

Columbia Democrat

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1860.

Errata.—The date on our first page should read 15th instead of 18th.

We direct attention to the sale of Funston & Tyreman's Store Goods, in another column.

We shall endeavor in our next issue, to give some interesting items, in the nature of Census Statistics.

Mr. MORRIS CORTRIGHT, a man of family, son of Andrew Cortright, Esq., in jumping from the L. & B. Cars, on Friday night of last week, near Shickshinny, had a leg and arm broken.

Cancer Physician.—Dr. C. L. KELLY, of Mechanicsburg, Cumberland county, Pa., has his Cancer Card in this paper, to which we invite general attention, as he is well known, and said to treat Cancers very successfully.

The last formal humbug of the age is the formation of the fag-ends of all factions, opposed to the Democratic party, under the cognomen of the "Wide Awakes." Their organization is becoming pretty general and is only a re-hash of the miserable political party of 1854, known as the Know-Nothing. Democrats, hands off, if you would avoid pollution and contamination.

A Miner, in one of the Collieries of Conyngham township, Columbia co., on Monday last, was caught in a bank slide, thrown upon his back and enveloped by the earth, with the exception of one foot, which alone was visible, in which condition he remained for near five hours,—with only about 3 inches of space above his mouth through which he was enabled to breathe—and strange to say, he was finally extricated alive!

The Atlantic Monthly for September is among the best issued. Some of the papers are capital. We have read the Atlantic from the beginning, and are particularly pleased with this one. "The Children's hour" is in Longfellow's very best style; and Fanny Kemble Butler's article on "Shakspere" is excellently well written.

Three dollars a year—Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

The Third number of the Fourth Volume of the "Cosmopolitan Art Journal," being for September 1-60, is on our table. "The Balcony Scene" from Romeo & Juliet is fine. The reading matter is unusually excellent. Among other articles are—Dean Swift and his amours—Three Sketches of Virginia—The Phantoms of Washington Irving on Jack Falstaff—Address of C. L. Derby, 546 Broadway, New York—$2.00 a year.

Wanted.—Competed Business Man.—The great demand for skillful and accomplished accountants is perpetual, and constantly increasing with the increase of production and trade. Young men wishing to prepare themselves for commercial pursuits will find no Institution in this country possessing advantages equal to those afforded by the Iron City College, of Pittsburg, Pa., which is now patronized by every State in the Union.

Dr. Jacob Horaicher, the eccentric "mediator" between the North and South, will lecture at this place in the Court House, on next Monday evening, at early candle-light. The Doctor will prove his political opinions to be in accordance with truth and righteousness, and that they are sustained—fully sustained by the authority of the Bible. His lectures are highly popular with the people. His facts and arguments are conclusive—he invites all parties, persons and sects.

Mr. Horaicher will also deliver lectures in Mifflinville, this county, on Saturday the 15th inst., in the evening, hoping that the friends will make preparations for him. He will also lecture at Danville, Montour county, on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock P. M., and at Milton, Northumberland county, on Wednesday, at 1 o'clock P. M.

He also has Charts for sale, which he sells for twenty-five cents. We commend the Doctor to the people of the State, every one of whom should be in possession of his platforms.

To SPEND MUCH AND GAIN LITTLE is THE SURE ROAD TO RUIN, but often not realized until too late; there should be a vigilant eye kept over both profits and expenses, and frequent comparison drawn, always bearing in mind the maxim, "it is the little expenses that empty the purse," and an empty purse should always be guarded against, unless the contents of the purse are deposited in some safe and reliable institution, where it can always be had, when desired, with interest; and, as such, we cheerfully recommend the Franklin Saving Fund, No. 136 South Fourth street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia; for they invest only in the most solid and available securities, which can be converted into money at any time to pay depositors, as they did during the panic of 57, when they paid, on demand, all claims upon them, and never suspended. Such Saving Funds deserve encouragement, and this one is receiving it from all classes. They receive any amount, large or small, on deposit. See advertisement in another column.

DIED.

In West Hamlock township, Monroe co., on Friday evening, 31st of August, Dr. James Stiles, Esq., late Commissioner of said county, aged about 60 years.

In Berwick, on the 30th ult., "Clairy" son of Frank and Mary C. Stewart and grandson of the late Dr. A. B. W. deceased, aged 9 years and 7 months.

At Main City, on the 29th ult., township of Chestnut, Westmoreland Co., on Wednesday, the 29th day of August, of putrefaction, Mary Jane, daughter of A. C. and Martha Tate, aged 66, 6 mo. and 9 days.

—LITTLE MARY STEWART, sweetly, her lonely narrow bed;

Feting storms, and howling tempest,

Cannot reach her little head;

On the resurrection morning,

Chaster will whisper from above,

"Rise my child, and let me dress thee,

In robes of white and spotless love!"

—Blanks! Blanks!
