

Our thanks are due to Col. Tate for Legislative favors.

Hon. Hester Clymer of the State Senate, has our thanks for favors.

The best joke of the season is, Dr. John threatening to tell who "Toodle" is—a secret which is already known to the whole country.

A most furious, pertinacious and continuous snow storm visited our county on Tuesday last. It was about the biggest snow of the season.

"Backwoodsman" has withheld his name, and we are obliged therefore to suppress his communication. Correspondents must give names, not for publication but for our own information.

The Senate has made us all slave dealers by the bill abolishing slavery in the District of Columbia, and making us pay the expenses, by appropriating $100,000 to pay for the niggers. So we go.

Dr. John supposes the "Woolly Horse" is one of those persons engaged in suppressing the rebellion. In view of his squandering, spending, fort building, &c., to the loss of several millions; we should rather guess he was trying to suppress the United States.

The Butler Union Herald has been disposed of by J. C. Coll & Co., to Clark Wilson, Esq., who introduces himself to his readers in a capital salutatory. We welcome him to the ranks, with hearty wishes for the success of both outgoing and incoming parties.

Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., 22 & 24 N. 4th St., Philadelphia, are continuing the publication of "Chambers Encyclopedia," illustrated by maps and engravings; and which has already reached the 45 No. and to the word "fasten." It is published in monthly parts at fifteen cents a part, and will form, when completed, a most valuable work of six or seven volumes.—Science, art, biography, literature, all are ably treated. Send fifteen cents for a No. and examine it, and you will subscribe for the work.

The terms of the following State Senators expire with the present session: George Council and George R. Smith, of Philadelphia; W. W. Ketcham, of Luzerne; G. A. Landon, of Bradford; J. W. Hall, of Blair; Isaac Benson, of Potter; A. K. Moore, of Franklin; D. J. Lubrie, of Beaver; E. M. Irish, of Allegheny; W. H. Meredith, of Indiana, and Dr. Crawford, of Juniata. All of these are Republicans, except the last named.—We hope the Democrats will see to it that sound honest loyal anti-abolitionists are elected in their places. The good old Commonwealth ought no longer be misrepresented by such men. There is not the sentiment of her people, and should not be heard in her halls of legislation.

Judge Findlay, of the Northampton District has resigned, and the Hon. Henry D. Maxwell has been commissioned as President Judge, until the next election. There is much discussion about his successor, and we hear that John W. Maynard is after the position. We had supposed Mr. Maynard was about satisfied with his experiments in that direction.—His last summer, and dead failure, in his own district, should have taught him a lesson. The people of the Tenth Legion want a firm and reliable man, as well as an able lawyer—the antecedents of Mr. Maynard would hardly recommend him to their confidence.

The McMinville, Tenn., People's Paper places at the head of its columns the following motto, which it credits to ex-President Polk: "No treason to mankind, since the organization of society, would be equal in atrocity to that of him who would lift his hand to destroy the Union."

A Wisconsin editor says "babies are an uncommon sure crop in that State." So they used to be in this State, but it is suggested at our elbow that in consequence of the absence of sixty thousand fighting men the crop will not be near so large this year. What effect will the short crop have on the market value of the article? Who can tell?

The Senate has passed finally the bill for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, with an amendment appropriating $100,000 for emigration, and it will be sent to the House again for its concurrence. Below we present the proceedings on this important subject, viz.:

The question was then taken on the passage of the bill, resulting in its favor by the following vote:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Party. Includes Anthony, Rep. How, Rep. King, Rep. Lane, Rep. (Ind.) Clark, Rep. (Kan.) Collamer, Rep. Dixon, Rep. Doolittle, Rep. Fessenden, Rep. Foot, Rep. Grimes, Rep. Harlan, Rep. Harris, Rep. Howard, Rep. Bayard, Dem. Carlin, Union. Davis, Union. Henderson, Union. Kennedy, Union. Latham, Dem. McDaniel, Dem. Nesmith, Dem.

The Senate then adjourned.
