COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT

BLOOMSBURG,

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 11, 1863.

☞ "CLING TO THE CONSTITUTION, AS THE SHIPWRECKED MARINER CLINGS TO THE LAST PLANK, WHEN NIGHT AND THE TEMPEST CLOSE AROUND HIM."—Daniel Webster.

PURPOSES OF THE WAR!

CONGRESS, BY A VOTE NEARLY UNANIMOUS, PASSED THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION, WHICH EXPRESSES THE VOICE OF THE NATION AND IS THE TRUE STANDARD OF LOYALTY:

"That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunionists of the Southern States, now in arms against the Constitutional Government, and in arms around the Capital; that in this National emergency, Congress, banishing all feeling of mere passion or resentment, will recollect only its duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged on their part in any spirit of oppression, or for any purpose of conquest or subjugation or purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of those States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease."

☞ We have the April work of the Farmer & Gardener.

☞ The Lady's Repository, for the month of April has been duly received.

☞ The Clerk of the Court requests us to give notice to all concerned, that all Petitions for tavern licenses must be filed by Monday April 13th, in the Clerk's office.

☞ In making up our forms last week we accidentally left out the card of CHAS. G. BARKLEY, Esq., who is a candidate for the office of County Superintendent of Common Schools of Columbia county.

☞ Mr. ELI BARTON has had bills printed for a Vendue, to be held at his farm house, in Bloom township, south end of Fishingcreek bridge, on Saturday next, the 18th of April. We deem it proper to call attention to this public sale, as Mr. B. has much valuable property to dispose of. Our friends may expect some good bargains.

Removal.—Mr. L. T. SHARPLESS has removed his Stock of Goods into Judge Rupert's spacious Store House. There he can enjoy better mercantile facilities with a more eligible stand, which he has just replenished with new Spring and Summer Goods. Mr. S. must feel quite at home in his new and pleasant quarters.

PIANO FORTES.—The attention of our readers is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. F. C. Lighte & Co, New York, in another column. The senior of this firm, Mr. F. C. Lighte, is one of the oldest Piano Forte makers in this country.—Thirty years since, he commenced business with but one instrument—the production, in all its parts, of his own hands. The industry and power of application thus early exibited, coupled with the most minute and intimate knowledge of his profession in all its branches, has led to the creating of one of the most extensive Piano Forte establishments in the world.—Mr. Lighte still gives his personal inspection to the manufacturing department, never allowing an instrument to leave the factory without knowing it to be all that the most careful workmanship can make it. To the fact of his great skill as a manufacturer, and the carefulness he thus exercises, is undoubtedly to be ascribed the evitable reputation which the instruments bearing his name have achieved in the musical world.

The Oath of Allegiance an Insult to Loyal Citizens.

The New York Journal of Commerce, with great force, remarks on this subject:

The offering of a pledge of loyalty to the people was an invention designed to convey the idea that there was much disloyalty in the North as to require every man to "show his hand." The suggestion was a false one, and so recognized by the country. It was very much like asking men to pledge themselves to honesty, or women to form leagues for a public vow of virtue. The proposal itself would be insulting.

Punch's malignant feelings towards "the government" appears in the following;

THE KNAVE IN LINCOLN GREEN.

When Federals bulletins we read,
And Federal greenbacks see,
Why do we think of Robin Hood
Under the greenwood tree?

It is that Lincoln's Cabinet
Like him defy the law;
Like him are clad in Lincoln green,
Like him the long bow draw.

Like him more load their trump'ry show,
Than heavier odds they face
Like him trust largely to their staffs,
And live on spoils of Chase.

MARRIAGES.

On the 5th inst., by the Rev. Wm. J. Eyer, Mr. JEREMIAH KELLER, to Miss MARY ERCH, both of Ashland, Schuylkill co. Pa.

COLDS cause much of the sickness to colds. No matter where the disease may appear to be seated, its origin may be traced to suppressed perspiration, or a cold. Cramps and lung complaints are direct products of colds. In short colds are the harbingers of half the diseases that afflict humanity, for as they are caused by checked perspiration, and as five-eighths of the waste matter of the body escapes through the pores, if these pores are closed, that proportion of diseases necessarily follows. Keep clear, therefore, of colds and coughs, the great procuress of disease, or if contracted, break them up immediately, by a timely use of MADAME PORTER'S CURATIVE BALSAM. Sold by all Druggists, at 13 cents and 25 cents per bottle.

CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, consumption is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, (free of charge) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for consumption, asthma, bronchitis, &c.—The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

"The Age."

A National Democratic Newspaper,

TO BE PUBLISHED DAILY AND WEEKLY IN THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,

BY A. J. GLOSSBRENNER & CO.

A. J. GLOSSBRENNER. FRANCIS J. GRUND. WM. H. WELSH.

"THE AGE" will advocate the principles and policy of the Democratic party, and will, therefore, necessarily favor the restoration of the Union as it was, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and that of this Commonwealth.

It will freely and fairly discuss all legitimate subjects of newspaper comment, including, of course, and pre-eminently at this time, all questions connected with the existing unhappy condition of our country.

It will fearlessly criticise the public acts of public servants, and defend the legal and constitutional rights of individual citizens and of sovereign states, against assaults from any quarter.

It will seek to awaken the minds of the people to a proper sense of the actual condition of the Republic—to present to them, truthfully, the fearful perils in which we stand as a nation—to exhibit the magnitude of the task that is before them, if they would check our downward progress, and to inspire them with patriotic determination to apply THE REMEDY for our nations ills.

In brief, it will, in all things, aim to be the faithful exponent of Democratic principles, and to render itself worthy to be an organ of the Democratic party, under whose auspices our country prospered so long and so well. The re-toration of that party—the party of the Constitution and the Union—to power, in the Legislative and executive governmental branches of the States and of the Union, we believe to be necessary to avert anarchy, and the utter ruin of the Republic. To contribute to that restoration will be our highest aim.

The News, Literary, Commercial, and other departments, will receive due attention, and will be so conducted as to make "THE AGE" worthy of the support of the general reader.

☞ The many difficulties now surrounding an enterprise of the magnitude of that in which the undersigned are engaged require them to appeal to the public for a generous support, and to ask for "THE AGE" a liberal Patronage and extended circulation.

The present state of the preparatory arrangements warrants the expectation, that the first number of the Daily will appear before the close of the coming month. (February, 1863.) The Weekly will be issued soon thereafter.

AS IT HAS BEEN PRACTISED IN THE UNITED STATES BY EXECUTIVE ASSUMPTION AND EXERCISE OF ARBITRARY POWER.

BY D. A. MAHONY,

ONE OF ITS VICTIMS.

"It is important that the habits of thinking in a free country should inspire caution in those entrusted with its administration, to confine themselves within their respective spheres, avoiding, in the exercise of the powers of one department to encroach upon another—The spirit of encroachment tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever be the form of government, a real Despotism."—WASHINGTON.

"Cling to the Constitution, as the shipwrecked mariner clings to the last plank, when night and the tempest close around him."—DANIEL WEBSTER.

CARLETON, Publisher, 413 Broadway, New York.
