BATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1861.

OUR COUNTRY'S PLACE

Let us then twine such thread of the glorious tissue of our country's flag shout our heart-strings, and looking spon our homes, and catching the spirit that breathes upon us from the battle-fields of our fathers, let us resolve that, come weal or wos, we will in life and in death, now and forever, stand by the stars and stripes. They have floated over our cradies, let it be our prayer and our stringle that they shall float over our graves. They have been unfurted from the snows of Canada to the plains of New Orleans, and to the halls of the Montenmas, and smid the solitudes of every sea, and swe texamas, and amid the solitudes of every sea, and eve-where, as the luminous symbol of resistless and benefi-eant power, they have lud the brave and the free to vic-tory and to glory. It has been my fortune to look upon this flag in foreign lands and amid the gloom of an ori sutal despotism, and right well do I anow, by contrast how bright are its stars, and how sublime are its inspi-rations! If this banner, the emblem for us of all that is transporting in human hope, is to be secrificed on the alters of a Satanic ambition, and thus disappear forever amid the night and tempest of revolution, then will I feel-and who shall estimate the devolation of that feel ing !- that the sun has indeed been stricken from the exy of our lives, and that henceforth we shall be but wanderers and outcasts, with nought but the bread of sorrow and of penury for our lips, and with bands ever outstreeched in feubleness and supplication, on which in any hour, a military tyrant may rivet the fetters of a despairing bondage. May God in his infinite mercy save you and me, and the land we so much love, from the om of such a degradation."-Jeesph Role Gop or our Farmens | in thy name
