Washington Dictation.

"We desire to ascertain the strength of the National Democracy North and South, and we intend to ascertain it."

So then, that has come to be the question. We supposed those gentlemen were anxious to elect Judge Douglas to the Presidency...

If Mr. Miles Taylor is convinced that Judge Douglas cannot be elected, would it not be more patriotic for him to assist frankly in the election of Maj. Breckinridge...

Who are in Favor of "Fusion"?

Is it not a significant fact that there are but two classes among the Democracy who are in favor of a "fusion" or "Union" Electoral ticket?

Now let the independent men of the Democracy party note this. These men are not a straw for principle; they are working for success...

The laborers of the Republicans to prevent a union of the Democratic party are incessant and earnest. Is it not enough to make Col. Wright pass in his destructive career...

What is General Foster?

Why is it that Gen. FOSTER continues mum? Why is it that he don't come out openly and declare either for DOUGLAS or BRECKINRIDGE?

Democratic Sentiment.

We give below, extracts from a number of papers, favoring the election of Judge Douglas, condemning in unmeasured terms the men who are getting up bogus conventions...

Democratic Sentiment.

The Greensburg Democrat says:—We shall in no wise aid or countenance the treasonable designs and efforts of Col. Forney, the paid hireling of Black Republicanism...

A Model Delegate in a Democratic Convention.

It will be recollected by those of our readers who closely watched the proceedings of the Democratic Convention, at the Front Street Theatre, in Baltimore...

News.

CONNECTICUT.—The "Union" State Convention of Connecticut, which was held at New Haven on Wednesday last...

Alabama.

The Montgomery Advertiser sets at rest in the following emphatic way the claims of the Douglasites to Hon. Henry W. Hilliard:

"Mr. Hilliard authorizes us to say that he is in favor of Breckinridge and Lane; indeed, has been ever since the news of his nomination was received. True, he was a member of the Convention at Commercial Hall, in this city, in June...

North Carolina.

Another Bell and Everett elector has declared for the Democratic nominees. The North Carolinian announces the fact as follows:

Texas.

We have reliable information that John A. Wilcox, who has been North to organize the Houston forces, and get up electoral tickets in his favor in the several States...

Virginia.

O. Jennings Wise, Esq., in the course of an address at a Democratic meeting at Norfolk on Tuesday evening, stated that his father's absence was caused entirely by severe illness...

A Very Short Turn.

The Wabash Intelligencer tells a strange story of the editor of the Democratic paper of that place, the Plaindealer. It says his paper came out last Saturday morning crowded full of Douglasian and denunciations of the Republicans...

A Formidable Accession.

The Iowa State Reporter, published at Iowa City, announces that it will next drop the name of Douglas and Johnson, and thereafter give an enthusiastic support to Lincoln and Hamlin.

Douglas Cut Douglas.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, a Douglas paper, has the following:—"Lane Probably Deceitful.—We are glad to perceive that Joe Lane is probably defeated for re-election to the United States Senate in Oregon. Politically and personally he is unworthy of the position. It is evident that the ticket of Breckinridge and Lane will be badly beaten in Oregon in November."

To which the Hunterdon Democrat, an other Douglas paper replies:—

"The Cincinnati Enquirer is the leading Douglas organ in the North, and no doubt fairly represents this interest, which prefers the election of a Black Republican United States Senator to that of a patriot, soldier and statesman, like the gallant Lane. It is this Douglas Democracy, 'Good Lord, deliver us from it!'"

Forney's Convention.

In point of numbers, when we consider the great flourish that was made, and the eloquent announcements that "thousands of true hearted, independent and principle-loving of the Democracy" would be on hand, we must say that the Convention was a failure.

Forney's Convention.

There were only about two hundred persons present, and some of those took no part in the proceedings, while others, whose names appear as officers, were not in attendance at all.

Counties represented, not represented.

- Counties represented: Adams, Berks, Bedford, Blair, Bucks, Bradford, Butler, Clarion, Columbia, Cumberland, Clinton, Chester, Carbon, Centre, Cambria, Delaware, Dauphin, Franklin, Huntingdon, Lancaster, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, Mifflin, Monroe, Northumberland, Perry, Potter, Schuylkill, Susquehanna, Tioga, Union, Westmoreland, York.

Memories of the Past.

We take the following extracts from a speech of Hon. STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, with the comments thereon from the Richmond Equivocal. No better commentary upon the proceedings at Charleston and Baltimore could be made by any living man than are contained in that little treatise.

Judge Douglas on UNANIMOUS NOMINATIONS.

On the 9th of July, 1852, the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas addressed the Democracy of Richmond, Va., in the African Church. From the speech prepared by himself, published in the Equivocal of July 24th, 1852, we make the following extracts.

Lincoln and the Tariff.

Before Congress adjourned, a distinguished member of the United States Senate sent a copy of the Morrill Tariff Bill to Abraham Lincoln with the request that he would give it his endorsement and return. It was desirable to place him right upon the record as far as Pennsylvania's interests are concerned, but he was not disposed to be so caught.

Col. Forney, in the Philadelphia Press, of a late date, proposes a union of the friends of Lincoln, Douglas and Bell, to defeat Breckinridge.

The infamy of this paid hireling of black republicanism, in claiming to be a Democrat, bought and paid for by the abolitionists, and supporting Judge Douglas only to betray him, his effrontery is most brazen and shameless.

Col. Forney's Conventions.

On Thursday last, a Convention of friends of Judge Douglas, called by Col. Forney and Mr. Haldeman, was held in the Hall of the House of Representatives and was called to order by R. J. Hamman, who explained the authority by which the Convention was called.
