Der The New York Herald states that Mr. Grav, a leader in the Anti-Slavery Society in New York, has purchased a large number of shares in the New York Tribane, and that that paper will now go into the hands of the Abelitionists. If Mr. Gray and the whole Anti-Slavery Society can make the Tribune more of an Abolition paper than it has been for a dozen years it will surprise its readers.

Democrats Reflect.

Every Democrat, unless self-interest blinds him, must see that by standing by the Flag of his Country he is no more under the necessity of endoasing Abolitionism or Republicanism than be is of embracing his party.
