☞ Our friends are solicited to get up clubs.

LEVI L. TATE

☞ Col. Jos. N. SCRANTON, Pres't. of the L. & B. R. R. Co., will accept our thanks for his polite attentions.

☞ Several members of the Bloomsburg Academy met on Wednesday afternoon and organized a Literary Society.—C. B. BROCKWAY was elected President, and J. W. HESS, Secretary.

☞ The Farmers of Columbia county have just gathered a most bountiful Oat Crop. We believe it to be the largest and heaviest ever housed in our county. This will be gratifying news to those citizens, who—like ourself—have to buy the material aid for our horses.

☞ We direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. FREDERICK BROWN, Jr., Chemist and Druggist, in our columns.—Mr. Brown, occupies the corner Store, on Chestnut and Ninth Streets, in the Philadelphia Continental. He is a worthy young gentleman and has a well filled and magnificent Store.

☞ The Rev. J. R. SHANAFELT will preach in the Baptist Church next Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, he will deliver a discourse in the Lutheran Church, on the subject of Death—its dominion and agents—illustrated by Peale's celebrated painting, "The Court of Death."

Young America, Forever!—Passing through the north part of Briarcreek township, last week, we met a small boy, and on enquiring of him whose son he was, he remarked, with perfect coolness, "I am nobody's Son. I am Levi D. Knouse's Grandady." We told him, as he appeared to be a good scholar, for his age, he might pass.

H. W. CREASY & CO.—A friend of ours says H. W. Creasy & Co., at Light Street, are actually selling the best Imperial Tea at fifty cents per pound; best Syrup Molasses at fifty cents per gallon: Ladies French Lasting Gaitors at fifty and seventy-five cents per pair, and all other Goods as low as possible. We would advise our neighbors to call and examine their stock.

☞ The Meteor of the 19th of July, which created general astonishment throughout the world, as a nation's greatest Phenomena, was scarcely more attractive to the people of Columbia county, than the charm which irresistably impels our citizens to wend their winding way from every section of the country to buy cheap goods at Bettle's Light Street Store, nor did its development afford them near the same solid satisfaction.

GIFT BOOK SALE.—The American Book Company have established a branch of their business at the Post Office, in Bloomsburg. They have a large and splendid assortment of standard and miscellaneous works, Family Bibles and Dictionaries, which will be sold at less than retail prices, and a Gift with each. The Gifts consist of gold and silver watches, gold bracelets, chains, lockets, pencils, pins, &c., &c. The Agent will remain in town a few days, that all may avail themselves of this splendid opportunity to obtain a supply of choice Books.

☞ The meeting of "The Political Combination," as Col. Curtin calls it, came off in Bloomsburg, Thursday last; that is to say, the Black Republicans and the rest of mankind opposed to Democracy, attempted to hold a conclave here on that day. Several gentlemen from the country, who we presume had nothing else to do, a number of Democrats, and many boys of the town, assembled in the afternoon, and listened, first, to those two very lucid gentlemen, Dr. John and Dr. Brower, and then to a Curtin lecture, from Andy, the champion of the "combination." The necessity of an increase of the tariff was the burthen of this lecture; a pretty song to sing by the champion and mouth-piece of a "combination," which, in 1857, put down the tariff on iron from 30, to 24 per cent! A nice tariff party!

The meeting, in every sense, was a fizzle, and if the Democracy, even with her at present broken cohorts, cannot do better, we are much mistaken.

In the evening a Case, said to be a hard one, from Danville, sometimes called Simon Peter, and another case, from Berwick, not reputed to be particularly hard, attempted to address the people in the Court House; but the audience became impatient, and the Curtin had to be raised again. The immaculate Wilmot and the learned Kelley, whose names were announced in the bills with so much flourish were not here to serve their country.

"AN OAK IS NOT FELLED WITH ONE BLOW," nor a fortune made with one saving, but only by the continuance thereof. Franklin said "little and often fills the purse," the contents of which should be deposited in some safe and reli ble Saving Fund, such as the Franklin, 136 South Fourth street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia, where it will bear five per cent. interest, and can be withdrawn at any time without notice. This Saving Fund never suspended. See advertisement in another column.

A GENEALOGY.—Jno. Knox, the Great Reformer of Scotland.

Jno. Witherspoon, D. D. one of the Signers of the Declaration of American Independence.

John Breckinridge, a member of Jefferson's Cabinet.

John C. Breckinridge, Vice President of the United States 1861-65.

The above, says the New York Journal of Commerce, is a true record of the genealogy of the next President of the United States.

Even those who are in the enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to Cordials or specifics for some of the ills that flesh is heir to. Such an invigorator they may find in HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, a medicine that cannot be taken regularly without securing a stable and elasticity to the system. All diseases, particularly the complaints to which persons are liable in certain sections of the country. In all cases of fever and ague, the BITTERS is more efficacious than any amount of quinine, while the most dangerous cases of bilious fever yield to its wonderful properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never be without it, and of the millions which the HOSTETTER BITTERS produces to the public. To those who have not made the experiment we cordially recommend an early application to the BITTERS whenever they are stricken by disorders of the digestive organs.

Sold by all druggists in the world.

☞ See advertisement in another column.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS.—The high and merited celebrity which this pre-eminent medicine has acquired for its invariable efficacy in all diseases which it professes to cure, has rendered the usual practice of ostentatious puffing not only unnecessary but unworthy of them.—They are known by their fruits, their good works testify for them, and they thrive and by the faith of the credulous. In all cases of costiveness, dyspepsia, bilious and liver affections, piles, rheumatism, fevers & fever, obstinate head aches, and all general derangements of health, these Pills have invariably proven a certain and speedy remedy. A single trial will place the life pills beyond the reach of competition in the estimation of every patient.

Dr. Moffat's Phœnix Bitters, will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, head ache, the sickness incident to females in delicate health, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs. For sale by W. R. Moffat, 335 Broadway, New York, and by medicine dealers and druggists generally throughout the country.

Female Health! Female Health!!

Thousands of females suffer from derangements peculiar to the sex. First, and most common among these are FEMALE WEAKNESS OF WHITES, or LEUCORRHŒA, with its constant attendants, Leucorrhœa, PROCRATION, LASS OF WEAK BACK, and GENERAL DEBILITY. No one can be entirely well who thus suffers, and in hundreds of cases health is utterly undermined. Old-school medicines and drugs do but little good—often much injury; but HOFFMAN'S CELEBRATED HOMŒOPATHIC FEMALE PILLS are just the thing, relieving promptly, and curing permanently. A dollar's worth will sometimes good than quarts of nostrums, or six month's attendance on a doctor. Six boxes for $1. Single boxes 25 cts.

N. B.—A full set of HOMŒOPATHY DOMESTIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different Remedies in large vials, morocco case, $5; ditto, in plain case, $4; case of fifteen vials, and Book, $2. Single boxes, 25 cents and 50 cents.

These Remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address,

☞ A NEW FIRM AND BUSINESS UPON NEW PRINCIPLES.—WHITE HALL CLOTHING BAZAAR, corner of Fourth and Market streets, does not follow in the beaten track. We are satisfied that the only way to build up and keep a large business is to sell goods cheap and give satisfaction to customers. Pretence will not answer, and humbug has had its day, and we intend to sell our goods five per cent. advance upon cost, (no more and no less,) and no variation in marked prices. This system will sustain itself without puffing. We shall buy and sell exclusively for cash. Our assortment for men and boys is the largest in Philadelphia, and our prices much lower than any other. ☞ The Heavens were illuminated on the evening of August 27, 1859, by the most splendid Aurora Borealis ever seen in the century. Rays of tri-colored lights flashed across the sky, and the changes were beautiful in the extreme. At one time a rapid observer remarked, that he fancied he could see the sparkling lights form these words: "Buy all your garments at the Brown's State Clothing Hall of RICKETTS & WILSON, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philada."

☞ THOMAS W. MATTSON, Received the Prize Medal at the World's Fair in London 1851, for TRUNKS, CARPET BAGS, Boots, shoes and Gums. Great inducements are now offered to purchasers of the above articles. This is much the largest stock of trunks, Carpet Bags, Valises, &c., in Philadelphia very cheap for cash No. 402 Market Street, one door above 4th, South side.

☞ This being the season of the year when diarrhœa, dysentery, and cholera and unhappily but too prevalent, we remind our readers of Brown's Essence of Jamaica Ginger, and his unconquerable Cholera Mixture. Each acts with curative and magical power. The medicines above named have truly arrested the fatal progress of disease and saved hundreds of lives.
