

Buchanan's Special Message.

We publish on the first page of the Columbia Democrat, Mr. BUCHANAN'S Special Message, in relation to our National difficulties, addressed to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States. It exhibits the wisdom of a statesman and the sagacity of a patriot—Mr. BUCHANAN has shown to the world that he is now as he has ever been, faithful to his constitutional obligations, and that his policy, if strictly carried out, will ensure to the honor of the country, and the bloodless-adjustment of all our threatened intestine dissensions. We rejoice, as will all conservative citizens of the country, that in this unprecedented emergency, we have a sagacious statesman, such as JAMES BUCHANAN, at the helm of the Ship of State. Would to Heaven that infuriated men, North and South, would show the same conciliatory and patriotic disposition which is so eminently conspicuous in the conduct and recommendations of Mr. BUCHANAN; then, and not till then, can we hope to see peace and prosperity restored to our distracted country.

William Bigler. Over thirty years ago, the gentleman whose name introduces this article, with the writer of the same, were cotemporary Editors of Democratic newspapers, then published in Clearfield, Clearfield county, Pa. During the memorable gubernatorial contest of 1833, by which injudicious division of the Democratic Party upon WOLFF and MUEHLBACH—he supporting Mr. M. and we supporting Mr. W.—both parties were defeated, and JOS. RITNER was elected Governor of Pennsylvania. So much then for our folly in running a split ticket, as in 1860, and so much for the introduction into public life of the "Youthful Printer Boy," who has since filled many positions of honor, with fidelity and ability, even to the second office in the gift of the American Government, viz:—that of an United States Senator.

Col. BIGLER was early elected to the State Senate, then Governor of Pennsylvania, and subsequently, to the United States Senate. The last named position he will have held six years terminating on the Third of next March. In each and every position, to which he has been called by the partiality of his Democratic fellow-citizens, Governor BIGLER, has efficiently and faithfully sustained the interests and represented the true principles of the Democracy of Pennsylvania. And now at the close of his Senatorial career, of him it may be truthfully said, he was ever faithful to his post and always jealous of the rights of his constituents—a peer amongst the American Statesmen.

Pennsylvania will have further to see Senator BIGLER. Such men are rarely to be found in this degenerate age and time. A self-made man—the "architect of his own good fortune"—he has made his mark on the historic page, and his name and fame will be held in grateful remembrance by the Democracy of his own native Commonwealth.

General Cameron and Lincoln's Cabinet.

The Telegraph announced, weeks ago, that Gen. CAMERON, of Pennsylvania, one of the U. States Senators, had been semi-officially appointed, to the important position of Secretary of the Treasury, in President LINCOLN'S Cabinet. In the formation of that Cabinet, we have had neither lot nor part, but we are free to say, that in the selection of Gen. C., the President elect, has made a most judicious selection—certainly the most conservative statesman in the ranks of the Republican party of our State—and one whose appointment will both strengthen the incoming Administration and harmonize the interest of Pennsylvania. Few public men in our State, have more devoted friends than Gen. CAMERON, and—politics aside,—we know of none, more deserving of the personal friendship of his fellow citizens than he, or whose selection, at home or abroad will reflect equal credit upon the new Administration.

P. S.—We have learned, since writing the above, that the President elect, has re-considered Gen. CAMERON'S appointment, and appointed Gov. CHASE, of Ohio, to the Secretaryship. Gov. CHASE is one of the most uncompromising Black Republicans and unconstitutional abolitionists in the Union. If this be so, then has "Abraham" made one "grand mistake." Appointment by Gov. Packer. STEPHEN BALDY, Esq., of Catawissa, to be an Associate Judge of Columbia county, in place of JUDGE KLINE, deceased. Judge BALDY made a good officer, when he had the appointment some years ago, and we have no doubt his administration will again prove acceptable to our citizens. His Commission was entered of Record on Monday last, and will expire by limitation upon the first Monday of December, when the Democracy of Columbia shall have elected two Associate Judges, for the ensuing five years.

The National Crisis.

The message of the Governor of Tennessee, is worthy the serious consideration of the people of the North, and is well calculated to command the deep and solemn reflections of every American citizen, who is not as yet thoroughly blinded by fanaticism, to the growing perils and calamities which, from the North as well as from the South, threaten to overwhelm the Union and the prosperity of the States in one common ruin.

If we had entertained any doubts as to the ultimate unanimity of the Southern States in the present secession movement, this message of the Governor of one of the most conservative States of the South would dispel those doubts and force upon us the conviction that, before the 4th of March next, the fifteen Southern States will have declared themselves out of the Union.

Governor Harris, after having grouped in his message the numerous encroachments and aggressions of the North upon the South, and suggested the constitutional amendments which, if adopted by the North, might restore peace and harmony to the Federal Union, solemnly protests against the doctrine of coercion, which, as he truly says, could not uphold "a constitutional Union, being a Union of consent, and not of force, of peace, and not of blood, of sovereigns free and politically equal; but if successfully carried out, could but enforce a Union, not of equals, but of the victors and the vanquished pinned together by the bayonet and congealed in blood!"

We fear that the day of compromise is passed; the delusive speech of Mr Seward; the dogged determination of the Republican party to make no just or adequate concessions to the South will unite the South as one man in the determination to protect their rights out of the Union, and the only question which in but a few weeks shall have to be decided, will be, not if the little State of South Carolina shall be whipped into the Union, but if eighteen Northern States shall, under the lead of a minority party, attempt to coerce, at the point of the bayonet, fifteen Southern States, who refuse any further allegiance to a violated compact, under which they can henceforth expect nothing but aggression instead of protection.

The question must soon be decided whether the Republican party—sectional in its views and habitation; formed without regard to the last paternal warning of the Father of his Country; acting in violation of the spirit and letter of the Federal Constitution; leagued with the fanatics who denounced the Constitution as a "compact with hell" and the Union as a curse—whether the Republican party, itself tainted with abolitionism, will have the brazen effrontery sacrilegiously to invoke "the Union" while they, under the stars and stripes, declare a war of extermination against one half of the Union; whether under the false cry of "the Constitution," they will renew, on a large scale, the invasion of John Brown, and by their proclamations stimulate the southern slaves to insurrection, rapine and bloodshed, and thus realize the bloody schemes of the ultra abolitionists!! If such be the unholy purposes of the Republican party, let them seriously calculate the cost of such a step, before they have lighted the flames of civil war. Let them reflect that the National Treasury is bankrupt; that the revenue from Custom House duties will dwindle down to a paltry sum; that armies sufficient to conquer the South would cost hundreds of millions of dollars; that the only way direct taxation at a time when the people would be least able or willing to meet the exigencies of the treasury; let them remember that free trade among the States has heretofore been the life blood of our national prosperity, and that a state of war with the South would interrupt free intercourse and produce in the North a general stagnation of business, followed by bankruptcy and pinching distress; let them beware that in blockading Southern ports they may soon involve themselves in a war with some of the principal powers of Europe.

Rather than adopt so cruel and suicidal a policy as coercion and all the calamities of war, let them, if the South secede in mass, acknowledge this great movement of ten millions of their fellow citizens as a revolution already successfully accomplished. Let them hold out the olive branch, and treat with our Southern neighbors, either for a happy re-union or for a peaceful separation, securing to both sections the mutual advantages of commerce, trade and free intercourse. But if the Republican party, deaf to the voice of patriotism and humanity, resolve upon coercion and violence, and attempt to deluge the country with fraternal blood, they will find in the South a UNITED PEOPLE to repel their inroads, and in the North a UNITED DEMOCRACY to stay their sacrilegious hands against their brethren and fellow countrymen. Let them beware! Let them beware!!!

SENATOR SEWARD—This gentleman, who is to be the Premier of the new Administration, made a speech in the U. S. Senate on Saturday last in reference to our National difficulties. It was upon the whole, conciliatory; but he made no practical suggestions by way of healing the troubles. Mr. S. is evidently an over-rated statesman, having more of the philosophical than the practical in his composition, and is therefore not the man for the present crisis.

Proposed Adjustment.

The following is the plan of adjustment proposed by Mr. Bigler, of Pennsylvania. The object, as will be perceived, is to get the question of slavery out of Congress and the popular elections in the North.—Even the admission of a State is provided for.—

That amendments to the Constitution be submitted, embracing the following propositions, to wit:

1. That the territory now owned by the United States shall be divided by a line from east to west, on the parallel of 36 degrees, 30 minutes north latitude.

2. That the territory south of said line with the view to the formation of States, shall be divided into four Territories, of as near equal size as Congress may deem best, considering the formation of the country, and having due regard to the convenience of the inhabitants of the territory now organized. That the territory north of said line shall in like manner be divided into eight Territories.

3. That when the inhabitants of such Territories, or either of them, shall become sufficiently numerous, Congress shall provide governments for the same; and when the bona fide inhabitants in any Territory shall be equal to the then ratio of representation in Congress—the fact to be ascertained by a census taken under the direction of Congress—it shall be the duty of the President of the United States, by proclamation, to announce the admission of such State into the Union on terms of equality with the original States.

4. That in all the Territories south of said line of 36 degrees 30 minutes, involuntary servitude as it now exists in the States south of Mason and Dixon's line, shall be recognized and protected by all the departments of the Territorial Governments; and in all the Territories north of said line, involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime shall be prohibited.

5. That Congress shall be denied the power to abolish slavery in places, now under its jurisdiction, situated within the limits of slaveholding States, as also within the District of Columbia, so long as slavery may exist in either of the States of Virginia or Maryland.

6. That, in addition to the present provision for the rendition of fugitives from labor, it shall be made the duty of the non-slaveholding States to provide efficient laws for the delivery of fugitives from labor to the persons to whom such service or labor may be due.

7. That neither these proposed amendments, nor the third paragraph of the second section of the first article of the Constitution, nor the third paragraph of the second section of the fourth article of the Constitution, shall be liable to future amendment.

Judge Lewis' Letter.

The letter from the able pen of Hon. ELLIS LEWIS, on our outer form of to-day, in reference to the Personal Liberty Laws of this State, will command special attention and should be carefully perused by every citizen of this Commonwealth. No Jurist in Pennsylvania is more intimately acquainted with the statutory provisions of the State than the Ex-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and few possess the candor that he has exhibited in exposing their iniquitous bearing upon the peace of the country and well-being of the Constitution. We again ask every person, into whose hands this paper may pass,—whether Unionist or Secessionist, Republican or Democrat,—to carefully investigate its positions and to practice upon its precepts.

SENATOR BIGLER, last week, presented to the United States Senate, sixty-five memorials, numerous signed by highly intelligent and respectable citizens of the State of Pennsylvania, composed of men of all parties—Democrats, Republicans, and Americans—asking Congress to pass the resolutions submitted by the senator from Kentucky, [Mr. Crittenden,] as amendments to the Constitution, for the ratification of the States; and moved that the memorials lie on the table. The motion was agreed to.

RESIGNATION OF M. W. JACKSON, ESQ.—Our townsmen, M. W. Jackson, Esq., the able and gentlemanly Superintendent of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad, has resigned the position on the above road, which he has faithfully discharged for the past few years. The reason for this step is, Col. Jackson's private business demands his attention. Since his resignation, we notice numerous highly complimentary notices from the newspaper press, speaking in the highest terms of the management of the road, under his supervision. The praise has been merited. No man has done more for the road, or feels a greater interest in its welfare than M. W. Jackson, Esq. His successor has not yet been named.—Democrat Gazette.

IRON CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

Perhaps no similar institution in this country is more extensively or more favorably known than this; the teachers have long enjoyed enviable reputations; the course of study is full and comprehensive. Upward of five hundred young men are now engaged in active business, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny alone, who have graduated at this College within the past four years, more than treble the number from any other School in the country, in the same time.

Latest Details from the South.

The Charleston papers of Thursday and Friday last contain the particulars of the attack on the steamer Star of the West. Our telegraphic dispatches, however, have already given pretty much everything of interest, including the correspondence between Governor Pickens and Major Anderson. The South Carolina Legislature, having been officially informed of this correspondence, on Wednesday adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this general assembly looks upon any attempt to reinforce the troops now in possession at Fort Sumpter, as an act of open and undisguised hostility on the part of the government of the United States.

Resolved further, That this General Assembly learns with pride and pleasure of the successful resistance this day by the troops of this State, acting under the orders of the Governor, to an attempt to reinforce Fort Sumpter.

Resolved further, That this General Assembly entirely approves and endorses the communications of the Governor this day made to Major Anderson.

Resolved further, That this General Assembly pledges itself to an earnest, vigorous and unhesitating support of the Governor in every measure adopted by him in defence of the honor and safety of the State.

The resolutions being put there was a universal aye.

Mr. Brut moved that the word UNANIMOUSLY be inserted, which called forth another spontaneous aye.

The Charleston papers, in their accounts of the attack on the Star of the West give some incidents not without interest. We subjoin the following:

THE FEELING AT CASTLE PINCKNEY. At Castle Pinckney, under command of Col. Pettigrew, the ardor of the men knew no bounds. The greatest eagerness was shown by all to have a shot at the stranger, with the intention of bringing out the fire of Fort Sumpter. The guns of the Castle were all manned simply upon the spontaneous movement of the men themselves. Each sprang to his post, without command of the officer in charge. It was with the greatest difficulty that he could restrain them from firing; and it was not until a peremptory order to that effect was given that they held themselves aloof from the batteries. The eagerness at Forts Moultrie and Johnson were great—though the garrison at the former were gratified in the privilege of a number of harmless shots. Better luck to them next time.

WHO FIRED THE FIRST SHOT?

Since the event of the crisis, much curiosity has been excited to learn the man who fired the first shot. After diligent inquiry, we believe it is settled that the honor belongs to the Washington Light Infantry. Though this corps is not stationed in the entrenchments on Morris' Island, from which this gun was fired, still, a single representative of the corps, we are informed, was at one of the guns, and to him befall the duty. We believe the name of the gentleman is Lieut. J. L. Branch.

ARREST FOR TREASON IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

J. N. Merriman, collector of the port of Georgetown, S. C., was on Monday last arrested by the people of that town on a charge of treason against the State. A letter was found written by him and addressed to Mr. Buchanan, stating that he (Merriman) had just cleared vessels in the name of the United States, and that he would continue to do so. The letter calls upon the President to send a post and men to collect the federal revenue from Kentucky, [Mr. Crittenden,] as amendments to the Constitution, for the ratification of the States; and moved that the memorials lie on the table. The motion was agreed to.
