Columbia Democrat

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1860.

THERE will be preaching in the Baptist Church next Sunday evening at early candle light.

☞ Mr. HOWARD SNIDER, of Phelpsville, Sullivan county, will accept our thanks for a fine string of very large fresh Trout.

☞ Next week, when our nominations shall have been completed, we intend to have something to say in reference to our democratic Ticket.

☞ Mr. EDW. B. SNIDER, of Phelpsville, Sullivan co., has again placed us under obligations to his politeness for a file of late English papers direct from London.

☞ Duval & Son, No. 22 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia, have published a very fine Lithographic Likeness of Gen. Henry D. Foster, which will be furnished to Clubs and Associations at $10 per hundred, postpaid.

Printing Office for Sale.—D. C. Reinhart, Esq., offers the office of the Anthracite Gazette, at Tamaqua, for sale The paper is Republican in politics. It is said to be a paying establishment.

THE BELL AND EVERETT TICKET.—Hon. Henry M. Fuller, Chairman of the Union State Executive Committee, has called a meeting of the Committee at Harrisburg, on the 26th inst., for the purpose of completing the electoral ticket, and selecting a candidate for Governor.

☞ The Carbondale Advance says that a maiden lady named Rosetta Cook, who had lived with her sister alone in Greenfield township, was outraged by a man named Redman Miller, on Thursday night week before last. Miller came there and abused them; Mehetable went for help, and when she returned her sister lay on the lounge dead.

☞ Bartly Thompson, of Mill Creek, in Huntingdon county, at the late United States Court, at Williamsport, was convicted of robbing the mail, and sentenced five years to the Western Penitentiary.—The trial of Isaac Keller, of this county, on a similar charge, was postponed until next June. Cause—the absence of a witness.

THE STATE FAIR.—Judge Hiestor left Harrisburg, for the State Fair grounds Tuesday. Some time ago a box containing books of entries, tickets, certificates of membership, diplomas, &c., was shipped to Pittston, but has miscarried. It was traced to Milton, and all efforts to get it have proved unavailing, although telegraphic dispatches and men have been sent along nearly every line of railroad in the State. Although the box was of great importance, we are glad to learn from the Judge, that by dint of hard labor on the part of officers its loss will in no way interfere with the exhibition.

A working candidate for Congress.—Gen. RON'T. FLEMING, the Democratic candidate for Congress, in the Lycoming, Clinton, Centre and Mifflin district,—and who will be triumphantly elected over James T. Hale—is emphatically a working man. Gen. F. conducts the largest Brick Yard, in Williamsport, we know of in the State, employing upwards of fifty hands constantly, and the past year has manufactured over three million of Brick And in addition to his other duties, Gen Fleming delivers democratic speeches every other week, in every county in his Congressional District.

"THE HOURS OF YOUTH, LIKE THE WATERS OF a rapid stream, roll on never to return," but none should be allowed to pass by without improvements, for Franklin said "if youth knew what age would crave, it would both get and save," as illustrated by his example, both in getting and saving; and the press and the public say such savings should be deposited in some safe and reliable institution, such as the Franklin Saving Fund, No. 136 South Fourth street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia, where it can be withdrawn at any time, without notice, with 5 per cent. interest. This Saving Fund never suspended. See advertisement in another column.

☞ Was it the egg or the chicken that first made its appearance on this terrestrial globe? In other words, did the first chicken come out of an egg, or did the first egg come out of a chicken?—Boston Post.

The above question was propounded by that malignant office-holder, Col. GREENE, of the Boston Post, in hopes of getting Mr. DOUGLAS befogged on the hen question. The answer of the Little Giant was worthy of him. He said it mattered not which way the Hen Convention might decide the question, still the right of the chicken to come out of the egg, and vice versa, was perfect and complete under the Nebraska bill, which left all two legged critters subject only to the Constitution of the United States. This happy reply of the Little Giant is expected to secure him the support of all the henpecked husbands in the United States. It raised a tremendous cackle among the Shanghais of New England

Representative Conference.

The Conferees from the several counties of this Representative District, met at the House of John Deen, jr., in Danville, on Friday the 14th inst.

On motion, Col. James Deegan, of Sullivan, was elected Chairman, and Adam Geringer, of Montour, Secretary.

The following gentlemen presented their credentials and took seats in the conference.

Columbia—W. T. Shuman, Alfred Howell.

Montour—Adam Geringer, Rob't Davison.

Sullivan—Hon. Geo. D. Jackson, Col. Jas. Deegan.

Wyoming—C. D. Gearhart, P. W. Redfield.

On motion of Geo. D. Jackson the Conference proceeded to nominate candidates for members of Assembly.

Mr. Redfield nominated Thomas Osterhout, of Wyoming.

Mr. Howell nominated Col. Hiram R. Kline, of Columbia.

On motion the nominations were closed, when on motion of Geo. D. Jackson, seconded by Adam Geringer, Col. Hiram R. Kline, of Columbia, and Thomas Osterhout, of Wyoming, were declared the unanimous nominees of this Conference.

On motion of Mr. Jackson it was Resolved. That the next Representative Conference meet at Bloomsburg, on the second Friday of September, 1861, and that the proceedings of this Conference be published in the Democratic papers of the District.

On motion adjourned.

JAMES DEEGAN, Chairman.
ADAM GERINGER, Secretary.

Crittenden's Inductive and Practical Treatise on Book Keeping with the Key.—We have before us copies of the above invaluable publications, as revised and enlarged in the present edition, by S. H. CRITTENDEN, Principal of the "Philadelphia Commercial College," and after a cursory examination of its contents, are free to bestow upon it our unqualified commendation. The elementary portion is simple, clear and comprehensive, and so gradually comprehensive that each want and difficulty of the Student appears to be successfully anticipated, while such definite and satisfactory reasons are given for each progressive step, as to furnish the basis for further advancement. Every business-man, should send to Messrs. E. C. & J. Biddle & Co, No 508, Minor Street, Philadelphia, and procure copies of the two works.

☞ MORE THAN NEGRO EQUALITY CLAIMED.—The Boston Atlas, a leading Republican paper of the New England States, is hard down on the foreign born—especially the Irish. Hear the negro worshipping editor:—

"You may take five thousand negroes as they come, and a thousand Irishmen in the same way and you will find the negroes surpass the Irishmen of Boston in intelligence, morality, industry and good citizenship. They are more thrifty, more orderly and every way superior."

The above is in accordance with the late amendment of the Massachusetts Constitution, which disfranchises the adopted citizen for two years after he receives his naturalization papers. Negro suffrage is above par in that State.

JUSTICE TO THE SOUTH.

A NEW BOOK, and one destined to create a sensation Just published.

THE SUNNY SOUTH, OR THE SOUTHERNER AT HOME.

Embracing five years' experience of a Northern Govern ess in the land of sugar, rice, tobacco and cotton. Edited by Professor J H Ingraham, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo. 528 pages Price $1 25.

Literary notices from the Press throughout the Country.

The SUNNY SOUTH—"This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We can bear testimony from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South to their truthfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a vivid, interesting style, and we would like to see this book in the hands of thousands of deceived people, who have no personal knowledge either of Southerners or Southern life, except what they have gained from partizan journals, or those who are personally have written to deceive"—Daily Republican, Baltic, N. Y.

The SUNNY SOUTH—"This is a volume in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, faithful pictures of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the pictures presented here are quite graphic and we think the portraits painted are in very nearly natural colors"—Boston Daily Bee.

The SUNNY SOUTH—"We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul untruths in the Uncle Tom trash of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hard lack to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of northern homes. The south also should take to it benignantly for independent of its truthfulness and integrity it is one of the liveliest and most entertaining books of the year"—Times Greensboro, N C.

The SUNNY SOUTH—"The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, of Philadelphia, noticeably keeps well up with every issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as an institution, for diffusing knowledge, unequaled by any in the country. we commend this book to every reader."—Ariel.

The SUNNY SOUTH—"This is a captivating volume, strongly constructive of Southern life. The heart of the authoress is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she, in her assuming off hand style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern home"—The Press.

The SUNNY SOUTH—"Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular currency; and this is just the case with the SUNNY SOUTH, or the Southerner at Home, which appears from the press of G G Evans, under the auspices of the Gift Book Concern. It is vivid in style, keenly observant, interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be as warmly welcomed by a host of readers"—The New Yorker.

GOOD BOOKS! CHOICE BOOKS!
NEW AND ILLUSTRATED EDITIONS.

THE THRONE OF DAVID:

From the Consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom. Being an illustration of the splendor, Power and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King, in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificence of Judea is shown to the reader, as if by an eye witness. By the Rev J H Ingraham, LL. D. One volume, 12 mo., 602 pages. Price $1 25.

This is a standard Volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelitish monarchy. The origin under Moses, was treated of in the "Prince of Fire," and the great glory under David, is treated of in this work. The Throne of David; with the splendor of Solomon, prepared and finished the new dispensation must meet their delineation in the "Prince of the House of David." These works are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful and the work leans as to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible and the great sentences of the truth it contains, without being, as such books too ordinarily are, either mawkish, stupid, dogmatical or conceited"—Boston Daily Atlas.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE, OR ISRAEL IN BONDAGE.

By the Rev J H Ingraham, author of the "Prince of the House of David." One volume, 12 mo. cloth, 600 pages. Price $1 25.

"This work is designed to sketch the Hebraic history during the bondage in Egypt, the Prophet Moses being the central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period, in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from profane history a vast mass of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interest"—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

THE PRINCE OF THE
HOUSE OF DAVID:
OR, THREE YEARS IN THE HOLY CITY

In a series of letters dating as if by an eye witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the life of Jesus or NAZARETH, from his Baptism in Jordan to his Crucifixion on Calvary. By the Rev J H Ingraham, Rector of Christ Church, and of St Thomas' Hall, Holly Springs, Mississippi. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 472 pages. Price $1 25.

"In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading historical parts of scripture in connexion with secular history, so as to present the clear and life-like picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer. The descriptions of rites and ceremonies are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be as popular as the "Pilgrim's Progress."—Presbyterian and Evangelist.

7. At 2, P. M.,

A TRIAL OF A STEAM FIRE ENGINE,

from Philadelphia, is expected to play 20 minutes.

☞ The programme for Thursday and Friday will be published as soon as made up by the committee.

As much inconvenience has been experienced by the Society, in consequence of horses being entered for premiums, and not owned by said stock, for the competition of the owner, a committee has been appointed consisting of Capt. John Urquhart, Alson Church and James Tucks, to decide upon such as are worthy of occupying stalls and competing for premiums; and those not worthy, in their judgment, will be charged one dollar a day for each day left upon the ground.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S
AROMATIC
SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS
A SUPERLATIVE
TONIC, DIURETIC,
ANTI DYSPEPTIC
AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL

To the Citizens of New Jersey and Pennsylvania,

APOTHECARIES, DRUGGISTS, GROCERS AND PURVEYORS GENERAL

Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy.
Wolfe's Pure Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine.
Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum.
Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky.

ALL IN BOTTLES.

I beg leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by UDOLPHO WOLFE, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS. Mr. WOLFE in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York that all the brandy and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser." Every bottle has the proprietor's name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For themselves. For sale at RETAIL by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the follow ing from the New York Courier:

Enormous Business for our New York Merchant.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and at the lowest prices. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 12, 14 and 24, Marketfield street. The stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy
