FOR PRESIDENT IN 1864. GEORGE B. M'CLELLAN (Subject to the Decision of the Democratic National Convention.)

Presidential Candidate.

We raise to our must-head to-day, the candidate of the country's choice for the Presidency in 1864, Pennsylvanian's noblest son and champion, Maj. Gen. Ggo. B. McCLELLAN. The hope of the country and the restoration of the Union now depend alone upon the election of Gen, McClellan. His nomination, by the Democratic National Convention, should be made by acclamation.

The Result in Columbia County

We publish elsewhere the official returns of the election in this County. It will be seen that the Democracy have relled up the magnificent majority of 1541 for Judge Woodward, and elected the whole Democratic ticket by an average majority of 3325.
