COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

Local and Special,

John G. Freeze, Editor.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 3, 1861.

☞ To-morrow is the Tenth Sunday after Trinity.

August 5, 1798 was fought the Battle of the Nile.

Daniel O'Connel born August 6, 1775.

The celebrated Governor Trumbull died August 7 1809.

Marshal Ney was shot August 8, 1815.

Louis Philippe was elected King of France August 9, 1830.

Main land of America discovered August 10, 1498.

———:o:———

☞ A Camp Meeting will be held on the grounds of Wm. Kimble, in Mayberry township, Montour county, to commence on Friday, the 16th instant.

———:o:———

☞ Among the publications for the times, James G. Gregory, 46 Walker Street, New York publishes "The Star Spangled Banner"; each verse illustrated by Darley, with the music and splendidly illuminated title page, for 25 cts. It is the neatest and most beautiful thing we have seen—on heavy tinted paper, quarto. If our musical young ladies see it we are sure they will send for it.

———:o:———

☞ The Tariff Bill, as it passed the House, fixes the duty on coffee at five cents per pound; tea fifteen cents per pound; currants five; cassia ten cents; cassia vera two cents; cassia buds fifteen cents; cinnamon twenty cents; pimento six cents; cloves eight; cloves stems two; nutmegs twenty-five; mace twenty-five; pepper six cents per pound; raisins five cents; ginger three cents; salt in bulk twelve cents per 100 lbs. It does not change the duty on iron.

———:o:———

☞ In many portions of Columbia County the Farmers are already cutting oats. The hay and the harvest are housed; and when the wind blows over the oats stubble, the fall of the year is at hand. The indications are not for a large corn crop, but the oats and buckwheat and potatoes apparently flourish. Would not less ground better farmed produce more? It seems to us that much useless hard work is done. Can you not economise in your labor?

———:o:———

☞ Charles E. Smith Esq., of Philadelphia, has assumed the Presidency of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, made vacant by the resignation of Asa Whitney, Esq. Mr. Smith has been connected with the road, as a Director, for the last eighteen months, having been elected upon the reorganization of the Board, which took place at that time. He is a young man, and was formerly connected with the firm of Reeves, Buck & Co., having more recently been engaged in the manufacture of iron, at the large rolling mills near Fairmount. A portion of his life has been spent in Europe, where he achieved reputation as a metallurgist.

———:o:———

☞ "The Silent Woman" is pronounced by English critics to be the best, as it is the latest novel of the season. "King's Cope" by the same writer was very generally praised, and this is superior. "The Silent Woman" is an anomaly in life and literature, and the book is an admirable contrast to the wishy-washy insipidity of many works of fiction, while the characters, from the heroine downward, are drawn with a skill rarely excelled, and charm us by their naturalness. The plot never flags, but sustains its interest from the commencement to the close: altogether it is a most charming book, and one for which we predict a large sale.

T. O. H. P. Burnham, publisher, 143 Washington Street, Boston; three english volumes in one, octavo paper—price 50 cts; sent post paid on receipt of the money.

———:o:———

☞ The Second Edition of the new English Novel. "The Semi-attached Couple." By the Author of "The Semi-Detached House. One volume, 16mo, elegantly printed. Price in Cloth Extra, 81; Paper Covers, 75 cts.

This Novel has taken a high rank among the current literature of the day, and has earned a well deserved popularity; the characters are skilfully drawn, and well sustained; the style is lively and spirited: wit and humor abound, and a quiet, good natured satire pervades the whole book, and though to many the peculiar charm of the volume will be its delicate humor, it is by no means deficient in pathos—many a scene will draw a tear from the eye, while the purity of its sentiment commends it to all.

"The characters are drawn with the hand of a master, the descriptions in many instances being a keen and telling satire upon life, society and people we meet at the present day everywhere. As a work of fiction it is one which can be read with both profit and pleasure."—Commercial Bulletin.

T. O. H. P. Burnham, publisher, 143 Washington Street, Boston. Sent by mail post paid, on receipt of the price.

☞ The following is a list of officers in the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, which have been accepted by the Secretary of War. There are several other regiments to be organized to complete the fifteen ordered to be raised by the late legislature. There are none but unattached companies at Camp Curtin.

First Regiment—Colonel, R. B. Roberts; Lieutenant-Colonel, H. M. McIntyre; Major, Lemuel Todd.

Second Regiment—Colonel, Wm. B. Mann; Lieutenant-Colonel, A. S. Magilton; Major, Wm. McCandless.

Third Regiment—Colonel, H. G. Sickles; Lieutenant-Colonel, W. S. Thompson; Major, R. H. Woolworth.

Fourth Regiment—Colonel, R. G. March Lieutenant-Colonel, John F. Gaul; Major, R. M. McClure.

Fifth Regiment—Colonel, Sen. Simmons; Lieutenant-Colonel, Joseph W. Fisher; Major, George Dare.

Sixth Regiment—Colonel, W. W. Ricketts; Lieutenant-Colonel, W. B. Penrose; Major, H. J. Madill.

Seventh Regiment—Colonel, E. B. Harvey; Lieutenant-Colonel, Joseph Totten; Major, C. A. Lyman.

Eighth Regiment—Colonel, George S. Hays; Lieutenant-Colonel, S. D. Oliphant; Major, John Duncan.

Ninth Regiment—Colonel, C. F. Jackson; Lieutenant-Colonel, Robert Anderson; Major James Snodgrass.

Tenth Regiment—Colonel, J. S. McCalmont; Lieutenant-Colonel, G. T. Kirk; Major, H. Allen.

———:o:———

☞ It is undoubtedly true that there are more editions of Charles Dickens novels, than of any other writer soever, either native or foreign. Their popularity is the best possible evidence of their ability and raciness, of their truth to nature, and of the extraordinary power with which they are written. The characters of Dickens' fictions so impress themselves upon the imagination, that they live and move before you like the personages of real life. No man seems to know the secrets of the human heart better than Dickens, and no man portrays them more truthfully, or analyzes them more scientifically.

The very best edition of Dickens' novels ever issued in America, is now in process of publication by James G. Gregory, No. 46 Walker Street, New York.

The set will be completed in about fifty volumes: but any novel can be had separate from the set in cloth binding; the following will be the styles and prices.

In uniform, neat, portable, 16mo volumes. The stereotype plates are from new type cast expressly for this work.—The paper is of superior quality, delicately tinted and laid. Each volume will contain one engraving, on Steel, from a drawing by F. O. C. Darley, or John Gilbert, (the majority will be Darley's.)

This edition will have the latest prefaces and revisions made by the author, and will contain nothing not found in the last edition published under his sanction in London.

Extra cloth, gilt back and side stamp, per vol. 75 cts; Green Vellum cloth, uncut edges (English Style), 75 cts; Half Calf extra, and antique, $1.25.

———:o:———

☞ The Committee of Ways and Means have prepared a bill providing for the assessment of a direct tax upon real and personal property amounting to $30,000,000. This tax will be distributed among the States in equal proportions, the quota of Pennsylvania being $2,920,000, or about one dollar for each inhabitant. The necessary Assessors and Collectors are provided for. The bill also proposes to tax stills, boilers, and other utensils used in distilling spiritous liquors, 15 cents on every gallon of capacity. Fermented and malt liquors are to be taxed 5 cents on a gallon, and spirituous liquors 10 cents on a gallon. Vehicles used exclusively for the transportation of merchandize are to free, but carriages are to be taxed; those valued at $50 are are to be taxed $1; those over $1,000 will be taxed $50, with intermediate rates in proportion to the value of the vehicle.

———:o:———

☞ The Executive Committee of the Columbia County Agricultural Society, at a meeting held on Saturday last, resolved to hold a County fair on the 17th 18th 19th days of October.

———:o:———

☞ Three of the Berwick Volunteers returned home to Berwick, on Tuesday evening last, being disabled by disease from continuing longer in the services of their country. Their names are C. Edmund Bahl, William C. Hull and Clem. Thompson.—Berwick Gazette.

———:o:———

☞ We are informed that the United Brethren will hold a Camp Meeting on the grounds of Jacob Leisenring, near Bear Gap, commencing on the 31st ult. The place selected is about a half mile from the old Centre Turnpike, about one-fourth of a mile from the Danville Turnpike, fronting on the road leading from Shamokin to Krichbaum's mill. All persons friendly are invited by the Pastor to attend.—Republican.

The "New York Day-Book."

WE are authorized to say that the reports put in circulation by its political enemies, that THE NEW YORK DAY-BOOK has been, or will be stopped, are false. Its proprietors state that it is rapidly increasing in circulation, and that it is bound to live as long as the principles of Jefferson and Jackson survive. All who desire a sound, "unbreathed" Union Democratic paper from New York city, in favor of Peace, Justice and Fraternity, opposed to Mob law, a Standing Army, Onerous Taxation, National Banks, High Tariffs, the Suppression of Free Speech, and a Military Dictatorship, will find it just what they want. THE WEEKLY DAY-BOOK has all the latest Telegraphic News, and as good a report of Cattle, Grain, and other Markets as any paper sent out of New York. The terms during the war are: One Copy, per Annum, $1; Five Copies, $5; Twenty one copies, $20. Any person who will start a club at a post-office where there is none now, and send $5 for five subscribers, will receive a sixth copy gratis. Additions to clubs can always be made at 1$ each subscriber.—Specimen copies sent free. Address,
