

Tomorrow is the eighth Sunday after Trinity.

The Duke of Reichstadt Son of Napoleon on Bonaparte, died July 22, 1832.

Gibraltar taken by the British July 23, 1701.

Simon Bolivar, called the Washington of South America, born July 21, 1783.

Saint James' Day.

Tog Days began.

Battle of Talavera, in Spain, fought, July 27, 1809.

The horse fair is about over. Several sales were made, at prices satisfactory to all parties.

Samuel A. Ritter who met with the accident of being cut in the leg, just above the knee with a pruning knife, some days ago, is again about, and the wound rapidly healing.

On Wednesday morning last fifteen men and young men, left Bloomsburg, at Bloomsburg, to join the "Iron Guards" in Col. Rickets' new Regiment, at Greencastle.

Mr. E. B. Heilman was very severely injured by a fall from a barn, in the upper part of the county, last week. He was putting up a lightning rod when the accident occurred. He is about again however, but looking pale, and walking with difficulty.

Next Year is the thousandth anniversary of the foundation of the Russian Empire. They intend to celebrate the occasion with one of their grand national religious festivals. The spectacle at St. Petersburg and Moscow will probably be very magnificent; and the recent manumission of the serfs will give it a peculiar significance.

The Synodical Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church will meet in Bloomsburg, on Monday next, the 23rd inst. and will continue in session through Tuesday and Wednesday. Public services will be held in St. Paul's Church, as follows:— Service and preaching at 8 o'clock, P. M.; on Tuesday: 10 o'clock, A. M.; and 8 o'clock, P. M.; Wednesday: Children's Church at 3 o'clock, P. M.; Tuesday. Members of other churches and congregations are invited to be present at these services.

By observing the shoulder straps worn by officers of the army, their rank can be readily ascertained. A major general is distinguished by two silver stars on his shoulder straps; a brigadier general has but one star; a colonel has a silver embroidered epaulet; a lieutenant colonel has a silver embroidered leaf; a captain is known by two gold embroidered bars; a first lieutenant has but one gold bar on the strap; a second lieutenant none at all. The cloth of the strap is as follows: staff officers, dark blue; artillery, scarlet; infantry, light (or sky) blue; rifleman, medium (or emerald) green; cavalry, orange color.

On the 30th June ult. at St. John's Church, Lancaster, Ohio; John F. Old a recent graduate of the Episcopal Theological Seminary at Gambier, was admitted to the diaconate. Bishop Bedell was present, and the candidates for orders were presented by the Rev. Dr. McElhinney.

Mr. Old is a citizen of Columbia County, and an able and excellent man. We rejoice to see him surely attaining a position such as he desires; and from our knowledge we are sure he will make a judicious, conscientious and painstaking rector. He is a young man of great promise.

Col. Crogan, to whose family the Mammoth Cave belongs, was a resident of Louisville. He went to Europe some 20 years ago, and found himself frequently questioned of the wonders of the Mammoth Cave—a place he had never visited, and of which he had heard but little at home, though living within ninety miles of it. He went there on his return, and the idea struck him to purchase it, and make it a family inheritance. In fifteen minutes bargaining, he bought it for $10,000, and shortly after he was offered $100,000 for his purchase. In his will he tied it up in such a way that it must remain in his family for two generations, thus appending its celebrity to his name. There are nineteen hundred acres in the estate, though the cave properly runs under the property of a great number of other land owners.

The undersigned respectfully informs the public generally, that they have taken possession of the Mammoth Cave, and have established an entrance to the cave on their own property, (a man's farm extending up to the zenith and down to the nadir,) great vigilance is exercised to prevent such subterranean surveys and measurements as would enable one to sink a shaft with any certainty. The cave extends ten or twelve miles in several directions, and there is probably many a back woodsman sitting in his hat within ten miles of the Cave, quite unconscious that the most fashionable ladies and gentlemen of Europe and America are walking without leave under his potatoes and corn.

Several of Cooper's Novels are to be read in the lot, though each of them seems to be perfect in itself. Those who more especially together however are the series known as the Leatherstocking Tales—Leatherstocking being the popular name of the hero. The series consists of five distinct books, though not written and published in the order in which they should be read. In each one, Leatherstocking appears in a different character, in the first, The Deerslayer, as a youth of the woods, in the Pathfinder, as a lover; in The Pioneers, as a hunter, in the Last of the Mohicans, as a Warrior, an finally in The Prairie, an old an infirm man, following the life of a trapper.

Without question they are the most enchanting books we have ever read. The man who begins with the Deerslayer will follow Leatherstocking to his grave and lay down the book with eyes moist with tears. By all means get and read those tales of the forest.

Send five dollars to W. A. Townsend & Company, No. 46 Walker Street, New York, and the set, complete, will be sent you by express.

Scarcely too much can be said in praise of onions for folk. They seem to be a preventive and remedy for various diseases to which domestic poultry is liable. Having frequently tested their excellencies, we can speak understandingly. For gapes and inflammation of the throat, eyes and head, onions are almost a specific. We would recommend giving fowls, and especially the young chicks, as many as they will eat, as often as twice or three times a week. They should be finely chopped. A small addition of corn meal is an improvement.

GREENWOOD SEMINARY AND COLUMBIA COUNTY NORMAL INSTITUTE, AT MILLVILLE, PENN'A.

Important Additions & Improvements.

Annual Terms to Commence August 12, 1891.

The Institution which has been in successful operation for the past ten years is again undergoing a complete renovation in order to place it on a more stable basis than ever, and present facilities which are not surpassed by any similar Institution in Northern Pennsylvania.

Among the improvements which will be made are:— A large three-story building which will give additional room for a library and reading room, a commodious class room, a dining hall, a hall for the students, a hall for the faculty, a hall for the visitors, and a hall for the officers.

An experienced and thoroughly qualified teacher and lecturer will be in charge of the Board of Trustees, and will have the general supervision of the Institution and assume a charge of the details of teaching. It is particularly to be noted that the various scientific subjects, as well as the theory and practice of teaching, will be taught by the faculty, and that the students will receive special attention in these subjects.

The Faculty of the Institution will be composed of the following gentlemen:— J. H. BARNES, President; W. H. BARNES, Secretary; J. H. BARNES, Treasurer; J. H. BARNES, Chaplain; J. H. BARNES, Moderator.
