COLUMBIA

DEMOCRAT.

BLOOMSBURG GENERAL

LEVI L. TATE, Editor.

"TO HOLD AND TRIM THE TORCH OF TRUTH AND WAVE IT O'ER THE DARKENED EARTH."

$2 00 PER ANNUM.

VOL. 14.--NO. 43.

BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1860.

VOL. 24.

Germantown Telegraph.

A Pamily and an Agricultural Newspaper. SLISHED WEEKLY AT GERMANTOWN, PA.

of the attention of all with think of subscribing for exampled:

One Copy, One Year, $2: One Copy, Three Yours 5: aree Copies, One Year, $2: One Copy, Copies, One Year, $2: One Y

RYAMOND'S PATENT SEWING MACHINE!

of Valuable features of this Machine contained.

10. It is particularly adapted to all kinds of scirring such as gratienned extensions, mathematically adapted to all kinds of scirring such as gratienned adapts, becomes, mathematically adapted to an interest property in minimizer sciences, in the second property of the second particular adapted as a property of the second particular adapted as a particular adapted of construction.

11. Retail the foregoing advantage the second particular adapted on the second particular adapted

DEOPLES PACIFIC RAIL HOAD

The chains of DERGAM presenters,
2004 (A) PERGAM presenters,
(30.4) AR PROSE, Vice Presenters,
5.4(4.5) Another Statement,
4.1(4.5) Another Statement,
4.1(4.5) Another Statement,
4.1(4.5) Another Statement,
4.1(4.5) Another Statement,
6.1(4.5) Another St

Consider the Company, to discretely to the analysis of the transfer sometiment of the Company, No. 34 School Street dates these with the Virginian all applications of the Virginian all applications pairs of Company, No. 34 School Street, No. 35 School School Street, No. 35 School Street, No. 35 School School Beston, Nov. 10, 1839-1240.

STEAM ENGINES AND BOILERS.

REVERE HOUSE,

IN BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

of Originary Apparationness theories, and Jon Worn ested, at the established prices.

LET THAT DANNER WAVE

Oh, let that starry leader ways.
To glad the patriot's eye.
And tell in these degenerate days of brighter days gone by Of case when moths in the fight.
The broaded warrior stood.
And been its folds in glary a light.

suit let it tell of strift and tears. Of sarrtyr's spirits flot.

And of the long and todint years.

Through which our fathers blod.

Still let it tell of Bunker's height. Of Monomouth's gery plain—
Of these who pointed in Camben's fight
Their blood like summer rain.

Still on its fields beam every star And hight each metern struggling wer The stormy son of time.

Then from on, round it firmly stand That struggles the dissilved Ewant by the hope of future days-

PRIDE AND PRINCIPLE.

BT B. S. BURTON.

I was returning home after an absence bore rapidly along, was already entering you know." the little village where I was born, where I disregarded his refusal of my offer, me, but against which I had buttled with wine, spilt a few drops of it, and drank I had received the first radiments of knowl- and sprang out of the chaise, extending all my might for eight years, at length off the rest at a draught. He then knel edge; where I had sported many a happy him my hand to assist him to a seat, as triumphed. childhood's hour, and where I had first thought it a matter of course that I visited their cottage repeatedly, and from his father, acknowledged by bowing learned to love. Yes, to love the prettiest, he would ride.

assured myself that the change in Isabel's to show his respect and obedience. When merriest, and prendest mailen in all the 'Well, well,' said he, "since you wish it, character, disposition and manner, was the father ceased speaking, he rose and village "not wisely, but too well." She I will go with you. There are not many deep and radical. She no longer had high accompanied by his friends and retainers. rejected my suit; she had higher aspirat that are kind to the old man now. I am aspirations; her only thought has the com- went to bring his bride. As he stepped tions. It was true she liked me very well not what I was six years ago! I was a fort of her doting old father.

— it might be, loved me, but—I was not rich man then—very rich; but speculation

Atlength I offered my hand again, and door, an astonishing concert of gongs and rich; and she was proud and haughty, as did the mischief. See youder house just this time I felt no scruples about urging brass instruments of all kinds began, acmy offer disdainfully, but seemed to study mine again. the people substitute and plainty and the respect to the people substitute and the congruence from Longian will be substituted and the congruence from Longian will be substituted as a conference of the plainty saw that her cheeks had been considered by a concession, efforts and filial affection of happiness for unhappines, is sweet both to well, but I could distinguish her features, and plainty saw that her cheeks had been concessions are considered to plainty saw that her cheeks had been concessions and plainty saw that her cheeks had been concessions are concessions.

resolve had seen no change.

age. My mother had been lying in her me to ride in his chaise, and I want you silent, narrow home for nearly two years. to thank him in my behalf, because you to meet, was married, and had gone to a If I had remained unrecognized by the even inquire about her. She had probably sisted upon her riding, and had the satisgone away, or what was quite as probable, faction of seeing her yield, her father might have become so wealthy | For a moment I gave myself up to the that she no longer moved in the village happy momories of the past. I was again that she no longer moved in the village happy memories of the past. I was again society. Perhaps she was married, and beside the only being I had ever loved. I society. Perhaps she was married, and beside the only being I had ever loved. I was living in name other place. What felt the rustle of her dress against my was she to me, that I should spend a hand and notwithstanding my exterior NO 227 NORTH THER STREET PHILADELPHIA. thought in speculation as to the cause of coldness and assumed formality, I could thouse is stranged in the most becomes part of the her invisibility? And yet I could not efface not suppress the tamult within, her image from my mind. If ever in dis- Isabel was little changed; but changed persons you have r dather while our ber from my memory, I could not do so on had become the beautiful woman. She the rections. Consider two many in the constraints of home and family was pensive, sad. But little was said durance and we proper the city win press. now, the associations of home and family was pensive, sad. But little was said durance and we proper state make it is secure breaght back the recollection of ring our homeward drive, except that name. "Why was she not there?"

"She does not go out now since their ing my name. misfortune," was the reply, and humiliating lesson to her; she was desired to know more, much more; but I have forgotten him." asked no questions-I could not forget the a comfortable residence for my father in ligion and filial affection. the men employed.

his tedious way along the road. Presently of eight years; returning to the home of this to meet my daughter and accompany foully hoped to do. Yes, indeed, pride rising in obedience to his father's orders, my childhood. The lumbering couch that her home from school. She is the teacher, was conquered, and the principle which the youth approached the table in the me, I will confess it—than I had previous-rich-rich even under the fastidious require the fair teacher. As we now approached, your sister. sitions of Isabel Hayne; richer than her I observed the scholars rushing from the emerged and stood before us.

distant place to dwell. The spirit of change father, I could not escape the searching had breathed upon every dear and family glance of the daughter. Her quickly the first threshing grain and reaching count from the dispersion of the dispersion o of three threshold Machines, that ever my boyhood days. They were growing me, Miss Hayne-your father is fatigued, old. Yet some secured apparently no older and I will drive you to your home. I than when I had seen them eight years shall have ample time to attend to my other business afturward."

I did not meet Miss Hayne; nor did I She stammered some excuse; but I in-should I look so anxiously about, hoping did indeed smile when I lifted her from letter to the Paris Pater, by a correspon- 1657, contains an interesting, but improb- with the antomy and physiology of man and yet fearing to encounter her beautiful the chaise, then lisped, "thank you," then dent at Shanghai: "I was lately invited able account of the Florida Indians of that whether lying with head exalted or level face! Why could I not forget her at once, blushed, then paied again. Mr. Hayne to visit the wedding of a young Chinese, a day. They are represented as dressing with the body, was the most wholesome.

Sensible People — Vo. Sensible People — Vo.

it, having no definite purpose in view, un. tempered by charity, humility and affect of the match. This person casts the pa-

his declining years, since his own cottage

I pondered well the circumstances.— bride and bridegroom are introduced to should I yield to the yearnings of my each other in the presence of their famset about repairing the mausion, for that heart? Should I again offer my hand, ilies, but the lady is always closely welled too had felt the mouldering touch of time; perhaps to be refused? Perhaps she would till after the marriage ceremony is perand for that purpose I frequently drove not a second time reject my offer. I was formed. To return to the wedding I have out to watch and direct the operations of now rich and she poor. It would be no just witnessed. On arriving at the resisacrifice of principle on my part to offer dence of the bridegroom's father, I found I was one day driving leisurely along, to wed the poor school-teacher, although all the family assembled in the ancestral when I espied, at some distance before me, I had determined never to renew my suit hall, an apartment consecrated to religi on old man, bent with age, and groping with the wealthy heiress. It might have ous festivals. When all the company had been destiny that decided her to reject my arrived, the mei-jin, who appeared to act he sat down by the roadside to rest, and first offer; for had she not done so, I never as mistress of the ceremonies, requested when I came up I offered him a sent in my should have left home and friends, to wan- the head of the family to take his place der in foreign climes in pursuit of wealth. an elevated seat at the end of the room "Never mind," he said, "it is only a lit- I might at this very day have been grovel- and ordered the bridegroom to be introtle way that I have to go; just to yonder ing in abject poverty. I should have been duced. The young man, on entering school house on the hill-top. I go there unterly unable to restore the old man and saluted the company with great respect sometimes when the days are pleasant like his daughter to their old home, as I now and pro-trated himself on the floor. On woman.

All these thoughts passed rapidly thro' by ascertained.

All these thoughts passed rapidly thro' by ascertained.

The work of the tree steed and the control of the tree steed and the control of the tree steed and tree steed purpose had been accomplished. I was chase, but had never before caught sight of you money, and the fellow who is courting Genteel People.-The young lady who father had ever been, and yet my stern door, and before we drove up, she herself reads remances in bed; the friend who is Her palanquin advanced in the midst of "Eight cents!" said the keeper. always engaged when you call; and the the musicians and a crowd of persons I met my father, now silver haired with "Ah, Isabel, this kind gentleman urged correspondent who cannot find time to answer your letters.

Unpopular Personages .- A fat man in My sister, only sister, whom I fondly hoped do not know how much it has rested me." an omnibus; a tall man in a crowd, and a the marriage contract was read; the all his money here for rum, and we have short man on parade.

Timid People -A lover about to pop the coremony, which terminated with a to buy a loaf of bread." the question; a man who does not like to he shot at, and a steamboat company with a cholera case on board. Dignified Men .- A cit in a country town;

a mid-hipman on quarter deck, and a school committee on examination day. Persecuted People.-Woman, by that tyrantman; boys, by their parents and Unhappy People .- All old bachelors and old maids. Ambitious Chap .- The writer who pays the magazines for inserting his communications; the politician who quits his party because he cannot get into office, and the boy who expects to be President. Humble Persons .- The husband who blacks her husband's boots; and the man bout captain of a farmer. who thinks you do him so much honor. Mean People.-The man who kicks olks when they are down; and the subscriber who refuses to pay for his paper.

Sensible People - You and L Indians may be considered the copper-and forever! Some one mentioned her cordially invited me to revisit their humble relative of a high functionary of Shanghai. with a degree of barbaric taste; living in Most consulting their own case on this cottage, and solicited the honor of know- You are aware, perhaps, that polygamy is houses of stakes, roofed with reeds and the point, argue in favor of that which they not sanctioned by the laws of China; no impervious gam of a tree, and floored with prefer. Now, although many delight in "Is it possible?" he exclaimed; "is this man can have more than one legitimate coment; sleeping on rude bedsteads, with bolstering up their heads at night, and "What a pity! Poor Hayne! They say indeed our old friend Temple's son? and wife, but he may have as many of what beds of skins and sacks stuffed with down, sleep soundly without injury, yet we dethat she supports him by teaching."

returned rich too, they say. Heaven grant are called little wives as his means enable and nad over with ornamental penties, and eating with a splinter of hone, used as vessels in which the blood passes from the cating with a splinter of hone, used as vessels in which the blood passes from the afford. Their food was vegetables—never heart to the head are always lessened in no rash venture. Here, Isabel, daughterf the females of the upper class are kept in flesh until the European came-and their their cavities when the head is resting in Did you not know this gentleman! This complete seclusion till their marriage; drink water, a kind of beer, and a bever- bed higher than the body; therefore in I must confess I was interested, and is Harry Temple. You surely cannot which is invariably settled by their pa- age made with honey. The were remark- all diseases attended to with fever, the have forgotten him."

rents, and generally through the medium ably industrious, having all their lands in head should be pretty nearly on a level common, and working under their chief, in with the body; and people ought to aced, somewhat confushd, as she returned to all agent, whose profession is considered battalions. They had various musical in- custom themselves to sleep thus and avoid Not long after this I learned that Mr. lead her invalid father into the house. "I respectable. This agent makes all the struments, in which they were skillful, and danger. - Medical Journal. Hayne's house and grounds, which had hope we shall have the pleasure of seeing preliminary inquiries respecting the for. were addicted to singing and of amiable passed into the hands of some large land-owner, was again for sale. I purchased It was the same sweet voice as of old, consults a sooth-ayer as to the advisability less it was the thought that it would make tion; and softened by the influence of re- tivity of the young couple, and if he de. practiced, and marriages were slways "Why didn't you black them?" asked clares the stars to be ptopitious, the future had never been quite extinguished within middle of the room, took up a glass of on the floor and listened to a long speech well as beautiful. Yet she was indeed beyond the school; it was mine. Ah! it my suit, since matters occupied qui e a companied by loud explosions of fire. gers from the door; but the journalist kind and charitable; she did not reject was a happy home, but it never can be different position from that of former works. This deafening noise was kept up must forget before to-morrow the sorrows of a most remarkable mirage. Several my offer disdainfully, but seemed to study mine again. ' some method by which her irrevocable And thus he habited on; for the infirreply might give me no pain. I did not be in a newsmonger, on the trifles of the hour, a line apparently some miles in extent; reply might give me no pain. I did not mitter of age, promaturely induced by his I pressed her to my bosom, and knew that yard. As soon as the bridegroom had whatever burden has been laid upon him some appeared at anchor near a fortress specialion her motives; I knew them too misfortunes, had rendered him garrulous, she was to be mine. If I had loved her been formally announced, his father-in, that same hour by Providence, or his brain built on a rock; others seemed to approach I resolved that if He was indeed changed; for among all I in my pride, and desired to make her my law, leading the bride by the hand, came as a man. It sometimes tries and mocks, so near the coast that the spectators could repring the state of Almes in the man and health should be spared me, I would be had seen since my return home, not one wife, how much more I level her now in out to receive him. I happened to be in wealthy man-not again to arge my suit, very slowly-for he said many things that er to their home again! I was indeed hap-mented with colored embroidery. She did upon the man that was cutting hay.not even to claim her as a friend or ac- were is teresting to me-I learned more of py when I saw her shed such copious tears had on also, I perceived, bracelets and a He gave it as his 'opinion' that it was 'casy quaintance, unless it should be her express his circumstances, and of the sacrifices, of joy. Ah thought I, this relation, this necklace. Her kead was covered by a to see white man mow !! painted white, and her lips tinted with says, a little incident transpired some the corver, laying down the knife and fork, carmine. After a short prayer the bride weeks ago at one of the Frankfort hotels, and resuming his own dinner. was conducted to her palanquin, the bride. which is worthy of notice. groom to his, and the whole cavaleade was A little girl entered the bar room and soon in movement. As the bride crossed in pitiful tones told the keeper that her to the residence of a young damsel to give the threshold there was another fearful mother had sent her there to get eight her a screnade. After some time, the seroutburst of gongs, trumpets and fireworks. cents carrying lanterns and flags. On reaching her future home, she and her husband eight cents! I don't owe her anything."

> grand banquet. The first act of the newly married cous ple at table, was to drink out of the same teachers; and all poor people by society her lips, the bridegroom then drank off there from the shoemaker's bench. John "I nebber could bear dat ar brat, kase he the contents and broke the cup. After Randolph, who had Indian blood in his show dirt so easy. partaking of a great variety of dishes, the veins, once rose, and with his squeaking respite for so many hours."

"Do you know what the people in Lynch- Pocahentas," does his wife's churning; the wife who burg do when it rains?" asked a freight "No, I don't-do you!"

"Why, yes-they let it rain."

Ir was said in olden times that the body was more than raiment; but now the rai ment is often a great deal more than the body in value, and full five times as much in circumference.

different colored grains. Polygamy was The servant brought them. among relatives, any other being cousid- Dean. ered disreputable. They only fought for "Because you'll soon get them splashed self defence, using bows, and war clubs, on the road, and I thought it was not slings and javelius. They spared all who worth while." asked mercy in war, and only scalped the slain. Their priests were also physicians, for the key of the pantry, and they worshipped the sun, to which they ... What for ?" asked the master. offered songs and prayers every morning and evening. They had a great religious celebration four times a year, when they gry two hours hence, it isn't worth while. burned incense, had songs and dances and let fly sacred birds. They believed in the immortality of the soul, and had State of Wisconsin has now one million of traditions of the deluge. The bodies of neres in actual cultivation. From the rethe dead were embalmed before buried, ports of all sections to the State Agricul-In the morning they used to cut off some tural Society, it has averaged twenty-eight of their hair, but on the death of the king bushels of wheat per nere, which makes shaved the whole crown, and kept it bare the yield of the State twenty-eight millions three years, during which time the royal of bushels, which equals thirty-six bushels corpse remained. They were still a few to every man, woman and child in the

THE EDUTORIAL TREADMILL -The "How much money have you!" said a the editor's business :-"It is one of the courting his pretty daughter! "Oh, I hardships of our profession that its work- haven't much of anything, now, but I have lowed to lag for sickness, or stop for calam- ding occurred, and the old chap learned ity or sorrow. The judge may adjourn from his fine son-in-law that the rich prosshop may close shurters; the mourner may daughter. veil his features, and turn friend and stran-

A SENSIBLE LANDLORD .- An exchange

"Yes, sir,"

"What does your mother want with knelt down in the ancestral hall, while "Well," said the child, "father spends bonze then performed the religious part of had nothing to cat to-day. Mother wants prayer repeated in chorus by all present. A loafer remarked to the bar-keeper to The newly married pair were then con- "kick the brat out."

ducted to the aupital chamber to receive "No;" said the bar-keeper, "Ill give their friends. The day concluded with a bor the money, and if her father comes back again I II kick him out."

ROOFE SHERMAN was a member of cup. The bride merely touched it with Congress from Connecticut. He was sent said of one who was lighter than the rest; company withdrew, and I returned home voice said, "I should like to know what WHAT is the difference between a £40 well pleased with what I had seen, but the gentleman from Connecticut, before he note and a wife at forty . One you can stunned and stopefied by the horrid din, cause here, did with his leather apron." change for twenties, but the other you which had assailed my cars with but little Mr. Sherman, minicking the same squeak- can't. ing sound, replied, "I cut it up, sir, to make moceasius for the descendants of siWhy did you not pocket some of shese pears?" said one boy to another; tough that nothing but death can cut it. "nobody was there to see."

> WE clip from an exchange the following noble answer of a boy :

"Yes, there was-I was there to see myself; and I don't ever mean to see myself do a mean thing."

COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT, painted me. There was a social gathering at a friend's, but she was not there. Why could scarcely have been different. She tory of the West Indies, by Rochefort, in amongst people who are unacquainted tory of the West Indies, by Rochefort, in amongst people who are unacquainted tory of the West Indies, by Rochefort, in amongst people with the antomy and physiology of man

A minute after the servant asked Swift

"To get my breakfast. "Ah," said Dean, "as you will be hun-of these Indians left in 1758, but are now State, or about two hundred to every Home Journal thus truthfully describes rich old curmudgeon to a gay young fellow ing wheels, brains and hearts, are not al- a very rich prospect indeed." The wedhis court; the school house and the work- peet was the prospect of marrying his

Unranen, Iceland, was lately the scene

about to help to chicken, whether he wished the leg or the wing ? "It is a matter of perfect indifference to me," said the other. "And infinitely more so to me," replied

SEVERAR nice young gentlemen went vant stepped out and walking up to one of them, said : "My friend, the folks are all abed; you can't get a cent here to-night." A FARMER in Watertown, Connecticut, has been fined for allowing Canada thistles to run to seed on his own land. The sentence seems just, as the thistles is one of the greatest muisances the farmer is liable

Dn. FRANKLIN says that Govery little fragment of the day should be saved." Oh, yes, the moment the day breaks, set yourself at once to save the pieces.

A angunes, speaking of her children,

Diplomas are not always worthily bestowed. A shoop kin is often taken from the unimal that is cutified to it, to be give. to an animal that isn't.

Wity should marriage be spoken of a a tender tio, when it is so confounded

Tue South Carolina Legislature on the 15th instant, elected Mr. Pickens Gover-