COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

Saturday Morning, Mar. 12, 1864.

☞ The First National Bank of Bloomsburg went into operation on Monday last.

☞ Any person desiring some seeds of the Tobacco Plant, can be supplied by calling on Col. Freese.

☞ A contemporary has a correspondent who writes to congratulate the new editor that his paper has very much improved. Heaven knows, there was abundant room for improvement.

☞ The mansion Farm, late of Franklin McBride, decd., in Hemlock township, containing a little over ninety nine acres; was on Tuesday last, sold to Isaac G. Pursel, Esq., for $9,188 71 by the administrator of said Estate.

The above paragraph is not true. Five or six townships in the county, have filled their quota, leaving some eighteen or twenty yet in the draft.

THE SPRING ELECTIONS.—The spring elections will take place on the third Friday (18th) of March. These are important, especially so far as the choice of judges and inspectors of elections is concerned. Our Democratic friends throughout the country should give early attention to this matter.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR EGGS.—Eggs are now retailing at 20 cents a dozen, and can hardly be obtained at that. As a matter of general interest we will state that corn starch is an excellent substitute for eggs for culinary purposes, one spoonful of corn starch being reckoned as equal to a single egg

☞ We remind our readers that the facility of the Democrat office are not excelled by any establishment in North Western Pennsylvania for doing Job Printing. Persons in need of vendue Bills, Election Tickets, Bill Heads, Blanks, or any kind of Plain or Fancy Printing, will find it to their advantage to give us a call.

☞ The Episcopalians have it in Contemplation to build a new Church in Bloomsburg. All the denominations have buildings, new within a few years, in which each was materially assisted by all the others. The Church People are behind in that respect and they certainly very much need a new edifice. We trust they may be enabled to erect one which shall honor the Divine Builder, be a credit to themselves, and an ornament to the town.

☞ The Legislature at its last session passed an act, authorizing the courts of Common Pleas to compel the recording of Deeds, &c., and the defaulting parties to be at all the costs, not only of the recording, but also of the proceedings.

So much trouble has lately arisen about the titles to real estates by reason of negligence in recording that some such measures seemed necessary. Those who are wise will take the hint

☞ The following in reference to the bad condition of our streets, we clip from the Star, and add that we hope the people of Bloom township will see the propriety of electing at the coming spring election, supervisors, worthy of the office, and those who will see that our streets and side walks are kept in order. The Stars says:—"Our streets and alleys need looking after. They never were in a more wretched condition than they appear to be in this Spring. Under the supervision of the late men who had control of that matter they did not improve but retrograded."

☞ Spring has come—according to the Calendar!—and we are heartily glad of it There are people who prefer Winter to her gentle sister; and who grow enthusiastic over her many rough inhospitable points. They say the air in Winter is so bracing, the beautiful white snow is so pure and delicate, the icicles so glittering and fantastic, and everything else so invigorating and inspiring. We are not one of these. To be sure we seldom grumble as regard to the advent of winter; but it is simply because said grumbling would do no good. If we could have things in our own way, Winter, with her bracing air, &c., would be banished to Siberia in the twinkling of an eye. The Winter that has just taken her departure, was not what could be called a very severe one—although characterized by brief periods of frightful weather.

Pleasant anticipations of approaching beauties, are already beginning to thrill us. We are longing for the coming of the sweet robins, of blossoming trees, of verdant fields, of warm April showers, to be followed by golden sunlight, beautifying everything in nature, of sweet wild flowers, scrambling over tiny meadow knolls, or modestly hiding their charming beauties within the quiet ravines of the forest, and of delightful pic-nics in the grand old woods. Yes 'tis pleasant to thing of these things—almost as pleasant as to realize them—and they are enjoyed with peculiar relish, following so close upon the grim experiences of Winter.

☞ JACOB DIEHL, of the Exchange Livery Stables of this place lost one of his iron grey match horses by death on Sunday last.

THE GAME LAW.—The game law fixes a penalty of $5 upon any person who kills or destroys certain birds out of season, as follows: Partridges from the 1st of February to the 1st of October; woodcock from the 1st of February to the 4th of July. It is during the time named that the species are propagated, and to destroy them at that time tends to their total extinction, hence the law for their protection.

☞ We go on, year after year in this good township, of Bloom, electing local officers, and yet, the streets are dirty, and the alleys obstructed, and unhealthy with decaying animal and vegetable matter; drinking in defiance of the law, under the very nose of peace officers, by intemperate persons and boys, is permitted; and night is made hideous, and the public and private peace is disturbed by charivari rowdies; to the disgrace of the town, and the disgust of citizens; even of those who aided in such elections; Men have been put into positions who have been obliged to resign, for lack of capacity to execute them.

Is that state of things to continue; or will the men who have the power, put into office competent, responsible, and respectable men? Will not the people, without regard to cliques, elect their local township officers, upon the broad basis of their capacity and fitness; and see to it themselves that they vote for the best man rather than those who have been set up for them as candidates.

Resolutions on Vallandigham.

The following resolutions were presented and adopted at a late meeting of the Bloomsburg Local Senate.

PREAMBLE.—Whereas, during the present crisis through which our country is now passing, it becomes the absolute duty of every man to show the position in which he stands, regardless of party and party ties. Therefore

Resolved, That the period has arrived when every truly loyal citizen considers C. L. Vallandigham a traitor of the rankest die, and no more to be respected by the loyal North than Jeff Davis or any of his coagitors.

Resolved, That we also consider all those irrespective of party, that sympathize with the arch traitor Vallandigham, by giving funds for his support, or collecting names for the same, no less traitors than he, and all papers that are endeavoring to elicit sympathy for him directly or indirectly are no longer worthy of the patronage of an American citizen.

On motion of MICHAEL WHITMOYER, an Abolition Senator, the above resolutions were ordered to be printed in the county papers, together with the yeas and nays. The yeas were 14; and nays 2, as follows:—

Yeas.— Beckley, Whitmoyer, White, Bowen, Ely, Potter, Verry, P. S. Rishel, Penman, Jamison, C. A. Moyer, E. B Brower, W. H. Abbott, and Bennet.

Nays.—P. H. Freeze, and A. B. Tate.

The above vote shows the feelings and sentiments of the majority of the members of the Senate. The 14 yeas are all abolitionists; and when the people of this county, who are somewhat acquainted with the antecedents of these gentlemen read the vote, it will be appreciated at its full value.

☞ Soldiers, see to your own health do not trust to the Army supplies; Cholera, Fever and Bowel complaints will follow your slightest indiscretion. Holloway's Pills and Ointment should be in every man's knapsack. The British and French troops use no other medicine. Only 30 cents per box or pot.

☞ Brown's Bronchial Troches, for Coughs, Colds, Pulmonary and Asthmatic Disorders, have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and have received testimonials from eminent men who have used them.

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c. They contain no Alcohol or bad Whiskey. They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, wildly compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable army of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS!

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not modify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I was induced to try them, by my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.
Philadelphia, June 22, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has cause I and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of alcoholic stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get one bottle of Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with three quarts of good brandy or whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS!
AND THE FRIENES OF SOLDIERS.

We call attention to all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the facts, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily relieved. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, it is said, was saved by the Bitters:

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last year or two, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my address duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital.—I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 26th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your valuable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC HALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement as we had occasion of seeing our comrade, Mr. Halone, restored to health
