In the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Heodand's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this ity, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under he impression thus they were chiefly an about mixture. I am indefined to my friend Robert shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long centimed debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental viger which I had not fet for six months before, and and si most deepa red of regaring. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN. Philadelphia, June 22, 1861.
