COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT,

BLOOMSBURG,

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1803.

"Judge Woodward is a citizen of unimpeachable character, an able jurist, and a patriotic gentleman."

Philadelphia Inquirer, June 20th. Such is the character and qualifications of our candidate for Governor, written by one of the leading opposition Administration organs. It is simple truth-in a nutshell-and defics contradiction. No odds; we may expect to hear Judge Woodward yet abused and unmercifully traduced by the whole kennel of Abolition whelps and Union-screeching toadies of the State and National Administrations,

A Democrat," is a little too personal for our columns.
