

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS

FOR GOVERNOR, GOE. W. WOODWARD, OF LUZERNE COUNTY. JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, WALTER H. LOWRIE, OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

PURPOSES OF THE WAR!

CONFERRED BY A VOTE NEARLY UNANIMOUS, PASSED THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION, WHICH EXPRESSES THE VOICE OF THE NATION AS TO THE TRUE STANDARD OF LOYALTY.

A Peace Party. The Democratic party is for peace. It will hail with satisfaction the ending of the war, whenever that can be done upon the basis of a restoration of the Union.

Senatorial Nomination.

Hon. WILLIAM HOPKINS, of Washington county, we are gratified to learn, has been nominated by the Democracy of Washington and Green counties, for State Senator.

"War among the Skunks"—Continued.

We extract this week, copiously, from the abolition-republican papers of this Congressional District, in order to let our readers see the progress of the "War among the Skunks."

A Question.

Col. Tate took the open position at the War Meeting on Monday evening, that he never has, nor never could submit to any separation or dissolution of the Union.

Dr. John, in the above paragraph, maliciously and wilfully misrepresents Judge Woodward. That "citizen of unimpeachable character, able jurist and patriotic gentleman,"—as the Philadelphia Inquirer styles him,—never, at any time or in any place, favored or "advised" to "let South Carolina go."

We give below the exact words, which Dr. John boldly converts into an ugly lie, as delivered by Geo. W. Woodward, in Independence Square, in 1860, and shall next week print the entire speech in the COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

It becomes necessary to compel men to stand by the country, in the North, it will be because such men as Col. TATE, has made it so.—Smut Machine.

Dr. John beats the Devil out and out, for cool impudence and malicious lying.—This descendant of Tories, who thus charges us with a want of fealty to our country and its laws, has labored in Bloomsburg, for several years, to incite sedition among our citizens, to have martial law established in our midst, and finally succeeded in placing a number of his deluded followers before the Courts of Justice—and they were duly convicted—as out-laws and rioters! Away with all such hypocrites and scoundrels.

The second battle of Bull Run under Pope was fought August 30th 1862. On the 2d of September McClellan was appointed to command the army, at Washington. Gen. McClellan took command of the whole army on the 7th of September.

Now, with a better, and larger, and more efficiently appointed army, more than three weeks have passed since this raid commenced; and instead of a move being made to dislodge the enemy to the General Government, the President telegraphs to us that "Pennsylvania must take care of herself."

The Hon. SALMON P. CHASE, Secretary of the Treasury of the present administration, in a speech made by him in Ohio, August 26, 1857, said, in referring to a slave rescue case:

We have a right to have our state laws obeyed. We don't mean to resist federal authority. Just or unjust laws, properly administered, will be respected.

This is good advice, and we trust the Democrats of Ohio will remember it when another VALLANDIGHAM case occurs in their state. The constitution of Ohio expressly provides that no citizen shall be punished out of the state for any crime committed within its limits, and if the people of Ohio forcibly resisted the banishment of Mr. VALLANDIGHAM they would be justified by the teachings of Mr. CHASE.

Says the gallant and patriotic Louisville Journal: "The Crittenden Compromise would have been the death of the rebellion, and both Southern Senators and Republican Senators were responsible for its failure, for enough of either to have carried the measure, with the aid of those who actually voted for it, refused to vote for it or oppose it. It took two parties to beget this rebellion."

YEAS—Messrs. Bayard, Bigler, Bright, Crittenden, Douglas, Gwin, Hunter, Johnson of Tennessee, Kennedy, Lane, Latham, Mason, Nicholson, Polk, Pugh, Rice, Sebastian, Thomson, and Wigfall—18.

THE lineal descendant of the Revolutionary Tories, who ostensibly chuckles at the head of the "Smut Machine," asserts that we are discouraging enlistments and preaching resistance to the draft.

The Atlantic Monthly for July, the first No. of a new volume, contains one of Hawthorne's best articles. Prof. Agassiz has a very interesting paper on his favorite subject. The rest of the articles are magisterial—not up to the mark by any means. There are many such better.

Col. Tate favors us with a complimentary notice. It is but second handed thunder, and the reflection is almost as clear as mud.

Wyoming Republican. Duly for you, "Mud" and all, Billy Button.

M. & E. W. WYNKOPF will commence their second term of school, on the 20th of July.

The Democratic Nominations.

The action of the Democratic Convention at Harrisburg, on Wednesday last, has given general satisfaction to its friends and disappointed the hopes of its enemies.

As to Judge WOODWARD's letter, the people will see from it, that the Democrats, true to their patriotic instincts, have selected the right man for the right place.

DEAR SIR: I have received the communication of your wish to resign the position of Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, in order to give, as a private soldier, or in any sphere that may be open to you, your whole exertions for the defence of our invaded Commonwealth.

The Governor's Proclamation of the 26th inst., is a specific demand for State defence. "You will be mustered into the service of the State," he says, "for the period of ninety days, but will be required to serve only so much of the period of the muster as the safety of our people and honor of our State may require."

But let the Republicans name any men they please and conduct the canvass, as they will, the Democracy feel themselves to be so strong, both in their principles and in their ticket, that they will go before the people asking only for free speech, a free press, and a free ballot.

It is his object to distract the friends of the Administration, he is certainly laboring in the right direction, and his mean insinuations we hurl back to the corrupt source from whence they came.

C. L. VALLANDIGHAM at Bermuda. From late dates we learn that Hon. C. L. Vallandigham has arrived at Bermuda in the steamer Lady Davis.

charged in no small measure to the persistent efforts of this paper to secure just such a nomination as was made. We certainly did beg, most earnestly, week after week, for several months before the Convention met, that it would give the party an entirely unexceptionable standard bearer.

Col. Charles J. Biddle—Letter from G. W. Woodward. The following letter from the Hon. G. W. WOODWARD, addressed to Col. CHAS. J. BIDDLE, explains itself.

As the Chairmanship was accepted by you with the express understanding that it was not to prevent your compliance with any call to military service that you might deem obligatory upon you, I cheerfully consent, so far as I have any interest in your movements, to your resort to arms in the defence of the State.

GEORGE W. WOODWARD. PHILADELPHIA, June 29, 1863. "Lay on, MacDuff!" The very modest individual who runs the Republican at Bloomsburg, seems to be in an unhappy state of mind.

At the present time we are ready to maintain our ground against him and all the lickspittles who crouch at the feet of the demagogue in whom they trust.

C. L. VALLANDIGHAM at Bermuda. From late dates we learn that Hon. C. L. Vallandigham has arrived at Bermuda in the steamer Lady Davis.

The free commonwealths have never threatened or attempted to dissolve the Union.—Republican. During the war of 1812, resolutions were introduced in the Legislature of the "free Commonwealth" of Massachusetts.

It is not disagreeable to us to learn that the creditable action of the Convention is

Hon. H. W. Tracy.

We notice that the editor of the "Columbia county Republican," has become somewhat inflamed, and in its issue of the 19th inst., it pitched into the "Montour American," for having the audacity to say a word in Mr. Tracy's defence.

It seems that Mr. Tracy has sinned in going all the way from Danville to Bloomsburg in company with an administration Post Master, and that while in Columbia county, he chanced to be seen in company with democrats.

6th. Troops responding to the call of the Governor will be clothed, subsisted, equipped and supplied by the General Government, after arriving at the rendezvous.

It was under such circumstances that Mr. Tracy thought proper to go thro' his Congressional district and confer, and consult with the people—his constituents—men who have the deepest interest in these things, and to ascertain what would be the best and most proper course to be pursued.

If the editor of the Republican, would use the same soft and winning phrases to the democrats, now that he did previous to the late election, when he told them that he thought it would be for their interest to vote for Clark, he, in our judgment, would be rendering a great service to his country.

The number of sick and wounded in all the hospitals of the country is about 49,000.

us that a majority of those subject to a draft in Columbia county, are union democrats, and it is but proper that their interest in this thing should be consulted.

Organizations of the Pennsylvania Militia. Head-Quarters Pennsylvania Militia, Harrisburg, June 26.—General Order No. 41.

It is ordered, 1st. Camps of rendezvous will be established by the United States Government for districts, comprising the adjacent counties at such points as may be indicated by the Commands of the Department of the Susquehanna and Department of the Monongahela.

4th. Transportation to the camp of rendezvous nearest their location will be furnished by the United States Government, on application to any one actually having charge of a squad or company, to the agent at the nearest railroad station.

6th. Annexed is the quota required from each county, in the present, after crediting those counties which had already responded under the recent Order, with the number of troops furnished and actually mustered into service:—

Hinton Rowan Helper, whose incendiary book did so much toward bringing on this dreadful civil war, is now rusticated in the pleasant city of Buenos Ayres, as United States Consul, on a good salary, far from strife and danger.

The number of sick and wounded in all the hospitals of the country is about 49,000.

Demagogueism Unadulterated!

We elip the following from the Columbia County Republican, a paper in the Wilmot center, edited by Dr. PAKE-MOST JOHN, at Bloomsburg:—"Mr. Tracy Congressman elect from this District was in town one day last week.

That the public may fully understand the character of the Columbia County Republican, we will give an interesting chapter in its history. It has ever been since it had an existence the mere echo of the personal schemes and political designs of David Wilmot.

Mr. Elwell was, last fall, elected Judge of the District where he now presides without opposition—all parties supporting him.

The Bradford Reporter also takes up the above extract from the Columbia County Republican, and rings the charges upon it, in its last week's issue.
