

The Stars & Stripes—forever.

So far our efforts have been for peace.—To the extent of our humble abilities we have labored to avoid and avert a civil war! We have failed! The War has begun!

And now, that it has begun, there is but one thing for us to do, and that is, "TO STAND FAST BY THE OLD FLAG," as she now waves in front of our office, between the Court House and Exchange Hotel, and see that she never goes down before any enemy, native or foreign. The Federal Government must be sustained; and we shall not stop to inquire who is in default. Let the campaign be pushed vigorously—let it be short, and decisive. The first gun was fired by the Secessionists, and it may be that forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. We are for an undivided country, if that be possible; but if not, then wherever the Star Spangled Banner waves, let it wave in triumph and honor.

Stand by the Old Flag!

We clip the following brief and patriotic declaration of sentiment from the Lancaster Intelligencer, of last Tuesday, the home organ of Ex-President BUCHANAN, as expressive of our own views on the present national crisis, and commend it to general consideration.—ED. COL. DEM.

Now that war has commenced—no matter who is at fault—it is the duty of all our citizens, irrespective of party, to stand by the old flag, with its glorious stars and stripes, and support the Government in all proper and legitimate efforts to bring the contest to a successful issue. The first blow was struck by the Secessionists, and now it becomes the duty of every patriot to lead his aid in sustaining the honor and glory of our common country. If we have a Government that is capable of protecting and perpetuating itself, this is the time to exert its strength, and the people must stand by it no matter who is at the helm. We go for our country, our whole country, and nothing but our country.

James G. Campbell.

The telegraph announces, that ALEXANDER MURRAY, has been appointed Marshall of the Western District of Pennsylvania, the post now held by the gentleman whose name heads this article.

We are sure no man who has been brought into contact with the late MARSHAL CAMPBELL, can have failed to be impressed with his urbanity, punctuality and promptitude. He made one of the most attentive and judicious Marshals we have ever had; winning golden opinions from all sorts of people; and performing the duties of his office with the most scrupulous fidelity. We have never heard any expression but that of praise, and we believed the feeling at his removal is that of universal regret.

"A PAIR OF REAL NOVELTIES."—We would direct attention to an advertisement in another column, under this unique heading, from the elegant House of Messrs. SMITH & BROWER, of New York. They are the Importers of Neck Ties, and the inventors and patentees of several novel and really valuable improvements in those splendid articles, which are of almost every variety, and decidedly the handsomest we have ever seen. They sell only to Wholesale Dealers and Jobbers, so that our friends hereabouts, and Country Merchants, generally, can obtain this elegant style of Neck Ties, by sending their orders to any Jobbing House in the Metropolitan City.

The Age, Vol. 1, No. 1, published at 130 Nassau St., N. Y. at $2.00 a year, quarto, 16 pages; is on our table. A glance at the contents has very favorably impressed us. Literature, news, politics, travels, agriculture, arts, &c., &c., go to make up its weekly variety. If it shall continue as it has begun, it will make a stir in newspaperdom. It is edited by T. J. Nichols, an old stager who understands his business.

"The Crisis," published in Columbus, Ohio by Hon. SAM. MEDARY, the "war hero of Democracy," is doing immense service to the country and to the people. In common with the party he has labored to avert and avoid the civil war which is now upon us in all its horrors.—Governor Medary, is an able and fearless writer, and we commend "The Crisis," to any and every man who loves his country and desires a sound paper from Ohio.

The Post Master General has appointed Dr. FAIRMONT JOHN, editor of the Republican, to be the postmaster at Bloomsburg.

By the President of the United States. A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The laws of the United States have been, for some time past, and are now, opposed, and the execution thereof obstructed in the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, or by the powers vested in the Marshals by law.

Now, therefore, I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, in virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution and the laws, have thought fit to call forth, and hereby do call forth, the militia of the several States of the Union, to the aggregate number of seventy-five thousand, in order to suppress the said combinations, and to cause the laws to be duly executed. The details for this object will be immediately communicated to the State authorities through the War Department.

I appeal to all loyal citizens to favor, facilitate and aid this effort to maintain the honor, the integrity and the existence of our National Union, and the perpetuity of the popular Government, and to redress the wrongs already long enough endured.

I deem it proper to say that the first service assigned to the forces hereby called forth will probably be to repossess the forts, places and property which have been seized from the Union, and in every event the utmost care will be observed, consistently with the objects aforesaid, to avoid any devastation, any destruction of, or interference with property, or any disturbance of peaceful citizens in any part of the country.

And I hereby command the persons composing the combinations aforesaid, to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty days from this date.

Deeming that the present condition of public affairs presents an extraordinary occasion, I do hereby, in virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution, convene both Houses of Congress. The Senators and Representatives are therefore summoned to assemble at their respective chambers at twelve o'clock, noon, on Thursday, the 4th of July next, then and there to consider and determine such measures as, in their wisdom, the public safety and interest may seem to demand.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 15th day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and of the independence of the United States, the eighty-fifth. (Signed.)

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, By the President.
WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

The Bloomsburg and Cattawissa Rope Ferry, over the Susquehanna, at Bloomsburg, is a well-established and useful institution. It is a paying concern, and is, moreover, an important accommodation to all people having business communication with the citizens of the South side of the North Branch River. Mr. CHAS. W. COOPER, has charge of the ferry machinery, and he will be found to be both attentive and accommodating.

New Spring Goods.—Mr. A. J. Sloan, has just returned from the city, with a large supply of choice New Goods. He always keeps the best styles and procures the latest fashions. Ladies, call early at his Cheap Store.

WILLIAM HOFFMAN & Co., of Centre township, Columbia Co., have received $3,333.00 from the Lyeing County Mutual Insurance Company, for the loss of the Zahner Mills, in Centre, by fire last February.

"Make Small Gains and Thereby miss Great Losses."—The old Franklin Savings Fund, No. 136 South Fourth street, below Chestnut, receives special deposits at 4 per cent. interest, and repays them on demand, without notice.

We have received Peterson's National Magazine for May. It is a richly ornamented and deeply interesting number.—Our Lady friends, everywhere, should invest $2.00 for this leading fashionable and sterling literary Magazine.

Mr. LLOYD T. SHARPLESS, is receiving new Spring and Summer Goods, at his Store on Main Street. Mr. S. is a worthy young man and merits liberal patronage. Give him a call.

THE NEXT STATE FAIR.—By a notice in today's Democrat it will be seen that the next State Agricultural Society of Pennsylvania, invite proposals from towns and cities for the location of the next Fair.

NEW MILLINERY GOODS.—Miss Mary Barkley, has laid in a handsome assortment of New Spring Millinery Goods, to which the public are invited by her card in our columns.

The Lackawanna and Bloomsburg railroad will make a slight change in their time table, to take effect on and after Monday next.

John Morrissey, the pugilist, is lying at the point of death in New York, of diphtheria.

State Apportionment.

Of course, nobody expected any fairness, or honesty, in the present Legislature, and no surprise, though intense indignation is felt, at the rascally manner in which the State is gerrymandered.

For instance, Montgomery county, which is 2000 Democratic, is cut into three pieces, so as totally to destroy its power, and a portion of it containing a population of 50,000 is attached to Berks, putting in that Democratic district more than 17000 of a surplus, and which of course is a dead loss to the Democratic party.

Then Luzerne and Susquehanna would make a district, having just the number required; but in order to make sure work, Wayne county is thrown in, the Luzerne Democracy made helpless, and over 32,000 people disfranchised.

Besides that, Luzerne, Columbia and Montour would have made a district, but that was not to be thought of for a moment, because that would be Democratic. So a string of Democratic counties, reaching from the forks of the Susquehanna to York State line, are to be absolutely swallowed by David Wilmot's Black Republican Pet Bradford. And to do that, 6000 people are disfranchised.

The VIII. District, sure Republican, gets a member for 116,314, ten thousand less than the ratio.

The VI. District, same political complexion, for 115,647, eleven thousand less than the proper number.

The XIII. District, made to suit the Republicans, 114,957, about twelve thousand less than required.

The XIV. District, intensely Black Republican, 109,058, over seventeen thousand less than lawful rate.

The XVI. District, black as Egyptian darkness, 101,427, twenty five thousand less than there ought to be.

While if we turn to the other side we can see the working of the scheme more fully.

The VII. District, Democratic, 143,819, over seventeen thousand of a surplus.

The X. District, Democratic, 136,605, over ten thousand more than legal ratio.

The XI. District, Democrats to be killed, 158,789, over thirty-two thousand of an excess.

The XII. District, Democrats to be overlaughed, 132,912, over six thousand above the required number.

It will be seen, too, that those five Republican districts contain a population of only 557,404, more than 50,000 less than law and justice require them to have; while the four districts above named, which are Democratic, or have for their object the utter extinguishment of Democratic majorities, have a population of 572,992, being over 15,000 more than five Republican Districts.

But it is useless to extend this dissection, the iniquity is patent.

Next Governor.

We name Hon. CHARLES R. BUCKALEW, of Columbia county, as the next Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. Who seconds the motion?

There is no man in the State says the Clinton Democrat, better qualified, in every point of view, for the office of Governor than Mr. BUCKALEW. Able, vigorous, faithful, sturdy honest, well acquainted with all the duties of the position, an experienced and successful legislator, thoroughly devoted to the people, a Statesman in the most enlarged sense of the term, he is just the man to succeed a Republican administration of misrule and extravagance, to correct as far as possible its errors, and restore the State to its former commanding position and legislation to its ancient purity and propriety. He would bring back the days of SAYDEN and SUICK, with all their watchfulness of the true interests of the people, and their untarnished and lofty integrity.

In the Senate of the State, Mr. BUCKALEW was ever watchful of the right, a close economist and in every particular a careful legislator. In that capacity he has done more to bring about a reduction of the State debt than any other man within our borders, and to him we are indebted for those wholesome amendments of the Constitution which prohibit its increase and secure its steady reduction. His intelligence and ability as a legislator, and his sturdy patriotism, have saved hundreds of thousands of dollars to the tax payers of the State, and in the office of Governor these admirable qualities would work the same result.

As a candidate he would be irresistible. His talents, his integrity and his patriotism are known and appreciated in every part of the State, if not in every hamlet within its boundaries. As a public speaker he is plain, argumentative, logical and convincing. No stain rests on his public or private character. With all his great services to the State, he is just now approaching the vigor of manhood, not yet having seen his fortieth year. His exceedingly unassuming manners and his modesty of department, on all occasions, are not less striking than the power of his genius. In short, let his character and fitness for the office of Governor, or the position of candidate, be scanned as closely as they may, he will prove in every particular the PROPER MAN—the more closely they are scanned the more apparent the propriety of his nomination and election will appear.

REPUBLICAN CONSISTENCY.—In the last Presidential campaign the Republican cry was, Protective Tariff! Protection to the iron and coal interests of Pennsylvania. This was the grand hobby by which they managed to carry the State by such an overwhelming majority. How well they are carrying out these vaunted principles to their logical conclusions is manifested by their electing the Hon. David Wilmot, U. S. Senator to fill out the unexpired term of Simon Cameron, when it is known that he is a notorious and avowed Free Trader. Here we have an instance of Republican love for Protection and the interests of the Keystone State. Let consistency hang her head in shame.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR: THE BOMBARDMENT.

FORT SUMPTER ON FIRE!

FORT SUMPTER SURRENDERED!

NOBODY HURT!

Previous to the beginning of hostilities, Gen. Beauregard informed the Secretary of War, of the Confederate States, that he had notification that the administration had determined to throw supplies into Fort Sumpter at all hazards. The Secretary replied that if the information was reliable, he, Beauregard, should demand Maj. Anderson's surrender. That was done.

Maj. Anderson declined to surrender.—Beauregard was then ordered to proceed as he deemed advisable, to reduce it. Accordingly at 27 minutes till 4 in the morning of Saturday April 12, a fire was opened on Fort Sumpter. We give the telegraphic dispatches for the rest of news, and shall as soon as possible lay before our readers the connected official report.

CHARLESTON, April 13, 10 A. M.

The battle was resumed at an early hour this morning in great earnest, and the cannonading is now going on fiercely from all points, both from the Federal fleet outside the bar and from the batteries along the coast.

At intervals of twenty minutes, the firing was kept up all night on Fort Sumpter. Major Anderson ceased firing at 6 o'clock in the evening, and all night he is supposed to have been engaged in repairing damages and protecting his barbette guns on the top of Sumpter.

Fort Sumpter commenced to return fire at 7 1/2 o'clock this morning, and seems to be greatly disabled.

The battery on Cummings' Point does Sumpter great damage. At 9 o'clock this morning a dense smoke poured out from Fort Sumpter, and the Federal flag is at half mast, signaling distress to the fleet.

The shell from Moultrie and Morris Island fell into Anderson's stronghold thick and fast; they can be seen in their course from the Charleston battery.

The fire from Morris Island and Fort Moultrie is divided between Sumpter and the ships of war.

The breach made in Sumpter is in the side opposite to Cummings' Point. Two of its port holes are knocked into one, and the wall from the top is crumbling.

Three vessels, one of them a large sized steamer, are over the bar, and seem to be preparing to participate in the conflict.

The ships have not, as yet, opened fire. An explosion has occurred at Sumpter. A dense volume of smoke was seen to rise from the Fort.

Maj. Anderson has ceased to fire for about one hour. His flag is still up.

It is thought the officers' quarters in the Fort are on fire.

A dispatch from another source says: The batteries on Sullivan's Island, Cummings' Point and Stephen's battery, are pouring shot and shell into Sumpter.—Anderson does not return the fire.—There have just been two explosions at Sumpter.

LATER.

CHARLESTON, April 13.

Fort Sumpter was unconditionally surrendered. The news has just been received in a reliable shape. Ex-Senator Chestnut and Gov. Manning and W. Porcher Miles have just landed and marched to the Governor's house. They bring the particulars. It was reported that ten of the garrisoned at Fort Sumpter had been killed, but your reporter has just had an interview with W. P. Miles, who has just returned from a visit to Fort Sumpter, and is assured by him that no one was killed. The Federal flag was shot away by the Palmetto guards at Morris Island.

In all two thousand shots were fired.—No South Carolinians were hurt. Major Anderson's men, under guard, were conveyed by boats to Morris Island. This news is reliable, and puts to rest all the previous reports about Fort Sumpter.

Maj. Anderson has reached the city and is the guest of Gen. Beauregard. The bells are ringing out a merry peal and our people are engaging in every demonstration of joy.

Our people generally sympathize with Maj. Anderson, but express abhorrence for those who were in the steamers off our bar and in sight of us and did not even attempt to reinforce us.

Judge Magrath, who has just returned from Fort Sumpter, reports that the work of the Fort and the officers' quarters were all burned out.

The Fort will be taken possession of to-night by the Confederate troops. Gen. Beauregard, with two aids, has left for Fort Sumpter.

Three fire companies are now on their way to Fort Sumpter to quell the fire before it reaches the magazine.

CHARLESTON, April 13, 10 1/2 P. M.

A letter from Fort Moultrie, dated at 6 o'clock this morning, says that not a man was killed or wounded during yesterday's engagement. Only the iron battery has been damaged.

The rifled cannon of the battery did great execution on Sumpter. They were all aimed into the port holes. Three of Fort Sumpter's barbette guns were dismounted, and a corner of Fort Sumpter, opposite Fort Moultrie, was knocked away.

CHARLESTON, April 12—received April 14, 2 A. M.

A boat from one of the war vessels on the outside has communicated with Gen. Simmons, in command of the forces on Morris Island, and made the request that one of the steamers be allowed to enter the port for the purpose of taking away Anderson and his command.

An arrangement has been agreed upon by the parties to stay further proceedings until nine o'clock to-morrow.

CHARLESTON, April 14, 9 A. M.

The negotiations were completed last night, and Major Anderson, with his command, will evacuate Fort Sumpter this morning. It is supposed that he will embark on board of one of the war vessels off our bar.

When Fort Sumpter was in flames and Major Anderson could only fire his guns at long intervals, the men at our batteries cheered at every fire which the gallant Major made in his last struggles, but looked defiance at the vessels of war, whose men, like cowards, remained outside without firing a gun, or attempting to divert the fire of a single battery from Ft. Sumpter.

10 o'clock.—The steamer Isabel is now steaming up, and will take Gen. Beauregard to Fort Sumpter, which will be turned over by Major Anderson to the Confederate States.

It is now reported that Major Anderson and his command will proceed to New York in the steamer Isabel.

SINGULAR CALAMITY.—A most singular accident occurred on Sunday evening at the Kingston Coal Works, near Wyoming, which resulted in the entire demolition of a dwelling house containing four families, and the almost miraculous escape of the inmates. The particulars, as we learn, are as follows: About 8 o'clock that evening one of the men living in the house, went outside, when he saw the earth falling in over the space of about half an acre. So rapidly did it give way, that he hastened into the house, gave the alarm, and the inmates snatching several children out of their beds, had just time to escape when they saw the building tumble in the gap below. As the house went over, it is presumed a stove or two upset, as the whole building was in a very few moments wrapped in flames. What is still more singular in this affair, it is said that the fall of ground opened a new vein of water, which has since been rapidly flowing into the Company's mines.

THE DISPATCH WANTS TO KNOW.—We find the following significant items in the Pittsburg Dispatch. The Republicans seem to know how things are working:

An Exchange says, that Governor Curtin is one hundred thousand dollars better off than he was before the repeal of the tonnage tax.

We think the figure is not quite so high as that, seventy-five thousand dollars has been named by rumor, and some put it a little lower than that. Could not the exact sum be ascertained?

The Chambersburg Times informs us that Mr. A. K. McClure, Senator from Franklin county, has purchased a splendid farm of Chambers M. Kibben, Esq., on the outskirts of Chambersburg, and is making grand improvements. We can't understand it, but some office-holders—members of our State Legislature, &c.—have such prudent habits of economy, that they soon make a great fortune out of a salary of five hundred to seven hundred dollars, on which other extravagance people cannot even live respectably. There must be some secret in this matter not revealed in the maxims of "Poor Richard" which should be given to the world by those angelic fellows. Such bright lights as they possess in political and pecuniary economies, should not be "hid under a bushel," from the rest of mortals.

As the Dispatch is a Republican paper note or comment is unnecessary.

AN EXTRA SESSION.—The President has issued his proclamation convening an extra session of Congress on the 4th of July next, to consider and determine upon such measures as the public safety and interests may demand. A number of States have not yet chosen their representatives to the next Congress, and in those States where the regular elections do not occur until after the 4th of July, it will be necessary to take immediate steps to fix an earlier day. The President also calls upon the militia of the several States, to the aggregate number of seventy-five thousand, to aid in repossessing the forts and other property which have been seized from the Union. It is understood that the Government will immediately direct all its energies towards re-taking Fort Sumpter; and in order to do this a large force will be necessary to capture the batteries commanding it.
