

John G. Freeze, Local Editor. SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 21, 1861.

To-morrow is the seventeenth Sunday after Trinity. Monday, 23d of September, Autumn begins. Battle of Monterey fought, 24th September, 1846.

George II died 25th September, 1760. Saint Cyprian's Day. Steamship Arctic lost 27th September, 1854.

Battle of Marathon fought 28th September, 490. Year before Christ.

My sentence is for open war of wiles. More unexported than the best. Control what you need, or when they need not know.

We omitted to mention that the article copied from the Ledger last week, as to a change in the election laws, referred only to the City of Philadelphia.

On Monday evening last, for the first time, the train moving North on the Bloomsburg and Lackawanna Rail Road, stopped at the new Depot, on Market street.

The business at the Montour County Court was very light. We were glad to learn that Judge Jordan would be re-elected in that District.

The New York Times, well-known as one of the most able and influential American papers in the Union, says: "We cannot insist too strongly on the absolute necessity of branding every man who instigates a mob as an enemy of the public peace."

The Indianapolis State Sentinel is told by a gentleman, an officer in one of the Indiana regiments, that an officer detailed by the War Department, under the direction of the Commander in Chief, to muster into the service volunteers in Indiana, gives it as his opinion, based upon the most favorable opportunities of ascertaining the actual fact, that three-fourths of the men who have already volunteered for the war from that State are Democrats.

The New York Express thus responds to the low scurrility of the partisan press, which assails the great and patriotic Democracy, with coarse epithets and false charges: "The imputation conveyed by the words, 'White Feather Democracy' against a party which furnishes of the volunteers for the army of the United States full three-fourths of the rank and file, is not very significant nor appropriate."

Emancipationism.

The Independent of this week is bristling with articles on the subject of emancipation. The most objectionable part of it, to be sure, is in articles written by correspondents.

Luzerne County Agricultural Society. Dr. Cleever to expatiate on "the irretrievable mischief produced by the Northern Government and Administration in refusing to direct the war against slavery."

It is plain to people of practical sense that a proclamation of emancipation would have no other effect than to weaken and break down the Administration.

Roaringcreek Mass Meeting.

UNION DEMOCRATS AROUSED! Agreeably to public notice given a large number of citizens of Columbia county, met at the Public House of John L. Hurst.

President—JOHN YEAGER, sen. Vice Presidents—Hon. Stephen Baldy, John McClellens, Ais Meats, Christian Wolf.

Secretary—Gera Howet, Wm. Knickbaum, Robert Fahringer, Jacob Yeager. The organization being effected the following named persons were appointed as a Committee to draft and report resolutions to the meeting:

Hon. Peter Ed, Peter K. Herbine, Jacob Hauer, John Yeager, Jonas Fahringer, Wm. H. Jentz, J. S. Hurst, Samuel Adams, Adam Galie. After the announcement of this committee John G. Freeze, Esq., entertained the audience with a few brief and pointed remarks.

After the announcement of this committee John G. Freeze, Esq., entertained the audience with a few brief and pointed remarks which were received with general satisfaction.

The Committee on resolutions having got together prepared the following, which they reported through the Chairman, Peter Ed. They were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the peculiar state of the country and the condition of the Union—in its struggle for Nationality—require that every loyal citizen should declare his fidelity to the Constitution and the Union of our fathers.

Resolved, That the Democratic party of Columbia County is now, as it has ever been, in favor of the unbroken Union of these States—that we will maintain the Constitution, the Government and Laws—and that we will sustain the present Administration in all lawful and constitutional measures for suppressing rebellion.

Resolved, That while we are in favor of supporting and sustaining the Government, we are nevertheless in favor of the administration entertaining the first honorable proposition for Peace, looking to the consolidation of our people, and the restoration of the Union, and the securing of the rights of our people.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to use our best endeavors to secure the election of the ticket formed by the late Democratic Convention of Columbia county, and also the District Ticket for Assembly as formed yesterday at Bloomsburg.

Upon the adoption of these resolutions Col. L. T. a rose, not for the purpose of making a speech, but merely to introduce the speakers who were invited to address the meeting.

GEORGE S. TUTTIN, Esq., of Wyoming, was called upon to stand, and addressed the people for nearly an hour in an able and patriotic speech. He reviewed the opposition from their early days up to the present, picturing to his audience the different dodges practiced upon the Democratic party for the purpose of gaining power.

It would not be more than proper to mention that the speaker is a candidate for Assembly. He was nominated in the Representative Conference which met in Bloomsburg on Friday last. He is a ready speaker, possessing very fine abilities; a lawyer by profession; and with all a most excellent Union Democrat.

On motion the following was adopted: Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are hereby tendered to the different speakers for their able and patriotic addresses.

It was announced that there would be a Democratic Meeting held in Bloomsburg on Saturday next, and that Gen. Fleming and E. B. Chase were invited and would be present to address the people.

On motion the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the Union, three cheers for the County and District ticket, and three cheers for the speakers.

SHOCKING CALAMITY AT THE CONTINENTAL THEATRE. A NUMBER OF BALLET GIRLS BURNED—SOME OF THEM DEAD—GREAT PRESENCE OF MIND OF MR. WHEATLEY—THE AUDIENCE RETIRE IN GOOD ORDER.

On Saturday evening, just as the closing scene of the first act, in the Tempest, representing the shipwreck on the coast of the Enchanted Island had commenced, there was a sudden shriek of a female from behind the scenes.

War News.

A sudden thrill of horror, though only momentary, amid loud cries of "order, order, order," ran through the audience, about twelve hundred in number, many of whom were ladies.

Mr. Wheatley upon returning to the stage, pleasantly and firmly said—Ladies and Gentlemen:—Owing to the unfortunate occurrence that has just taken place, the performance of the "Tempest" will be postponed for this evening.

THE CAUSE OF THE CALAMITY. We have taken great pains to ascertain the cause of the disastrous event. We are inclined to think that one of the Misses Gale, of whom there are four sisters, was rather careless.

THE DRESS OF THE FOURTH SISTER ILLUMINATED. The dress of the fourth sister ignited, and in less time than it takes to write about it, the whole four of them were completely enveloped.

MEAN PIECE OF BUSINESS. We have a note from the first authority that application was made to the Continental Theatre, for some of the best scenery to be used for the benefit of the soldiers.

HOSPITAL REPORTS. Six of the unfortunate young ladies who were burnt at the Continental Theatre, are now lying in the Pennsylvania Hospital, at ten o'clock last evening.

Another Railroad Massacre.

OVER ONE HUNDRED TROOPS KILLED AND WOUNDED. NEWS from the disaster on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, were not first reported. Five passenger cars were precipitated into the creek.
