

EDITED BY LEVI L. TATE, PROPRIETOR. BLOOMSBURG, PA. Saturday, August 20, 1863.

THE PRESERVATION OF THE CONSTITUTION, THE RESTORATION OF THE UNION, AND THE SUPREMACY OF THE LAWS.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS. FOR GOVERNOR, GEORGE W. WOODWARD, OF LUZERNE COUNTY. JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, WALTER H. LOWRIE, OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

I INTEND, FOR ONE, TO REGARD AND MAINTAIN, AND CARRY OUT, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT, THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, WHICH I HAVE SWORN TO SUPPORT IN ALL ITS PARTS AND ALL ITS PROVISIONS.—DANIEL WEBSTER.

CLING TO THE CONSTITUTION, AS THE SHIPWRECKED MARINER CLINGS TO THE LAST PLANK, WHEN WIND AND THE TEMPEST CLOSE AROUND HIM.—DANIEL WEBSTER.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT THE Democratic Election in and for the several Townships and Election Districts of Columbia County, will meet at the respective places of holding said Elections, ON SATURDAY, THE 22ND DAY OF AUGUST, BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 7 AND 7 O'CLOCK, P. M. of said day, for the purpose of choosing two Delegates from each Election District to meet in COUNTY CONVENTION, at the Court House, in Bloomsburg, ON MONDAY, THE 23RD DAY OF AUGUST, at one o'clock, P. M. of said day, for the purpose of making the usual Democratic nominations, to be supported by the Electors of Columbia County at the ensuing General Election, and for the transaction of other business pertaining to the interests of the Democratic party.

Curtin and the Tonnage Tax. When Andrew G. Curtin canvassed this State for Governor, in 1860, he announced from every stump that he was opposed to the repeal of "so just a tax as that imposed upon the tonnage of the Pennsylvania Railroad."

Let it be Remembered. W. W. H. Davis, editor of the Doylestown Democrat, and who has held the position as Colonel of one of the Pennsylvania Regiments for the past two years, in a late issue of that paper says: "Let it be remembered, that Andrew G. Curtin, the Abolition candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, forgetting every consideration of honor and duty, and regarding his sworn obligation as Governor of a sovereign State and Commander-in-Chief of the Militia, asked permission to call out the Militia of the State, to defend the Commonwealth from an invasion which he knew was about to be made; and when that permission was refused by the Abolition Administration upon the ground that it would interfere with the draft soon to be levied by them, carried his slavishness so far that he permitted the State to be overrun and devastated without taking a single step which his constitutional obligations, his State pride, and his personal reputation, exacted from him as the custodian of the honor of his State, and the lives, properties, and homes of its citizens."

Defeat Predicted. The Pittsburg Dispatch, (abolition) in its issue of the 5th inst., said: "With any man of ability, clear record and above all honesty the triumph of the Union party is secured; THE NOMINATION OF CURTIN WILL BE TANTAMOUNT TO DEFEAT TO THE PARTY, and for this result the Union men should hold this Convention personally responsible."

A SMALL ITEM IN A BIG BILL.—It may interest the public to know that the cost of maintaining the seventy four major generals and two hundred and eighty four brigadier generals in the Federal army, with their staffs, amounts to the nice little sum of three millions of dollars per annum. It has been said that this sum and the number of generals might be reduced one half. Such generals as Fremont might easily be dispensed with.

MOUNT PLEASANT AROUSED.

A large and respectable Democratic meeting was held on Saturday afternoon last, August 22nd, 1863, in the pleasant and beautiful grove, near Thomas Jones' Hotel, in Mount Pleasant township, Columbia county, Pa. A large number of ladies graced the meeting with their presence.—The following were the officers: President.—WILLIAM J. KRELER, Esq. Vice Presidents.—William Howell, Jacob Melick, Daniel Zigler, M. C. Woodward, George Appleman, Joseph R. Patton, Jacob Evans, Philip Appleman, J. D. Rice, and Peter Ent. Secretaries.—Elias Howell, Mathias Gilbert. Lieut. ALEM B. TATE, being called upon, addressed the audience in a brief and spirited address. He was followed by E. H. LITTLE, Esq., in an able speech of two hours' length. Mr. Little showed up the Abolition Administration and its followers in corruption, to the meeting in an able and eloquent manner. DAN L. McHENRY, Esq., of Fishing Creek township, was next called on the stand. He spoke in his usual and happy way, in favor of the great cause of Democratic principles. The meeting adjourned, after the singing of some patriotic songs by the Messrs Derr, and cheers for Woodward, Lowrie and Liberty.

Beaver Mass Meeting.

A Democratic Mass Meeting, was held on Saturday last, in the Grove, near the Hotel of F. L. Shaman, Esq., in Beaver township, Columbia County. There was quite a large gathering of Ladies, Strangers and Citizens assembled. At 2 o'clock, the meeting was organized by the election of the following officers:— Hon. GEORGE SCOTT, President. Peter Gearhart, Samuel Cox, Henry Lehr, John Shuman, David Johnson and C. F. Mann, Esq., Vice Presidents. J. W. Hunsinger, and J. P. Schlicker, Secretaries. JAMES S. McNICHE, Esq., by request, read the Address of the Democratic General State Committee, in a clear and distinct tone of voice, occupying just one half hour's time. Col LEVI L. TATE, was then called upon for an Address. He spoke with interest and fervor, for about one and a half hours, on the political issues of the campaign. The thanks of the Meeting were tendered the speaker, with repeated cheers for "Woodward, Lowrie and Democracy," when the delightful exercises in the pleasant Grove were terminated. Ordered to be published. GEO. SCOTT, Pres. J. W. Hunsinger, } Secretaries. J. P. Schlicker, }

A Voice from Allegheny.

MR. PETER C. SHANNON, of Pittsburgh addressed the Abolitionists in front of the Continental Hotel last evening. In the course of his remarks he said: "Amongst the public men of Allegheny county, I am almost alone in defending Governor Curtin." Mr. SHANNON is evidently a leaky vessel, or he would not have exposed the disaffection which exists in Allegheny to Governor Curtin. By the time the election takes place pretty nearly the same thing will be said of Pennsylvania that the Pittsburg orator says of Allegheny.—Age.

The Difference.

Wm. H. Jacoby, Editor of a Democratic paper, The Star of the North and William Burgess present editor of an abolition organ, both of Columbia county, were drafted last fall. Mr. Jacoby suspended the publication of this paper, shouldered his musket, served through his time, and has now returned to resume its publication. Billy Button who had made all his arrangements to come to Wyoming and take charge of an Abolition organ, was let off by tricky, falsehood and violation of law; and now cackles out his hackneyed epithets of "Copperhead," "Southern sympathizer," "traitor," &c., in speaking of Mr. Jacoby and his political friends. Political knavery and favoritism may save this Draft sneak from taking his chances in the conscription with Democrats; but no kind of long faced sanctimonious lies will conceal his hypocrisy or shield him from the contempt which attaches to a sneak.—Tunkhannock Democrat.

The Democratic and conservative men of Ohio, concede the election of Vallandigham as Governor of that State, by from fifty to sixty thousand majority. Hurra, for the noble democracy of Ohio.

An Abolition Outrage by the Pittsburg Provost Marshal.

It is already known to many of our readers that on the 11th, Captain J. H. Foster—long one of the editors and promoters of the Dispatch, and still proprietor, but notwithstanding has been acting under Lincoln as provost marshal for Allegheny county—on the plea that a certain white man, named Hagen, had sold himself as substitute several times before, without form of law, did have the man lashed with a cowhide until his back was like a piece of raw flesh, and he sank down in utter exhaustion. The fact will be found substantially embodied in the following statements made by witnesses present: DA. KING'S STATEMENT. The first I knew of this affair Captain McHenry entered my office, which occupies the provost marshalls office, and seizing the man Hagen, who was sitting on a chair near me, said, "God d—n you, we want you; come out here." Hagen was then taken out to the foot of the stairs, where McHenry said to the sergeant, "Take him up stairs and give him twenty five lashes," and, after a pause, added, "Yes, God d—n him, give fifty." He also told the sergeant to put the hand cuffs on him and get the cowhide. I followed to the head of the stairs, but could not bear the idea of seeing a white man whipped, so I turned and came down. I saw the man after he was flogged, and dressed his wounds yesterday and to-day. His back is all cut up, along and across. I should say from the appearance of his back that he received from sixty to seventy lashes. There were several persons by when the flogging took place, and McHenry told me himself to-day that he held the man while the stripes were being put on. This is all I know about the matter. SERGEANT MORRISON'S STATEMENT. I belong to the Provost Guard, and had just come down from the "Girard House" when Captain McHenry told me to put the hand-cuffs on Hagen and take him up stairs and give him twenty-five lashes.—I said that I was not very well, and that I was not strong enough to do this. I did not like the idea of flogging the man, and would rather leave it to somebody else.—Capt McHenry then told Corporal Palmer to flog him. I put the hand-cuffs on Hagen by McHenry's orders and bought a cowhide with which to flog him. Hagen was then taken up stairs. There was a pillar nearly in the centre of the room, and he was placed standing with his arms around it. The hand cuffs had by this time been taken off. He was stripped of all but his pants and shirt. A soldier named Alfred Fogle was ordered by McHenry to hold his hands around the post while Palmer flogged him. Fogle seized his hands as desired, but after the first welt, Hagen broke loose, and then McHenry seized him and held him till it was all over. The man cried out while he was being lashed, and made a good deal of noise. Before he was flogged, he begged that he might be shot rather than whipped. I did not count the lashes, but I should say he received between forty and fifty. Near the close he sunk down by the post, but he was not unconscious. PALMER'S STATEMENT. Captain McHenry ordered me to give Hagen twenty five lashes. I got a cowhide from Sergeant Morrison, and Hagen was taken up stairs and his hand cuffs removed. He was then put standing with his arms around a post and a soldier held his hands, but after receiving a stroke or two he broke loose and then Captain McHenry held him. I do not know how many lashes I gave him, as I was too excited to count them, but one of the men who counted them says I gave him thirty seven. I think I must have given him between thirty and forty. I flogged him under orders.

Woodward and the Foreigners.

The Franklin Repository, in its first issue, "hoped in its next issue to be able to do justice to both the platform and candidates of the Democratic party." When the second number appeared we were sorry to learn that "the review of the Democratic State Convention, its candidates and platform," had been unavoidably postponed. We were anxious to know what the editor's peculiar sense of justice would prompt him to say. The long expected article appeared in last week's issue, and as a fair sample of this desperate attempt at justice, we quote from it the following exploded libel upon Judge Woodward, which, after being successfully refuted on several previous occasions, has been again trumped up by the Repository, for use during the present campaign. Its charge against Judge Woodward is in the following language: "Judge Woodward is a man of conceded ability, and as subtle and dangerous as he is able. His official career commenced by his election as a Delegate to the Constitutional Convention in 1837, in which body he was one of the youngest members. He took considerable part in the able debates which characterized its proceedings, and made his mark especially in his earnest efforts to disfranchise all foreigners in Pennsylvania. He made one of his ablest speeches in favor of incorporating the denial of suffrage to foreigners with our organic law, but he failed,—so that the Irish and Germans who vote for him in October, can do so with the satisfactory assurance that if Woodward had succeeded in his efforts to amend our Constitution, they would now be without even the right to vote at all."

The Earthquake at Manila.

A friend, to whom we here express our thanks, sends to The Age a copy of the Overland China Mail, (Hong Kong, June 13,) from which we copy the following account of the terrible disaster by which the city of Manily was almost totally destroyed. MANILA, June 4th, 1863.—On the 3d instant, at half past seven in the evening, a circumambient flame was seen to rise from the earth and gird the city of Manila, (the "Beauteous Flower of the East," as she is finely and poetically designated by her possessors,) and at the same time a most terrific quaking of the earth took place. It lasted scarcely a minute, but in that short space nearly the whole of Fair Manila has been reduced to a heap of ruins. The abomination and desolation has taken possession of her palaces, her temples, and her dwelling-places, and death and destruction have ridden triumphantly over the land. We believe that upwards of a thousand have been killed, and many thousands wounded, but it is impossible to say or to estimate. Scarcely an edifice has escaped without dead or wounded.—The good priests, their choristers and sacristans, and the faithful who were hearing the vespers of Corpus Christi, have been nearly all buried and suffocated under the ruins of the Cathedral, and other churches. The only church that has escaped wholly is San Augustine, the same that withstood the tremendous shock of 1645. The Palace and nearly all the public and private, as well as commercial edifices, have either been thrown down or shaken from their foundations. Thank God! not a single foreigner has been killed; but two, we hear, have been seriously hurt, though not dangerously. The Rodriguez property, left to the British nation, and where the British Consulate was, has been entirely destroyed, and is nothing but a mass of ruins. We must felicitate Spain on the conduct of her subjects here of all classes; during this great and sudden trial, they acted admirably. The Governor General and the Archbishop set a brilliant example, which has been copied nearly by all, of calmness, fortitude, resignation, and energetic sympathy.—"The city is deserted nearly, for the edifices threaten to fall suddenly, and there may be (though heaven forbid it!) a repetition. Before the earthquake took place, sulphurous odors were perceived, rumbling like the firing of ordnance, and then like the approaching of an immense locomotive and trial! The flame that surrounded the city was seen from the Bay to ascend towards the sky; and another, a triple snaked one, came from the land over the water to the shipping, and threw them up at least two or three feet; while on shore the earth has everywhere sunk at least two feet.—The Age.

Stick This in Your Hat and Keep it There.

I declare upon my responsibility as a Senator, that the liberties of this country are in greater danger to-day from the corruptions, and from the profligacy practiced in the various departments of the Government, than they are from the enemy in the open field.—J. F. HALE, Republican Senator from New Hampshire.

THE CONTRABAND SYSTEM.

A letter to the Chicago Times, dated Helena, Ark., August 13th, tells a pitiful story, as follows: Emancipation in this part of the country has already proved a sorry thing for the poor contrabands. They have come with our lines, some voluntarily, some by force of armed guards sent to bring them, and then left to starve and die of every disease to which indolence and exposure render them liable. They have not had enough of the plainest necessities to support them in health, and, when sick, no medical attendance whatever, has been furnished. As a result, during and since the administration of Gen. Curtis, eight thousand contrabands have died at Helena.

Wives, Mothers and Sisters, whose Husbands, Sons and Brothers are serving in the Army can not put into their knapsack a more necessary or valuable gift than a few boxes of Holloway's Pills and Ointment. They insure health even under the exposures of a soldier's life. Only 25 cents a box or pot.
