrat. Let those who do not come to Court send the prices of their subscription and advertising for such a remembrance, and we can work in the harness much better, for every one knows that "money makes the mare go." Don't forget to pay the printer.

Gov. Packer's Cabinet.
Secretary of State—Wm. M. Hiestler, of Berks.
Deputy Secretary—HENRY L. DIFFENBACH, of Clinton county.
Attorney General—Hon. Jno. C. Knox, of Clarion county.
Confidential Clerk in the Secretary's office—JOHN A. INNS, of Eastern.
As we before intimated Wm. A. PORTER, Esq., has been appointed Judge of the Supreme Court to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Hon. Jno. C. Knox.

Governor's Mansion.
The Joint Committee of both Houses, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, State Treasurer and Auditor General have made an agreement with Mr. Worrell for the purchase of the "Griffith property" on the river bank as a residence for the Governor; the price to be paid is ten thousand dollars for the property, and one hundred for the gas fixtures.

The agreement has to be ratified by both Houses before it can be made binding, but there is no doubt of its satisfaction, and Governor Packer will reside in that locality.

A High Compliment.
On the occasion of the celebration of the eighth of January by the Young Men's National Democratic Association of Cincinnati, the following was the regular toast:

"The President of the United States!"

A Washington in purity of purpose, Jefferson in devotion to democracy, and a Jackson in determined execution."

When it was read, (says the Cincinnati Enquirer,) the three deafening and enthusiastic shouts that followed gave an assurance that the President still remains unabated and undivided, the confidence of the association, as well as the other democrats who were present. And the brotherly feeling that marked the intercourse of the hundreds in attendance demonstrated that the Kansas differences had not yet begun even sow the seeds of alienation. The celebration was, in every respect, a decided success; in the material of the feast, in the sentiments and speeches and unbounded good feeling, nothing was wanting.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad, held at Kingston, on Monday last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—HON. W. C. REYNOLDS.
V. President—WILLIAM SWELAND.
Directors—Hon. Geo. W. Woodward, H. Gaylord, Samuel Hoyt, T. F. Atherton, M. W. Jackson, Col. G. W. Seranton, Maj. E. McNeal, Col. C. F. Wells, Jr., James Archibald, T. Strong, John Brislin.

Better selections for the post of President and Vice President could not be made, while the Board of Directors is composed of gentlemen well known to the community, men whose experience and business qualifications render the Board one of the most efficient that could possibly have been chosen, and fully competent to act vigorously and wisely in any emergency.—Berwick Gazette.

"Tun Up."
R. M. Mellen, the Chicago periodical dealer who disappeared so mysteriously in May, 1855, we learn from the Chicago Tribune has returned safe and sound. Meantime, his wife, supposing him dead, married a man by the name of Austin, between whom and Mellen a struggle is now going on for the custody of the lady. Mellen states that he was insane when he wandered away, and that he first went to Memphis, thence to New Orleans, and thence to California, from whence he now returns.

DECEASED.—George Kuntion Harper, Esq., who for nearly forty years was the editor of the Franklin Repository, died at Chambersburg, Pa., on the 13th inst., aged seventy-nine years. In the war of 1812 he served as an officer of infantry in two campaigns; first on the Canada lines, and again in the defenses of Baltimore. On the latter occasion he and Capt. Culbertson, with drum and file and the flag of the "old Blues," raised a company of over a hundred men, and had them march to the scene of action in a few hours.

Official Vote for Governor.
On Friday both branches of the Legislature met in joint Convention for the purpose of opening and counting the returns of the election for Governor. The official vote was announced as follows:

William F. Packer,	188,840
David Wilmet,	146,139
Isaac Hazlehurst,	28,096
Packer's majority over Wilmet,	42,707
"over both,	14,611

We learn that SAMUEL HILL, Esq., who lately represented the county of Westmoreland in the State Legislature, died suddenly at his residence, in Washington, township, Westmoreland county, on Saturday, the 10th inst. Mr. Hill had occupied several important public posts, in all of which he faithfully and ably discharged his duties. He was an honest, upright man, and an exemplary Christian.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR.
O. Barrett, Esq., of the Harrisburg Key-stone, to be Superintendent of Printing.
Charles Barnett, Esq., to be Sealer of Weights and Measures for Allegheny County.
John Macklin, Esq., to be Flour Inspector at Pittsburg.

DECLARED.—Rev. J. J. Lehmanowsky, died in Clarion county, Ind., on the 4th inst. He was a Pole by birth, and a distinguished officer in the Napoleonic wars, but some time after his arrival in this country became a minister in the Lutheran church.

Lebanon Valley Railroad.
President.—Hon. Simon Cameron.
Directors.—Isaac Eckert, G. Dawson Coleman, John Banks, G. A. Nicolls, J. W. Killinger and James Millholland.
Secretary and Treasurer.—Daniel S. Hunter.

A very severe case of Sore Eyes, of 5 years standing, was cured by the use of DU VAL'S GALVANIC OIL. It is one of the most soothing and pain relieving agents that can be had. In Erysipelas of the face, it will often remove the pain in 10 minutes.

Bloomsburg Editors.
We had the pleasure a few days ago of calling on our friend Dr. John of the Republican. We found him in excellent spirits, notwithstanding the "hard times." His paper is a fair index of himself dignified, courteous, intelligent and pleasing. We have no hesitation in saying what is now generally acknowledged, that the Republican is among the very first opposition papers in the State, in point of ability and the high-toned character of its editorial department, as well as the taste and neatness of its mechanical execution. Dr. John accompanied us to the sanctum of our friend Col. Tate, editor of the Democrat, where we spent a very pleasant hour. There is something very attractive in the courteous and gentlemanly bearing of the Col. while his social qualities are of the highest order. He publishes an excellent family paper but unfortunately it is affected with the very worst form of modern democracy; still it is full of interest, and is one of the leading journals on that side of the house. Col. Tate is the President of the "Keystone editorial Association" a position for which he is admirably adapted. In the success of that Association we feel a deep and abiding interest and with a presiding officer of his urbanity, dignity and quick perception; and with the clear judgement of such men as Dr. John on the floor, we may reasonably hope for the best results.—Montour American.

Death of Joseph Steele, Esq.
JOSEPH STEELE, Esq., the venerable Father of Senator Steele, died at Hanover, Luzerne county, on Tuesday, the 19th inst., in the 80th year of his age.

Washington Irving, now seventy-five years old, walks to Dr. Croighton's Church, in Tarrytown (of which we believe he is a vestryman) and back, five miles, nearly every Sunday.

On Tuesday, last week, the U. S. Senate confirmed the nomination of Hon. Nathan Clifford, of Maine, for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Oxygenated Bitters.
WORCESTER, June 27, 1854.
Gentlemen.—After suffering much for two years past from Dyspepsia, I was induced to purchase of your Agent in Worcester, a bottle of your Oxygenated Bitters, and after a trial of less than two bottles, I find myself radically cured.

I have not the least hesitation in recommending them to all who are afflicted with this distressing complaint.—You are at liberty to use this as you think best to further the sale of this excellent medicine.

Yours truly,
JOHN GRAY.
Any Individual suffering from weakness and derangement of the stomach, nervousness or debility in any form, can be cured by this medicine.

On Sunday morning, January 17th, 1858, in Nesquehock, Luzerne county, Mr. Henry Kechner, to Miss Maria Hartzell, both of that place.

DIED.
In Marion county, Iowa, on the 23th of December, of disease of the brain, Charles J. Em, aged 33 years, formerly of this county.

[Mr. Em, the deceased, was a younger brother of our immediate Representative, Hon. Peter Em, a worthy and estimable citizen. He was a member of the Order of Odd Fellows, by whom his remains were attended to its final resting place, with all the honors and solemnities of the Order.]
In Columbus, Luzerne county, on the 23d of January, 1858, Daniel Koons, Esq., aged 89 years, 8 mo., and 8 days.
[The deceased was one of the earliest settlers and most respectable citizens of Luzerne county. He was the Father of the Hon. John Koons, of New Columbia, and leaves a large and enterprising family to mourn the loss of an affectionate father. Mr. Koons was an exemplary member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.]
In Hazleton, on the 15th inst., Arlo, son of Geo. B. & E. A. Markle, aged 2 years and 9 days.

Special Notice!
We are now sending out bills to all arrears, with a view of having every account settled up to the first of March, with the close of the Eleventh Volume.—This must be done, after which time, no subscriber, out of the County, will get the COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT, without paying for it in advance, and those then in arrears, will be stricken from the roll, and their accounts placed in legal hands for speedy collection. We find this course imperative to our own security, and will religiously carry this measure into effect, as we intend to open the TWELFTH VOLUME under new arrangements and with additional improvements.
