Another "on to Richmond."

On Saturday last a portion of the Army of the Potomao, engineered by Gen. Sedgewick, were despatched from Yorktown for Richmond, with a view of releasing our Federal prisoners. During Saturday and Sunday, they marched forty miles, from Yorktown to the Chickshoming. Three of the Infantry Regiments were composed of negroes. They crossed the Rapidan and-after loosing some two hundred and DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philadelphia, Ps. fifty men,-were defeated and returned again to camp.

> The whole movements, conceived in folly and fanatacism, it is believed was concoeted at Washington, to gratify the vanity of Ben. Butler. 250 more brave men slain. The Tribune says, the Rebel armies embrace to day, more men than at any moment since the commencement of the War, and unless the Federal armies are strongly reinforced before next spring the military authorities here believe, that much of the advantage we have gained, within the last twelve months, must inevitably be lost by the evacuation of territory which we will not have sufficient troops to garrison. A sad truth, we have reason to fear, although enunciated by a disloyal
