BLOOMSBURG.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 16, 1863.

Farmers, dont forget to attend the Agvicultural Election, to day, in the Court House.

som Copperhead badges give the Post-Office clique a great deal of uncasiness .--Cause why-The motto is "Liberty."

WM. T. ENUMAN, Esq., of Cattawissa, we regret to sny, recently lost a fine span of horses, by being carelessly backed into the Susquehanna where they were drowned.

Ottenkirk's too well kept Hotels in the City. The Exchange, and Mount Vernon House. Col. W's Second Letter is defer- no od until next week.

265 Dr. Jonn A. SMULL, assistant clerk of the II. of R., at Harrisburg, has cur thanks for a copy of "An Act, relating to the payment of hounties to Volunteers," and also, "An Act, to provide for the ordinary expenses of the Government, and other general and specific operations."

for Hon. JOHN C. ELLIS, late Member of the L-gislature from this District, has kindly handed as, for gratuitous distribution, a number of copies of the Re- ppy to the suscriber ports relative to the election of United States Sonator." Friends call and get tham. Give the people light and truth.

100"Our Post-Office is a queer institution. Whether the Dr. pays the crowd of Spring & Summer drunken rowdies who are often found about the door, talking obsecuity and profanity. obstructing the cut-ance, and insulting decent people or not we cannot say : If not it is a nuisance he ought to abate-If yea he should dispense with their future serv ices.

BEF Rev JOHN W. LESHER, formerly of Wilkesbarre, has become a citizen of Bloom burg. We have known Mr. Leshor, for nearly twenty years, and always known him as an able Minister, a sound Democrat and worthy C tizer. W w come him to our community, of which be will prove an honor and an ornament, and wish we may have many more such citizens.
