

EDITED BY LEVI L. TATE, PROPRIETOR. BLOOMSBURG, PA. SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 13, 1861.

"Justice," from Bucks county, came too late for publication. We print two well-written communications on our first page this week.

The Republican Ticket in Luzerne county, excepting Angelo Jackson, is elected by about 300 majority.

Caved in.—The "Reign of Terror" men of Columbia. Gone with the "Know-nothings" and "Wideawake's."

Lewis Appleman, Esq., Superintendent of the Public Schools of Columbia Co., died at Lightstreet, last Monday, aged about 30 years.

Hon. Charles R. Buckalew, on last Tuesday, voted the ENTIRE DEMOCRATIC TICKET. So did Hon. Warren J. Woodward.

Mr. Patriot Grier, of Danville, we are informed, spent some ten days with our Army on the Potomac, for the purpose of having the Soldiers vote the "No-party Republican Ticket."

SUSTAINED AT HOME.—Bloom township the strongest Republican twp. in the County, gave only 148 against the Editor of this paper, instead of 200 as was expected.

A good deal of grave speculation is afloat, as to the name which Major Monroe will give his next political bantling.

Dr. John talks about the vote we received in Bloom. Why did he not also say that with the whole Market Street crew on the ground all day, they could raise only ten more votes than they gave to Lincoln?

Dr. John, last week, fixed up a pretended trial of one of the Democratic nominees, and as he thought, after having made out a strong case against him, submitted his case to the Jury and asked for a Verdict on last Tuesday.

The jeremiads of the Columbia County Republican on the result of the election, only go to show the strange persistence in folly, of which an ordinarily sensible man is capable.

Much better lament over the falsehoods made use of by its friends to carry the election, much better mourn over the base misrepresentations resorted to, and the false issues evoked.

The Democracy of Philadelphia, have elected a large majority of their officers, viz:—Dr. McClintock, Treasurer, Mr. Johnson, Commissioner, and Mr. McCullough, Register of Wills.

Dissolution.

The partnership concern recently organized under the firm of Major Monroe & Co., including the Editor of the "Smut Machine" and sundry other small-beer politicians, Engineered by ROBERT F. CLARK, Esq., was run into the ground on last Tuesday and dissolved by general consent.

Even the "Market Street speculators" and the "Canal Swindlers," were afraid to put their names to their lying bills or to dirty their hands with their circulation.

Hon. Hiram R. Kline. Col. H. R. KLINE, of Columbia, whose office he held for nomination, the new "Union-mongrel crocodiles" of this county affects so much grief, we are credibly informed, contemns their hypocritical sympathy, as he was not a candidate for renomination.

Our neighbors of Wyoming county, in the above brief notice, truly represent the position of our fellow-citizen Col. HIRAM R. KLINE. The article is a complete vindication of his position and a withering rebuke to the treacherous opposition.

Death of Gen. Gibson. GEN. GEORGE GIBSON, Commissary General of Subsistence of the United States Army for a long period, died at his residence in Washington City, on the 30th ult., in the 50th year of his age.

RUDE, IF NOT REBELLIOUS.—The Chicago Post, a very decided war paper, in noticing the subject of "treasonable" newspapers, makes the very pertinent inquiry, why no grand jury of the loyal city of Boston has taken the official notice of a newspaper there, called the Liberator.

The Democracy of Philadelphia, have elected a large majority of their officers, viz:—Dr. McClintock, Treasurer, Mr. Johnson, Commissioner, and Mr. McCullough, Register of Wills.

DAILY EXPENDITURES.—No less than $1,200,000 are now daily paid out by the Secretary of the Treasury. This increased outlay will show the public how important it is that they should subscribe liberally and rapidly to the loan.

AN ADVOCATE FOR TREASON IN LONDON.—Wimmer & Smith's European Times of the 14th ult., states that it is reported that a newspaper in the interest of the Confederate States of America will shortly be started in London.

The truth is Columbia County has covered herself with glory; the war killed off the republican party, and the democracy has beaten its successor.

COLUMBIA CO. ELECTION RETURNS.—OFFICIAL. Held Tuesday, October 8, 1861.

Table with columns for Townships, Assembly, Associate Judges, Sheriff, Treasurer, Comm'r, Coroner, Auditor, and various candidates like BLOOM, BRIARCREEK, BERWICK, etc.

The whole Democratic County Ticket is elected. Average majority 850.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES.

There never were such inducements offered to volunteers to enlist in any army of the world as our Government proposes now.

REPRESENTATIVE VOTE IN SULLIVAN COUNTY. Tate, D., 545; Tutton, D., 546; Lazarus, R., 395; Jennings, R., 398.

The Batteries of the Lower Potomac.

It is now evident that the batteries along the south bank of the Potomac have been erected to resist an attack upon Fredericksburg by the Union Army.

More New Blanks.

Deeds, Summons, Executions, Seize Facias, State Warrants, Commitments, Capitases, School orders, Exemption, Judgment with Single and Double Notes, etc.

Fine Pay for Volunteers.

For 12 months' pay at $13 per month, $156 00; For 12 months' commutation for clothing $4, 42 00; For 12 months' commutation for rations, $12, 244 00; For bounty, 100 00; For grant of 160 acres of land (in prospect) valued, say at 160 00.

More Treason.

The Chicago Tribune, the leading Republican paper of Illinois, contains the following: ARMY CONTRACT FRAUDS.—The special committee of the House on the frauds in the army contracts has asked and obtained the fullest extension of its power.

Henry S. Magraw.

This gentleman reached his home, in this city, on Friday afternoon, having been liberated by the Rebel Government from his long imprisonment at Richmond.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRACY.

A meeting of the Democracy of Madison and the adjoining townships was held in Jerseytown on Friday evening last.

Democratic Generals.

As the abolition sheets are laboring very hard to create the impression that the Democrats are acting in bad faith toward the government, it may not be unwise to give the public a list of the general officers of the army who are and were members of the Democratic party.

The President and Gen. Fremont.

The Springfield (Illinois) Journal, the home organ of President Lincoln, edited by his nephew, administers a strong rebuke to those Republican journals who oppose the President and sustain General Fremont.

The President and Gen. Fremont.

The Springfield (Illinois) Journal, the home organ of President Lincoln, edited by his nephew, administers a strong rebuke to those Republican journals who oppose the President and sustain General Fremont.

The President and Gen. Fremont.

The Springfield (Illinois) Journal, the home organ of President Lincoln, edited by his nephew, administers a strong rebuke to those Republican journals who oppose the President and sustain General Fremont.

The President of the United States and General Fremont.

So much has been said upon the great question so unexpectedly raised by Major General Fremont, that we take occasion to print the proclamation, the letter of President Lincoln, and the act of Congress upon the point involved.

The President of the United States and General Fremont.

The following proclamation was issued this morning: HEADQUARTERS OF THE WESTERN DEPT., St. Louis, August 31.

Circumstances, in my judgment of sufficient urgency, render it necessary that the commanding general of this department should assume the administrative powers of the state.

In order, therefore, to suppress disorders, to maintain as far as now practicable the public peace, and to give security and protection to the persons and property of loyal citizens, I do hereby extend, and declare established, martial law throughout the state of Missouri.

All persons engaged in treasonable correspondence, in giving or procuring aid to the enemies of the United States, in disturbing the public tranquility by creating and circulating false reports or incendiary documents, are in their own interest warned that they are exposing themselves.

All persons who have been led away from their allegiance are required to return to their homes forthwith; any such absence, without sufficient cause, will be held to be pre-emptive evidence against them.

The object of this declaration is to place in the hands of the military authorities the power to give instantaneous effect to existing laws, and to supply such deficiencies as the conditions of war demand.

The commanding general will labor vigilantly for the public welfare, and in his efforts for their safety hopes to obtain not only the acquiescence but the active support of the people of the country.

More Treason.

This is pretty strong ground for a Republican paper to assume; and in consequence of this fact alone, the assertion of Mr. Van Wyck places Old Circumbendibus Cameron in a bad position.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 11, 1861. To Major-General John C. Fremont: Sir—Yours of the 8th instant, in answer to mine of the 20th instant, has just been received.

Assuming that you, being upon the ground, could better judge of the necessities of your position than I could at this distance, on seeing your proclamation of August 30th, I perceived no general objection to it.

Your answer, just received, expresses the preference, on your part, that I should make an open order for the modification, which I very cheerfully do.

We thus then listen, at the first moment, to do justice to Abraham Lincoln, who although having in view the intricate condition of affairs in Missouri, and although giving to General Fremont a free foot, as it were, still, delicately reminds him, that he must never forget that he is to be governed by the ethics of the Constitution of the United States.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That whenever hereafter, during the present insurrection against the Government of the United States, any person claimed to be held to labor or service under the law of any State shall be required or permitted by the person to whom such labor or service is claimed to be due, or by the lawful agent of such person, to take up arms against the United States; or shall be required or permitted by the person to whom such labor or service is claimed to be due, or by his lawful agent, to work or to be employed in or upon any fort, navy yard, dock, armory, ship, entrenchment or in any military or naval service whatsoever, against the Government and lawful authority of the United States, then, and in every such case, the person to whom such labor or service is claimed to be due shall forfeit his claim to such labor, any law of the State or of the United States to the contrary notwithstanding.

The interests now imperilled in the Southwest arc, in the eye of a statesman, far more important than the safety of Washington.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.

The State of Missouri is the key to an embryonic empire. Its detection to the Confederates would lose us all the fruits of Jefferson's statesmanship in the Louisiana purchase, all the rich territorial fruits of the Mexican war, and the whole of Oregon, for a mere strip of which we were ready to go to the war with England.