

Mr. C. B. Brockway, has our acknowledgments for a Catalogue of the Greenwood Seminary, at Millville, including the Constitution and Roll of Members.

Inlay & Rickell's Reporter, for May, is on our table. It is a standard Bank Note Detector. Every Merchant and Business man should have this excellent Monthly. Price $1 per annum.

JOHN A. FUNSTON, Esq., Treasurer of Columbia county, offers to sell a small and desirable Farm, near Jerseytown.—We bespeak it, the attention of persons in want of a pleasant and valuable home. For particulars, see bills and notice in the advertising department of the "Columbia Democrat."

A Talking Improvement.—Our worthy fellow townsman, Mr. J. J. BROWER, in addition to filling his Storehouse with beautiful New Goods, has adorned his premises, by the erection of a new frame awning, and had it all hand-somely painted. Mr. B. is one of the best men and most estimable citizens of Bloomsburg. We love to record the progress of improvement, in our pleasant town, and hope his example may be generally emulated by our citizens.

"CHANGE OF FORTUNE IS THE LOT OF LIFE," and an agreeable change to a large portion of the community, for they experience a continued increase of fortune by depositing their money in the Franklin Saving Fund, No. 136 South Fourth street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia, where it bears five per cent. interest, without any risk, they having a large surplus capital as security for depositors; and any amounts, large or small, received and repaid without notice. This Saving Fund never suspended. Send advertisement in another column.

May Flower Spring Machine.—Messrs. GRIGER & MANNING, advertise a new Sewing Machine in this Columbia Democrat. It is said to possess many merits, and is a valuable improvement on all other Patents. Mr. C. G. GRIGER, Esq.—one of the most estimable gentlemen in our Commonwealth—is one of the firm, and his partner Mr. Manning, will in a few days, visit Bloomsburg and Columbia county, and give our citizens instructions and exhibitions on this wonderful machine.

PENNSYLVANIA BIBLE SOCIETY.—Rev. J. H. TAYLOR, the General Agent of the Union Bible Society of Easton, Pennsylvania, will preach in Bloomsburg, tomorrow—Sabbath—on the following text: "The great interests of the Bible." The Book of Life will be faithfully and explicitly presented, by Mr. Taylor, the accredited Bible Agent, who is one of the most zealous and efficient Ministers of the Gospel in the State.

Atlantic Monthly for June, end of the 5th vol. is on our table. It is a more than average number. From "Hallways to Chess," from "Lodging Houses in Boston" to "Japan" the reader travels, pleased and instructed. "The Professor's story continues," so does "Christians Picture," and a new volume commences with July.—The Reviews and literary notices are excellent and sharp. By the way should not the man who so belittles Mr. Beckett, crack over the knuckles the writer of "the Canadian Girl's song." He rhymes "bong" and "below," "loam" and "blossom" and among other things writes such a silliant line as the following: "saddens some stranger's careless sport," which is absolutely unendurable. So the author of "Spring-Song" is guilty of rhyming "robin" and "sodding," and "sheath" and "breath." These things are important in a periodical assuming to set the standard of literary excellence.

DROWNED.—On Monday night last, Peter Getchkin, a young man from Cattawissa, while in a state of intoxication, was drowned in the three mile level of the Wyoming Canal, about one mile above this borough. It appears from the evidence of a companion with whom Getchkin was walking, that he ran up the tow-path, and crossing a bridge, retraced his steps on the bank. He came down nearly opposite the point from which he suddenly disappeared, and after taking off his coat and over-shirt, plunged or fell into the canal and drowned without a struggle. Diligent search was made for the body during Tuesday and Wednesday, but without success. On Wednesday night the level was drawn, and on Thursday morning the corpse was found a few feet from where the fatal occurrence took place.—An inquest was promptly held over the body, by James Belford, Esq., of Beach Haven, and an examination conducted by Drs. H. L. Freas and R. H. Little, a wound was found on the left ear, which was supposed to have been produced by the fall. The deceased doubtless drowned while unconscious from the effect of the intoxication received in falling. The verdict of the jury was in accordance with the facts.—Beach Gazette.

CAMPAIGN PROSPECTS OF THE Columbia Democrat

Only 75 cts for 6 months; or 50 cts. in Clubs of 10 Subscribers.

The best Democratic paper in the North. DEVOTED TO THE ADVOCACY OF THE ELECTION OF THE STATESMAN AND NATIONAL UNION.

The coming General and Presidential Election, will be the most important of all our elections. In the great struggle, the Democratic Party, true to its old landmarks and to its proud high duty, plants its feet on the rocks of the Constitution, and maintains its position, which are essential to a maintenance of the Government, and the preservation of the Union, will have to encounter Know-nothingism, Black Republicanism, and all their allies, in their most desperate moods. They will assail the Democratic Cause, with every weapon of political warfare; by misrepresentation, falsehood, and plausible sentimental appeals. Such assaults must be repulsed, and one of the most important means to this end is the great instrumentality of the press, the free circulation of Democratic journals. In order to contribute in such a work, we propose to issue the CAMPAIGN COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT, as follows:—

For one copy, to a single subscriber, 50 cts. For clubs of five, to one address, 3. 75 For clubs of 10 or more, to one address 5. 00
