THE GETTYSBURG CEMETRY .- The whole matter has been arranged in regard to the National Cemetery at Gettysburg. for the interment of the gallant dead who fell in the terrible batt'es at that place. About fourteen acres of land fronting on the Baltimore Turnpike, between the Evergreen Cemetry and Captain Myer's or chard, and extending to the Tancytown road, embracing the highest point on the Cemetery Hill, have been purchased by the State of Pennsylvania. Other States have been invited to co-operate in the removal of the soldier dead to these grounds The arrangements for plotting the grounds are being as rapidly as possible. It will be decorated as such a spot should be, and will be the point of many a pilgrimage by the friends of the collection and promises, a certain message and promises, a certain message and promises, a certain message and the friends of the gallant dead, to east a flower and shed a tear over their loved by made of Jo ones .- Philz.
