NEWS FROM GENERAL BURNSIDE.

Capture of Newbern, North Carolina-A Large number of Cannon taken-A Hard fought battle-United States Loss, 90 Killer and 400 Wounded, BALTIMORE, March 18 .- The steamer Commodre arrived here this morning, direet from General Burnside's Expedition.

She brings the announcement of the capture of Newbern, North Carolina, and the defeat of the rebels there, with the capture of a large number of artillery, after a hard fought battle.

Our loss at Newbern was about 90 killed and 400 wounded. Our men displayed great bravery.

It is reported that 300 rebel prisoners were captured. Some of the reports make our loss from 50 to 60 killed, and 250 to 300 wounded.

Early on Friday morning the fight commenced. Our troops advaned along the country road running parallel with the Neuse river, but a mile or two in the rear. The road was skirted on the west side by the railroad and a dense swamp.

All along the river side were a series of batteries, which were taken by our troops one after another, after some bloody hand to-hand contests. Our troops were divided into three brigades, under the command of Gens. Renno, Foster, and Parks. We advanced gradually, the enemy desorting their guns, until we reached a line of earthworks extending across the road from the river to swamp on the West, a distance of some two miles.

In front of these works the rebels had felled a large number of trees, forming an almost impenetrable abattis. 10.55 A. M. Here the rebels were rallied, and made

3 44 P. M for a while a desperate stand. Our brave fellows fought until all their ammunition was spent, when an order to charge bayonets was given, and the works were finally taked at the point of the bayonet, the enemy flying like frightened sheep, leaving everything behind them. In their retreat they burnt the bridges communicating with the town, over both the country roads, and the railroad. As they had trains of cars in their rear, just across the bridges, they were of course able to carry off their wounded and dead.
