THE PENNSYLVANIA TELEGAPH FOR THE LEGISLATIVE SESSION.

The publisher of the Pennskivaria Telegraph has made the most ample and complete arrangements, by the engagement of an experienced corps of reporters, to give the public a complete synopsis of the proceedings of the Legislature, embracing all legislation that will be of a general character and such private business as may have an effect or influence on the public interest. Added to these experies, with the reports, of the Heads of Departments, the debates will all be published when they are of a character involving questions in which the people are interested. These features regularly and carefully conducted and supervised by experienced reporters, our reports of the proceedings of Congress at the approaching session, the current events in the progress of the war, together with such domestic and forcign news as shall daily occur and come within our reach, will make the Pennsylvania Telegraph one of the most yalushle and interesting newspapers in the country.

THE subscriber would respectfully apprize his friends and the public generally, that he has opened they.

CINCINATI, Jau. 21. A special Loui-ville dispatch to the Commercial, says that despatches received at Head Quarters announce that the battle took place on Sunday morning, and that General Thomas continued the pursuit until night. Our forces followed the rebels, who ran before them like a flock of frightened sheep close up to their entrenchments on the north bank of the rivor. In front of these they laid all night expecting to storm them in the morning but with the sid of their boats and barges the enemy managed to get across the river before daylight They left behind all their artillery, ammunition, horses, fents eighty wagons leaded with quarter muste: and medical stores which fell into our hands. Our troops had poression of the intrenchments yesterday morning.

After reaching the opposite side of the river the rebels dispersed in every directs ion. Two hundred dead and wounded rebels were picked up on the field.

Gen. Zollicoffer was found in a wagon mortally wounded. Our loss has not yet been definitely as-sertained, but it must have been consider-The surgeon of the Tenth Indiana Reg. iment telegraphed that his regiment had
