THE TRUTH TOLD. Lincoln's Honesty and Capacity. A Terrible Challenge Against Lincoln by a Fremont Organ.

Let us recall that worthy citizens of Athens who banished Aristides solely because it annoyed him to hear the epithet, 'the Just'...

Now, we are annoyed and irritated at hearing the words Abraham Lincoln and honesty always coupled together...

We have allowed you to further your political and personal interests, and to transform into heroes men whose inefficiency have swallowed up thousands of lives...

eternally disgraced the honor of our arms. You have been unable either to foresee or forestall anything...

When you have directed the action of our troops they have been uniformly unsuccessful; you have perpetually offered us the wretched spectacle of splendid resources and excellent chances of success...

The whole truth is this: you are leading the nation quietly to its destruction by deceiving the people as to the danger which threatens it...

You have offered us the distressing spectacle of the sacrifice of merit to caprice and personal political interests, and this in a republic, in the name and under the plea of popular sovereignty.

loyalty, which is only fit to secure the votes of those fools, who, instead of delving to the root of the matter, blindly believe all the interested falsehoods published by journals that are paid to applaud and submit, whether right or wrong.

But even if President Lincoln were the honest man that his paid organs represent him to be, how dangerous would his resolution prove to the liberties of the people under existing circumstances...

God alone, by bestowing upon the country inexhaustible natural wealth, and that ardent patriotism which makes every soldier a hero, has saved the country from the ruin into which your selfishness would plunge it...

You have dishonored us abroad by shameful misrepresentations as to our true condition. Places that we occupied in 1862 are now again in the hands of the rebels...

Away with all the impostors who have invaded the temple of liberty, and turned it into a vote market. Let there be an end of this ridiculous farce of unconditional cost as much as yours, and I venture to say it will be as welcome. "You are right I wish now I had not bought this costly trifle. However as it is purchased, I will send it."

Plunged in gloomy thought she continued to work. All at once a step was heard ascending the staircase which led to her room...

On the evening of the 13th of February 1850, two young men sat in a comfortably furnished room in a large New York boarding house...

Three hundred and seventy five dollars," was the dispirited reply. "Was that all you could raise?" inquired his partner, turning pale.

What Came of a Valentine. A Pretty Story. On the evening of the 13th of February 1850, two young men sat in a comfortably furnished room...

Eight years with their lights and shadows, their joys and sorrows. They bro't with them the merry voices of children they bro't with them new-made graves—happiness to some and grief to others.

They immediately took in sail. Both were prudent, and both felt that this was the time when this quality was urgently needed. By great efforts they had succeeded in keeping up till the 14th of February, 1853.

John Wilbur advanced, and respectfully took her hand. You have nobly repaid me, he said. Will you also award me the privilege occasionally calling upon you.

And all this came of a valentine. Three hundred and seventy five dollars," was the dispirited reply. "Was that all you could raise?" inquired his partner, turning pale.

John Wilbur read it with surprise, and passed it to his partner. "What does it mean do you think?" "I don't know," was the reply, "but I advise you to go at once."
