But to return to our purpose. The above figures show that but 571.135 votes were polled for Breckinridge in the Southern States, and for all others, 705,908, thus : For Lincoln. 26,430. For Douglas, 163,525. For Bell. 515,953. 705.998 For Breckinridge. 571,135. Against Breckinridge, 134.773. We thus find that, granting, that all who voted for Breckinridge were disunionists, there was a majority of 134,713 of and annually, thereafter, within the first the Southern people in favor of the Union -or opposed to Secession.
