

COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1862.

Lient Brookway is at home on a quiet expedition (?)

The Board walk between the Du- and Main Street needs some repairs.—ought to be seen to.

For legal advertisements relating December court, see the columns of the Columbia Democrat.

Captains Shoemaker and Jacoby, together with several other military gentlemen have been in town for a few days, and returned to Camp.

Jonathan Fry, one of the drafted militia from Montour Township, in this county, died in Camp Simons, Harrisburg, and was brought home and buried.

A fraud in making up the records of the New York Custom House, has just been discovered. It has been going on over a year, under this republican administration, and the defalcations are over $1 million of dollars.

TAX ON MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES.—The Commissioner on Internal Revenue has decided that all marriage certificates must have a ten cent stamp upon it, or else be declared invalid, and a penalty enforced against those not using them, which in addition to the fines, may be the separation of the parties.

It's for PUTTING IT TO THEM.—A Kentuckian named Gier, whose house and store were burned by Morgan's men, and he taken prisoner, winds up a letter which he writes, after his escape, to Mr. Hall, editor of the Ravenna Democrat, as follows:

I am now unequivocally for confiscation, abjugation, emancipation, extermination, and hell and damnation.

Col. Thos. H. Ford, of the 32d Regt., Ohio Volunteers, and Major Wm. H. Baird of the 126th Regiment, New York Volunteers, have been dismissed from the service by the President for bad conduct at the time of Harper's Ferry, which resulted in the surrender of that post. Col. Ford is at one time Lieut. Governor of Ohio, and elected printer of the House of Congress in 1858 by the Black Republicans and is well known as a prominent Abolition politician.

TO WHAT ARE THEY LOYAL?—To what are Abolitionists loyal? To the Constitution? They have suspended it to the Union? They boldly proclaim that they are not for the Union as it was, but for a "Union as it ought to be." To the States? They propose to blot out State rights! To the Government? They ignore the laws of Congress, and scorn the decisions of the Supreme Court! To the President? They propose to depose him if he does not obey them!

Milwaukee News.

We regret to learn from the Milwaukee Sentinel, that the talented and accomplished songstress, Madam Ann Bishop is no more. Her last hours were accompanied with the most terrible suffering.

It appears that she was at St. Paul, Minnesota, giving an engagement, and on last Wednesday, on coming too near the fire, her clothes ignited from the flame and before assistance could be rendered she was so much injured that she died on Friday following.

The Saturday Evening Post, published in Philadelphia, by Deacon & Peterson, established for over forty years, enters upon the year 1863 with most flattering prospects. It is a new paper as well as a fireside family paper, and therefore satisfactory in every respect.

For the year 1863 they promise contributions by Mrs. Henry Wood, well known to all readers; Mr. Edmund Kirk, author of "Among the pines" and Miss Virginia F. Townsend; as well as many other celebrated and rare writers.

They offer to any one sending Thirty subscriptions and Sixty dollars, a Wheler & Wilson sewing machine, such as sell for $45.00, free except freight. Names and Money to be sent as fast as procured. It is a capital offer.

Single subscribers $2.00.

THE CONDITION OF GEN. McCLELLAN'S ARMY.—A gentleman who visited McClellan's camp recently, writes to the Philadelphia Ledger:

The officer who accompanied us pointed out a number of the men who had neither shoes, stockings, drawers, shirt, overcoat blanket nor tent. A pair of torn pantaloons, not sufficient to hide their nakedness, and a portion of what was once a blue army blouse, constituted with a cap, the entire clothing of these poor fellows. A large pile of ashes in the midst of the camp was pointed out to us as the place where a number of these poor fellows had slept the night previous. The ashes were yet warm from the fire of the preceding day, and the almost naked soldiers sought them as a resting place and protection from the frosty night air. Quite a number had their feet wrapped up in rags, their shoes having either been lost on the march or worn out.

Hon. Simon Cameron, U. S. Minister to Russia, and late Secretary of War, reached New York on Saturday last, in the Steamer Scotia, from Liverpool. Simon has evidently returned for the purpose of looking after the Senatorial election, but was, doubtless, surprised to learn that there was a Democratic majority on joint ballot. Simon's record is rather an ugly one, but aside from that fact, no man outside of the Democratic party can be elected to that office. He had better stay in Russia.
