

Mr. EDWARD B. SNIDER, of Philadelphia, met in extra session, at Harrisburg, on the 30th ult. A quorum being present in both branches, they at once proceeded to business, and the Governor sent in his message.

The American Agriculturist for May, by Mr. J. W. Johnson, is increasingly interesting and specially attractive.

Messrs. Kline, Oeterhout, and Bound, our Members, and Master W. G. Brower, at Harrisburg, have our thanks for public documents.

The May Genesee Farmer, is before us, and on a hasty examination of its contents, we have found it to contain a vast amount of useful and interesting reading.

PEACE AND ORDER have assumed their sway in Bloomsburg. Previous to the departure of the Volunteers, our town was the moving emblem of a Military Camp—Quiet now reigns all around.

Andrew McGlinn, now in the jail of Montour county under sentence of death for the murder of Thomas Shadland, and who was to be executed on 3d Inst., has been again respited for 60 days.

A brief and sensible Agricultural Communication, will be found on the fourth page of our Columbia Democrat. A similar article, graced the same page last week, signed W. Wintersteen. We appreciate all such efforts on the part of our farmer friends, for the promotion of agricultural science and invite general cooperation.

Capt. SAMUEL RIMBY, of Jerseytown, Mercantile Appraiser of Columbia county, for 1861, has entered upon the active duties of his official station. Capt. R. is an active business man, and we have no doubt, will make an efficient and correct officer.

"THE IRON GUARDS," on last Saturday, paid a social visit to our neighboring village of Buck Horn. The farmers and citizens very generally carried the Company over and back in wagons.

Lieut. Col. W. H. Ent, an officer in the Iron Guards, is confined to his room by indisposition, at the Exchange Hotel, in Bloomsburg. He is now convalescing, and we are happy to believe, that he will on Monday re-join his comrades in arms at Harrisburg.

Our neighbor of the Democrat is unnecessarily sensitive. It would require but a little effort to show from the file of his own paper that he does not stand where he did a few months ago; but as he is now right and doing good service in behalf of what he now acknowledges to be "a just war," we have no disposition to make him feel uncomfortable by pointing to the past.

Our neighbor of the Republican, has again most egregiously misrepresented our position, in the foregoing paragraph. He cannot show, that we do not now stand just where we did months ago; or, that we ever "acknowledged this to be a just war." Our reply last week, to a similar bravado in the Republican, which we hold to be truthfully appropriate, and should have put a quietus upon Dr. John's systematic misrepresentations, is here reprinted and will, by all honorable men, be regarded as a fair exposition of our own course and a triumphant vindication of the Democratic party.

The Extra Session of the Legislature.

This body, at the call of the Governor, met in extra session, at Harrisburg, on the 30th ult. A quorum being present in both branches, they at once proceeded to business, and the Governor sent in his message. The Governor refers to the stirring events of the past five months, culminating in the assault upon Fort Sumter and the massacre of national troops in the streets of Baltimore while hastening to the defence of the seat of the National Government.

Just at the time of communicating his message, the Governor had been telegraphed from the President to call out twenty-five additional regiments, and he states that more than enough separate companies were at once offered to fill this additional number.

The Governor recommends a thorough reorganization of the militia of the Commonwealth; that authority shall be given to the Executive to pledge the faith of the Commonwealth for such sums of money as the Legislature may deem necessary for extraordinary requirements; and, that at least fifteen regiments, exclusive of those called into the service of the United States, shall be immediately organized, disciplined and armed, for the defence of the State; and that a judicious stay law be adopted, &c.

Gov. BIGLER addressed a meeting in Harrisburg last week, advocating in the strongest terms the support of the Government in its present war. Like all Democrats, he took the ground that while we had no lot nor part in bringing on the war, the contest was forced upon the country by men who had taken up arms against the constituted authorities—and hence it was the duty of all to sink past differences in the great cause of upholding the Government. This is the true doctrine, and this is just what democrats always do.

PRICES AT CHARLESTON.—We are informed that a captain put into the port of Charleston, S. C., last week, and having some provisions on his vessel, sold them at a great profit, so great was the demand for them. Flour, for which he paid $5 50 per barrel, he sold at 10 50. Other articles, with their prices, are given as follows: Indian corn 80 cents per bushel; pork $50 per barrel; butter 50 cents per pound, and poor at that; hams 20 cent per pound; fresh beef 50 cents per pound.

Mr. John Kessler, of Davidson township Sullivan County, aged sixty years was found dead by the road side near his home on Sunday evening week. He had fallen from his wagon and the wheels passing over his neck dislocated it.

The Repass Brass Band, of Williamsport, has been chosen Regimental Band on the 11th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. They joined the Regiment at Harrisburg, last week.

Archbishop HUGHES has ordered a continuance in the custom observed always in the Catholic Church here, viz: the non-allusion in the pulpit to political affairs.

The Archbishop is a very sensible man. Would he had more such men at the head of our churches.

A Union Fugitive From Texas.

A gentleman, a native of Harlem who has resided for about twelve years at La Grange, Texas, has just arrived in New-York, having been compelled to leave Texas, or to take up arms for the southern confederacy. He left La Grange about three weeks ago, leaving about $4,000 worth of property behind him.

These outrages, he says, are mostly conducted by rowdies and lawless characters, though some responsible people join them or at least countenance them.

The Northern Democracy. At the Presidential election last fall a million and a half of the Northern democracy voted against Mr. Lincoln.

FLORA TEMPLE AND PRINCESS MATCHED.—These famous maids are matched to trot again on the third Tuesday in May. The race is to be mile-heats, to wagons, best three in five, for a stake of $250 a side. It has not yet been decided over what course the old competitors will join issue.
