Army of the Potomac. WAR NEWS.

There is still much mystery hanging Potomae. A despatch from Secretary Stanton, to Governor Brough, of Ohio. sent at midnight, Friday, states that up stition in his nature. 'Anyhow,' said he, to that time nothing official has been heard after a pause, advancing resolutely toward from Grant, as far as we know, although the battle on the Rapidan was bloods, there was nothing decisive,

> General Grant is with the Rapidan column, directing its movements, and we shall endeavor, briefly, to detail its progress. The Rapidan runs Eastward from Cedar Mountain to Fredericksburg, and the distance is forty miles. Orange Court House, Lee's hear quarters, is ten miles south of Cedar Mountains, and almost in a direct line a turnpike, about forty-five miles long. This runs from Orange to Fredericksburg. This turnpike is south of the Rapidan, and almost parallel to it .-Twelve miles above Fredericksburg, on the River, is United States Ford, at the confluence of the Rapidan and Rappahanneck. Five miles south of this ford, and on the turngike, is Chancellorsville. Ten miles further up the river is Germanie Ford, and five miles south of it, on the turnpike, is Locust Grove.
