DIRECT TAXATION .- It is now author itatively announced that the receipts of amount to more than twenty million dol lars, ten millions less than even Secretary CHASE'S estimate. When the Morrill tar iff was first enacted it was claimed that the receipts under it would reach sixty millions but the circumstances of the country have so changed since then that the estimate of that period are valuless now.

It is evident from this state of things that we are about entering upon a new era in the financial history of the country .-Hereafter direct taxation is inevitable, as customs duties will be entirely inadequate to the support of the government and the payment of the enormous debts we are con tracting. The foreign trade of the coun-try will in any event, be much less for sev eral years to come than it has been in the past, and the deficit in our revenues in consequence must be provided for in some other way. This matter will assume great delients and responsible duty of originating a new system of ways and means to furnish the government with money to meet
