BLOOMSBURG, PENN'A.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 15, 1863.

Luzerne county, on Monday next.

THE proceedings of the Abelition State Convention, as held in Pittsburg, will be found on our out-side page.

Our wealthy citizens can display their benevolence and generosity toward the self a rank abolitionist. Dr. John, was noticed in the crowd. The clergy failed to come to time. More anon.

RETURNED .- We believe all the Drafted Militia and "Emergency men," of The following payments have been made Columbia County arrived at home during the past two weeks. They came in squads and without sufficient notice having been given, which of course precladed anything like a proper ovation or handsome reception, as they deserved.

THE DRAFT .- Upon this subject much interest is manifested at present, and there is much enquiry as to the time when it will be made in this district. We can give no information on the subject, as the Provost Marshals appear to be working in secret, giving no notice as to a draft being made or not. The townships in the county, we understand, have all been enrolled. It is yours to sustain and ours to maintain except Conyngham, without trouble and a FREE PRESS." Keep the ball in mono earthly need of a squad of soldiers. Sou and liberty will survive.

GENERAL BURNSIDE, who met with a signal defeat at Fredericksburg, has re election. What could not be effected by sing the cormorants of public Plunder, is done New York, August 15, 1863 .- 3m at the point of the bayonet. It is not at FRITOR OF DEMOCRAT. Dear Sir :- With you cloth $1 00.

No WAR NEWS .- There is no news of some weeks, as much has to be necomalong the Rappahannock, and Lee's rebel seif by simple means, after being put to great expen ment in the field has men detailed to take on drafted men to fill the ranks, and until thus recruited it is not probable that agthus recruited it is not probable that aggressive movements will be undertaken by gressive movements will be undertaken by Gen. Meade.

Envy.—If there is a malicious fiend upon the face of this earth, it is this same miserable, malicious envy. He is as omnipresent and as uncatchable as a flea.—You can't tell from whence he comes or when you have him; but there he is, trying to torture every one in turn with his poisonous beak and sharp fangs to leave a wound which he thinks may smart and wound which he thinks may smart and fester in his victim's flesh for days. No one escapes the poisonous reptile. He goads the beauti'ul blushing blonde to hatcher rival, and so contemptible is he, or she her rival, and so contemptible is he, or she ments. paint," and har bust "all cotton." Envy is truly a malicious fiend; will make a lie to serve the purpose.

This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and shamed, and the remove all the aerid humors from the system. And the remove all the aerid humors from the system. The medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged, while health and strengt follow as a matter of coarse. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowe's so sure as this famous mudgine.

CAUTION:—None are gapuine unless the words "Holloways, New York and London," are discremable as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or hox; the same may plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as any lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
