George S. Tutton, Eso The Democratic Convention of Wyoming County, oo the 2d instant, nominated the gentleman whose name introduces this article, as their Candidate for the Legislature. Mr. TUTTON is a lawyer of fine abilities, a contleman of unblemished reputation, and a sound national Democrat. We have long enjoyed the honor of a per sonal acquaintance with GEORGE S. TUTron, and knowing him to be a Union Democrat, in whom there is no guile, we the united Democracy of the counties of Wyoming, Columbia, Montour and Sullivan at the General Election and a triumphant election to the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES .- Soon 'Old Boreas' will make his as accustomed visitation, and our lady friends will be devising ways and means for the protection of their forms from the penetrative assaults of his chilling breath. Now every lady will bear us out in the assertion that nothing is more conducive to the comfort and fine appearance of a female in cold weather than a substantial and fashionabl set of Fars.

This being an admitted fact, it is with pleasure that we direct the attention of those interested to the inducements offered by John Fareira, the favorite furrier of 718 Arch Street Philad'a. His card appears upon the tamparts of the Constitution, and to in this issue.

10 The Conferees representing the two Representative Districts, composed of the Counties of Columbia, Wyoming, Montour and Sullivan, will meet at the Exchange Hotel, in Bloomsburg, on next, Friday,-the 13th instaut,-for the purpose of nominating two Democratic Candidates for the Legislature.

CONVALESCING .- The numerous friends throughout the State of ex-Governor David R. Porter, who has been seriously ill at his residence in Harrisburg, will be gratified to learn that he is much better, and the strongest hopes are now entertained of his speedy recovery. We learn so from the Harrisburg Patriot of yesterday.

A. R. BRUNDAGE, Esq., of Luzerne county, was then called to the stand and addressed the audience for an hour and a half, mak ing a sound, Union Democratic Speech .-

He first took a historical review of the prin ciples upon which the Union was founded the objects for which Governments are form ed, and then proceeded to show the teri ble character of our Country's calamities .-In a strain of true eloquence he depicted the horrors of civil war, and advocated the necessity of preserving the Union and the Constitution, at all hazards and at whatever cost. He placed the responsibility of this unnatural strife where it belonged equally up on the Northern Abolitionists and the South orn disunionists, and camesily and ably ins isted that the Democratic party from the day of Washington was the true Union party having no other record, but that of a firm adherence to the preservation of the Union and the Constitution. He had no sympa-

hearers to rise above partizan feelings, and stand up manfully to sustain the Union as their forefathers had done before them .--He counseled a moderate and dispassionate investigation into the causes of our present national difficulties, and urged upon the Democracy the absolute necessity of a firm adherence to the faith of their fathers, and to stand by the stars and stripes so long as a star or shred was left.
