FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS. GEORGE M. KEIM, OF Berks County. RICHARD VAUX, OF Philadelphia.

FOR SENATORS. JOHN BELL, OF Tennessee. EDWARD BATES, OF Missouri. JUDGE McLEAN, OF Ohio.

RETIRED STATE SENATORS. THOMAS S. BELL, OF Chester and Delaware. ISAAC N. MARSHALL, OF Philadelphia.

CONCERT OF CASES. THE CASE FAMILY, of Rushtown, Northumberland Co., will give a Concert in Vocal and Instrumental Music.

More New Goods. MR. A. J. SLOAN, always up to time and in advance of the fashions, has just received his Spring and Summer supply.

Grape Vines and Fruit Trees. Our enterprising friend and fellow citizen, MR. H. ZUPPINGER, has a select assortment of superior Grape Vines, Fruit Trees, &c.

Gen. Foster on the Tariff. We publish on this page of to-day's DEMOCRAT, the speech made by the Hon. HENRY D. FOSTER, in Congress, in 1844.

Campaign Democrat. We this week commence the Campaign Democrat. For the ensuing seven months, our paper will be chiefly political.

We are United! We have never known the Democratic party more thoroughly united than it is now in support of HENRY D. FOSTER for Governor.

Mr. A. A. Rose, Principal in the Bloomburg Graded School, we understand, will be a candidate for County Su-

Presidential.

The politicians of both the great parties are in the dark as to the probable result of the Convention at Charleston and Chicago. A third party is also looming up.

The Charleston Convention will assemble on the 23d of April instant. A host of other names will be presented, but the following will probably be the prominent candidates.

JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE, OF Kentucky. STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, OF Illinois. R. M. T. HUNTER, OF Virginia.

The Union Convention will be held in Baltimore on the 9th of May. Those most prominent in this connection at present are:

JOHN BELL, OF Tennessee. EDWARD BATES, OF Missouri. JUDGE McLEAN, OF Ohio.

RETIRED STATE SENATORS. THOMAS S. BELL, OF Chester and Delaware. ISAAC N. MARSHALL, OF Philadelphia.

The Republicans and the President.

The Republican party is a revolt against the Government and institutions of the United States. It professes to offer new motives to action, new rewards for service, and new inducements to exertion.

The Charleston Convention will assemble on the 23d of April instant. A host of other names will be presented, but the following will probably be the prominent candidates.

Editor's Correspondence.

The cry of Freedom so frequently heard in the Republican party, is as unpleasing as it is inappropriate. Their political actions are a sufficient proof of the inconsistency of their shrieks.

SPEECH OF HENRY D. FOSTER, IN DEFENSE OF PENNSYLVANIA'S INTERESTS; IN CONGRESS, DECEMBER 18, 1844.

Mr. Foster, after advertizing to the unexpected and hasty manner in which the bill to remit the duties on railroad iron had been brought forward, and remarking that Pennsylvania had been accustomed to be considered the tariff question as one to be treated on general principles, proceeded to express his regret that his colleague [Mr. E. Joy Morris] had alluded to the recent canvass, in Pennsylvania as he had done.
