Agriculture.

WILL AGRICULTURE PAY.

D. Parker, of Watertown, would tell his own experience. Commenced life at 50 a month, and had hammered and pecked ever since. He had a hard time of it, but managed to get a living and pay all honest debts. Run in debt for a farm, but had been enabled to pay for it. Kept no account with the farm; if he did, thought it would run him in debt. It is now worth $4,000 more than he bought it for fifteen years ago.

John J. Thomas knew of several cases of successful farming in his neighborhood, of young men who without means had bought farms, improved them and paid for them. One remarkable case was that of George N. Chase, who bought a farm of 150 acres at $50, six years ago. He knew nothing of farming, stated himself he could not tell wheat from barley, but commenced to learn the work. Laid fifteen miles of drain, and had since been offered $100 per acre for his land.

Peter Hodson, of Cayuga county, twelve years ago bought a farm of 100 acres at $100, and since added forty more. He had paid for it from the land, and laid 21 miles of the drain, and built a $1,200 barn. These men pursued a mixed husbandry—raised corn, wheat, and seeded down to clover with barley or oats. Manured well and turned under clover. Special attention was given to tile draining.

Mr. Fish, of Herkimer, thought the question was hardly comprehensive enough. The State of New York has improved in wealth, and agriculture is the basis of all prosperity. Success depends on two points—the capacity of the soil and the capacity of the man.

Solon Robison stated the object of the questions to ascertain whether farming is as profitable as other business—whether it will pay the young man to keep at work on the farm. A young man goes to New York, and if successful in getting into business, may make twenty thousand a year, but after a few years of success he turns out a baukrupt. The farmer, if he does not live so fast, makes a comfortable living for his family and is in no danger of bankruptcy. Very few merchants, after being in business twenty years, are able to retire worth $50,000.

TROTTING HORSES TOO YOUNG.

It long had been our opinion that horsemen are too much giving to putting their promising colts to their speed at too early an age. We have known in our memory a number of splendid young horses which as we think, were just about ruined by such blunders of their owners.

There can be no objection to commencing the process of training at quite an early age. Indeed the work of education should begin while they are sucking colts But as the developement, strength, and power of endurance come on gradually, rarely attaining their maximum until the horse arrives at the age of six or seven or even eight years, it would seem to be the teaching of philosophy and common sense that the severe trials of speed and power should not be imposed until the period of maturity.

And yet nothing is more common, at most of our State and County Fairs, than to see young colts of hardly three and four years put upon the trotting course and whiped through to the very verge of their endurance. In our way of thinking, such practices are not only unwise but barbarous and inhuman. They are no longer to be encouraged by the Wisconsi State Agricultural Society.—Wisconsin Farmer.

HOME MADE BONE MANURE.

A. F. G., of West Gardiner, Me., writes to the American Agriculturist that he makes a good bone manure thus: A kettle holding a barrel or more, which is kept for boiling roots for stock, is filled with bones, and caustic lye poured in to cover them. A gentle fire is built for two or three successive days, to barely warm the liquor through. In a week the bones become soft and fine. The mass obtained from one barrel of bones is then mixed well with about three loads of muck, the leached ashes from which the ley was obtained being mixed with the heap. After lying a while for the muck to decompose, the fertilizer is ready for use, and produces good effects. If not the best mode, this is certainly one easily practised on most farms, and it is far better than to let the bones go to waste.

TO FREE SWINE FROM VERMIN.

A writer in the Southern Planter says: "If your hogs are lousy, go to their rubbing place, or what is better, take a rough twelve foot log to the feeding place, and keep it constantly smeared with tar. No spaniel ever loved water better than a lousy hog loves tar, and he applies it himself, to the most infested spots on his body, so effectually that the lice speedily disappear.

Those Laboring Under

sickness can at once relieve themselves from the thousand maladies that flesh is heir to, if they will only follow the counsels of nature, and take the medicine which best assists her in her operations. That medicine is the Vegetable Life Medicines of Dr. MOFFAT, known as

PHŒNIX BITTERS

These Medicines have now been before the public for a period of 20 years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe for the extraordinary curative properties which they possess.

Moffat's Life Pills.

Moffat's Life Pills are indebted for their name to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channels of life, and restoring them to their renewed tone and vigor; and to the unmistakable fact that at every crisis in their history, they [illegible] from the very verge of an untimely grave, perfectly securing to them that uniform enjoyment of health, without which life itself is but a partial blessing. So great indeed has their efficacy invariably proved, that it was scarcely less than astonishing to those who were unacquainted with the beautiful philosophical principles upon which they were compounded, and upon which they consequently act.

MOFFAT'S PHŒNIX BITTERS.

Moffat's Phœnix Bitters are so called, because they possess the power of restoring the expiring embers of health to a glowing vigor throughout the constitution, as the Phœnix is said to be restored to life from the ashes of its own dissolution.

Mercurial Diseases.—There is probably no one article given as a medicine, the injudicious use of which has caused such wide-spread and terrible mischief to the human system as mercury. Its poison sinks deep into the system, penetrating the substance of the bones, and producing a long train of painful diseases. It is well known that many affections of the liver, of the bones, of the nose, and malignant sores, which have been attributed to syphilis, are so often caused by the injudicious use of mercury, so that the remedy has proved worse than the disease.

LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS.

The Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters have always been signally successful in this class of diseases, and will eradicate all the effects of mercury from the system, sooner than the most powerful preparations of sarsaparilla. They aid nature in casting from the system all poisonous matter, and by thus purifying the vital fluids, they restore the system to health.

Bilious Complaints.—A well regulated and proportionate quantity of bile upon the stomach is always requisite for the proper solution of the food—for it stimulates digestion, and keeps the intestinal canal free from all obstructions. On the interior surface of the liver is a peculiar bladder in which the bile is first preserved, being formed by the liver from the blood. Thence it passes into the stomach and intestines, and regulates the digestion. When there is a deficiency of bile, the body is constantly costive. On the other hand, an over abundance of bile causes frequent nausea on the stomach, and often promotes very severe attacks of diseases, which sometimes end in death.

LIFE MEDICINES.

The Life Medicines should, if possible, be taken in the early stages of bilious complaints; and if persevered in strictly according to directions will positively effect a cure. Their extensive use in this complaint in all parts of our continent, renders comment unnecessary—their virtues speak for them.

Moffat's Life Pills.—The use of these Pills, for a very short time, will affect an entire cure of Salt Rheum, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin.—Common Colds and Influenza will always be cured by one dose, or by two even in the worst cases.

Pains! Pains!!—The original proprietor of these Medicines was cured of Piles of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicine alone.

LIVER COMPLAINT.—An affection of the Liver may be known by a feeling of tension or pain in the right side about the region of the liver, often pungent as in pleurisy, but sometimes dull; a difficulty in drawing a long breath; dry cough and indisposition to vomit. This disease may be produced by colds, by violent exercise, by intense summer heats, by long continued bilious fever or ague, and by various sudden connections in the substance of the liver. And to these producing causes, are derangement of the digestive organs, suppressed secretions, and mental solicitude, which are very frequent causes of obstructions and diseases of the liver.

This disease should be arrested in the commencement which can be done by a few doses of the Life Pills.

When once the liver is aroused to the performance of its proper functions, little more is requisite than to continue a proper use of the medicines, and a speedy recovery will ensue.

FEVER AND AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these Medicines is permanent.

SCROFULA.—The most horrible cases of scrofula, in which the face, bones and limbs of the victim had been preyed upon by the insatiable disease, are proved, by undeniable authority of the sufferers themselves, to have been completely cured by these purely vegetable medicines, after all others had been found more than useless.

Indigestion and Dyspepsia.—If we were called upon to specify one disease which more than any other is the bane, (which it is the offspring of civilization we should name Dyspepsia. It is a fruitful source, of rather protractive, of a long train of ills, such as Heartburn, Flatulency, a gnawing pain at the stomach when empty a sense of uncomfortable weight when full, pains in the throat, side and [illegible] of the stomach, costiveness, chilliness, languor, unwillingness to take exercise, &c

MOFFAT'S LIFE MEDICINES.

Moffat's Life Medicines are peculiarly adapted to the cure of this distressing complaint. They act upon the bowels in a very mild, and at the same time, very effectual manner, and have never yet failed to cure this disease when used according to our directions.

General Debility.—The most common of all complaints is that of a general weakness of the whole system, unaccompanied by any particular disorder, or definite symptoms of disease. There is a little vital energy, a loss of appetite, unwillingness, and indeed inability to undergo exertion, frequent headaches, indigestion, oft-times sallowness and dryness of the skin, tendency to feverishness, nothing as for society, in short all those symptoms of languor, dejection, and weakness that give evidence of a subject in which the vital powers, are of a low, unhealthy and morbid condition of the system.

Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters.

The Life Pills and Phœnix Bitters are, perhaps, the best remedy for restoring health to the body for, they act as a gentle cathartic, and by their tonic qualities, strengthen the whole system.

Moffat's Life Pills.—Persons of a pethoric habit, who are subject to fits, headache, giddiness, dimness of sight, or drowsiness, from too great a flow of blood to the head, should take these Pills frequently.

ADVICE TO FEMALES. Females who value their health should never be without the Life Medicines, as they purify the blood, remove obstructions, and give the skin a beautiful, clear, healthy and blooming appearance.

To Elderly Persons.—Many healthy aged individuals who know the value of Moffat's Life Medicines, make it a rule to take them two or three times a week, by which they keep the system regulated, and enjoy that health and freedom from disease, which those only can feel who have used this celebrated Medicine for many years.

Facts for Mothers and Nurses.—It is a fact, established by the annual bliss of mortality, that one half of the children borne are cut off before attaining seven years of age; and the fruitful source of this mortality is found to exist in that foul state of the stomach and bowels which produced the generation of worms. As the safe restorer of infantile health in this critical state the Life Medicines have long held a distinguished reputation, and for foulness of the stomach and bowels, and consequently, although worms may not exist, it is allowed to be superior to any other.

Moffat's Pills and Bitters.—No medicines at present known have done so much good to mankind as these, within the last few years; and certainly none have been furnished with more numerous and authentic testimonials of their invariable and extensive efficacy.

They require no dieting nor confinement, are perfectly mild and pleasant in their operation, but will powerfully restore health—that greatest of earthly blessings—to the most exhausted and dilapidated constitutions.
