

LEVI L. TATE, EDITOR.

BLOOMSBURG, PA. SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2, 1861.

The President's Special Message

We publish to-day the message of the President of the United States, communicating the resolutions of the Virginia Legislature. It speaks in approving terms of these resolutions, and recommends them to the favorable consideration of Congress.

Democratic Association

We print elsewhere in our columns, with great satisfaction, the proceedings of our newly formed "Democratic Association." It is a sensible move in the right direction, (which should have been made long since, but is better late than never), and we fondly hope, it will be properly conducted and generally attended, and must eventually in the permanent organization of the Democratic Party of Columbia.

Contemplated Improvements

We propose making important improvements upon the opening of the Twenty-Fifth Volume of the "Columbia Democrat." A gentleman of high literary ability—who is also a forcible writer—of considerable editorial experience, will assume the entire conduct of the Local Department.

Impious Wretches

Wendell Phillips, the notorious abolitionist, made a speech at the Music Hall, on Sunday, January 20th 1861; which is published in Garrison's Liberator of January 25th ult., we find on looking over it sixteen places, where the Reporter marks "applause," "applause and laughter," "loud applause, with cries of 'good,' "speech was abolitionism, coercion, John Brown and Disunion.

Wyoming Canal Company

The following gentleman were elected officers of the Wyoming Canal Board, on the 21st ult., in Philadelphia:— President—Samuel T. Bodine. Vice President—Ziba Bennett. Managers—John H. Brown, Robert Smith, Wm. S. Ross, Edward Wetherill, John Ely.

Secretary & Treasurer—Charles Parrish.

The Columbia Democrat says, Johnston, the Vice President on the Douglas ticket, and Alexander H. Stephens, his most eloquent defender in the South, have both signed the secession ordinance of the State of Georgia.

Brother Tate, who sold you?

Col. HAUT, is informed, very respectfully, that we obtained the foregoing information from the Public Ledger, and if any body is "sold," he must be that individual.

Valuable Publications

THE METHODIST, is a mammoth quarto sheet, published by Lemuel Bangs, in New York City. We have received a few numbers of the Methodist, and think amongst the best religious Journals of the age. To economize time in writing, we adopt the view of the Editor of the Berwick Gazette, who says:—In no department of newspaper-making, perhaps, has there been more marked improvement than with the religious press.

Democratic Meeting

At a meeting of Democrats, held at the office of Wesley Wirt, Esq., in Bloomsburg, on Friday evening January 25th, 1861; for the purpose of organizing a "Democratic Association" and establishing a Democratic Reading Room in Bloomsburg.

Special Message from the President

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States. I deem it my duty to submit to Congress a series of resolutions adopted by the Legislature of Virginia on the 19th instant, having in view a peaceful settlement of the existing questions which now threaten the Union.

Correspondence of the "Boston Transcript"

It may interest your readers to know that they will soon have the opportunity of seeing the far-famed New Letter-Envelope, in consequence of the decision of the Post-Office Department to distribute it generally among the Postmasters of the country, not only in its present form, but also with a one-cent stamp attached.
