

Let us Organize.

We would suggest to our Democratic friends the propriety of once organizing clubs and establishing reading rooms throughout the county...

Seward and Emancipation.

The New York Tribune lately published a dispatch from Mr. Seward to Mr. Adams, our ministers to England...

Whether Mr. Seward personally endorsed the President's "edict of universal emancipation," which was issued so soon after the date of this letter...

Wisdom and Philosophy.

The $300 fixed as the price of commutation in the Conscription Act is to be paid for the procurement of substitutes...

Oh no, the idea is not an original one. We find the same wisdom and philosophy in the President's message...

The Philadelphia Press and its feeble echo at the State Capital, the Harrisburg Telegraph, are laboring with all their might to produce dissensions and civil war at the North...

MAKE A NOTE OF THIS: The New York Herald, a neutral paper, says: "Senator Wilson, who has just urged the mammoth Conscription bill through the Senate..."

THE CONSCRIPTION ACT.

We desire to call the serious and candid attention of our readers and the public, says the Greensburg Republican, to the terms and tendency of a bill passed, amid the tumultuous scenes of the closing hours of the late Congress...

This law, in effect, creates a forced standing army, composed of all the available strength of the country...

The militia is the ancient and safe defence of the people themselves, against all enemies foreign and domestic...

Has the Federal government the power to annul our Constitution, by destroying the militia?—has it the right to pass this conscription act?

No clause in the Constitution gives even semblance of power to make such enactment, on the contrary, the State militia is distinctly recognized...

But it is said in this, as in other cases that necessity justifies—that necessity knows no law...

But, apart from this, the instant response to the recent draft for three hundred thousand militia, shows that the presence of necessity is false, in fact...

If this law could be carried into execution, inasmuch as it would deprive the States of all power of self defense, its effect would be to lay them prostrate at the feet of the Federal government...

Execution of the Conscription Law.

In the execution of the conscription law passed by the late Congress our government is about to be subjected to the severest trial of its strength which it has ever undergone...

It is an exaggerated copy of the military organization under which despotism reigns in Russia and France...

It appears then that the inevitable consequences of the execution of this conscription law must be:

1. The destruction of State rights, followed by that of the State themselves, by depriving them of the militia...

2. The destruction of popular liberty, by the erection of a military despotism.

3. An appeal to the courts of law. This is our true defense. In the sanctuaries of justice we shall find the vindication of our rights...

Many of our subscribers who have long forgotten to pay up, as we informed them would be the case, last week received no "Columbia Democrat."

Execution of the Conscription Law.

The execution of the conscription law passed by the late Congress our government is about to be subjected to the severest trial of its strength which it has ever undergone...

It is an exaggerated copy of the military organization under which despotism reigns in Russia and France...

It appears then that the inevitable consequences of the execution of this conscription law must be:

1. The destruction of State rights, followed by that of the State themselves, by depriving them of the militia...

2. The destruction of popular liberty, by the erection of a military despotism.

3. An appeal to the courts of law. This is our true defense. In the sanctuaries of justice we shall find the vindication of our rights...

Many of our subscribers who have long forgotten to pay up, as we informed them would be the case, last week received no "Columbia Democrat."

Execution of the Conscription Law.

The execution of the conscription law passed by the late Congress our government is about to be subjected to the severest trial of its strength which it has ever undergone...

It is an exaggerated copy of the military organization under which despotism reigns in Russia and France...

It appears then that the inevitable consequences of the execution of this conscription law must be:

1. The destruction of State rights, followed by that of the State themselves, by depriving them of the militia...

2. The destruction of popular liberty, by the erection of a military despotism.

3. An appeal to the courts of law. This is our true defense. In the sanctuaries of justice we shall find the vindication of our rights...

Many of our subscribers who have long forgotten to pay up, as we informed them would be the case, last week received no "Columbia Democrat."

POLITICAL STUFFS.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The vote of the Granite State, with the trifling exception of Pittsburg and Hart's location together cost less than a hundred votes...

Three Democrats are elected to the Senate by an aggregate majority of 2,450, or over 700 each; and nine Republican Senators by an aggregate majority of 3,100, or less than 350 each.

Upon these facts the New Hampshire Patriot remarks: "And thus, with a majority of only some 600 in the State, the Republicans and their allies have elected three-fourths of the Senate."

"The success of the Democratic party in this election, even as judged by the election of its candidates, is not unimportant. We have gained one member of Congress, six Councillors, nearly forty Representatives, and the two important counties of Merrimack and Grafton, thus giving us one half of the counties in the State."

MONROE.—The Danville Intelligencer, of the 27th inst., donned a new dress, and presented a very handsome appearance. It is an able journal, and brings in cheering political news.

COMMUNICATIONS.—C. L. TATE:—Please give space in your valuable paper for the insertion of a few suggestions, naturally arising out of recent events.

WE have, in these back townships, in the lately held elections, won glorious Democratic, or, as the Abolitionists term them, Successionist victories. We had but little opposition with which to contend.

THE New York Times, New Orleans correspondent says: "I am sorry to say that rumors are afloat here respecting a disorderly spirit having manifested itself among our troops at this Island owing to the arrival there of a colored regiment."

SOMEbody has sent us a communication signed "Copperhead," but withheld the real name, and we again announce that we throw all such anonymous papers under the table.

A New Story.—As the story "Colonel Floyd's Ward" is drawing a close, says the Saturday Evening Post, we have thought it well to begin a new serial, "Eleanor's Victory," by the popular author of "Aurora Floyd," "Lady Lisle," "Lady Audley's Secret," &c.

RECEIPTS FOR MARCH TO THE COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

Table with columns for Name, Amount, and Total. Includes names like Samuel Warrick, J. R. Ketchum, J. W. Walker, etc.

Iron City College

Hon. Wm. A. McDonald, Judge of the United States Circuit Court, Pittsburg, Pa. THE LARGEST, CHEAPEST AND BEST.

THE PRISONER OF STATE, OR RESPONSIVENESS REVEALED

BY D. A. MAHONY. ONE OF ITS VICTIMS. It is important that the habits of thinking in a free country should be elevated to the highest level...

HON. C. L. VALLANDIGHAM'S RECORD ON ABOLITION, SLAVERY AND THE CIVIL WAR.

THIS WORK is in press and will soon be ready. It contains complete and accurate copies of Mr. Vallandigham's public speeches on the subject of slavery...

ELYSBURG ACADEMY FOR MALES AND FEMALES.

REV. J. F. WAMPOLLE, A. M., Principal and Teacher of Languages. STEPHEN M. SWENEN, Teacher of Mathematics and English Literature.

A PROBLEM FOR THE LADIES.

SENT FREE OF CHARGE. Address "PROBLEM," Box 113 P. O., Philadelphia, Pa. April 4, 1863-2w.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Estate of Genl. Jones, deceased. OFFICE of Administration on the Estate of Genl. Jones, late of Orange County, Columbia County, N. C., deceased, by me granted by the Probate Court of said County, and the undersigned, on 1st June 1862, having claims against the estate of the decedent are required to present them to the Administrator of the same, in order to obtain payment, without delay, and all persons indebted to the estate to make payment forthwith.

BLINDS AND SHADES.

J. WILLIAMS, No. 16 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, manufacturer. Venetian Blinds and Window Shades. The largest and finest assortment in the city at the lowest prices. Blinds painted and trimmed equal to new. Stage shades made and lettered.

STRAY HOG.

A MALE HOG, of good size, was found in the street a few days since, in a disabled condition, and the owner has been unable to be traced. The owner is hereby notified that he can receive his property, by calling immediately and paying reasonable expenses.