A Quirt Sunday-Brisk Skirmishing on Saturday-Beauregard at Montgomery, enroute for Richmond-Bragg to Repel Hat sik - Another Fight on James Island-Severe loss on Both sides.

General McClellan's Head quarters, Sunday, June 22, 8 P. M.—This has been a remarkably quiet day, considering the close proximity of the two contending forces. Brisk skirmish occurred all day yesterday, and last night everything indicated that a general egagement was at hand. The Rebels advanced in strong force on our lines during last night, but, being promptly met soon retired.

The Richmond papers of yesterday contains a despatch from Montgomery, Ala, dated the 19th inst., stating that general Beauregard and staff had arrived there on their way to Richmond, and it was said that they were to be followed by a large portion of the army of the Missi-sippi, and that a sufficient force had been left under the invincible Bragg to check any advancement of the Vandale under Halleck. The Charleston Mercury of the 18th. gives a graphic description of an engage-ment on James Island the previous Sunday, in which it acknowledges a severe loss on both sides, without any material change in
