COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

BLANKS.—We will inform our readers that we keep on hand all kind of blank Deeds, Bonds, Leases, Petitions for tavern Licenses, Bonds, Justice's and Constable's blanks of every description, Summons, Executions, Notes of hand, School Orders &c., &c.

☞ Read our New Advertisements, they are of importance.

☞ Rev. G. W. SCOTT, will preach in the Baptist Church of this place, on next Sabbath, at 10 o'clock in the morning and half past seven in the evening.

☞ Rev. J. H. A. BOMBERGER, D. D., will preach in the German Reformed Church, of this place, on next Sabbath, at half past ten o'clock.

☞ Mr. D. LOWENBERG, our enterprising Merchant Tailor, has recently made an open Glass Front and fine improvement upon his "clothing Emporium."

☞ WILLIAM SMITH O'BRIEN, the Irish patriot, died on the 18th of June.—O'Brien was one of the leaders of the Irish Rebellion of 1848.

☞ The Boatmen who were on a strike for higher wages at the head of the navigation, we understand have again resumed operations. The freight was raised but a trifle. Boating has been rather dull so far this season.

☞ "The Crisis" has raised its subscription price to $3 00, per year invariably in advance. Guess we must follow suit. We now pay $14 00 per bundle for paper, and 40 cts. per lb for Ink—just double usual price.

☞ S K, a loyal subject of old Abe's, over near Millville, who bellows lustily for men and money to support "The Government," had better be careful hereafter, how he "discourages enlistments." Was it loyal to return the young soldier? Sammy there is still room in the Forts.

☞ EYER'S GROVE POST OFFICE, we are informed, has at length been granted by the Post Office Department. The mail will be carried once a week—down and back—along Little Fishingcreek, supplying Eyer's Grove and Mordensville, and once a week,—up and down,—over the Mountpleasant hill-road, supplying the Wellivervalle Office. JACOB EYER Esq. is to be the P. M.

☞ A Minnesota paper learns that from different parts of that State the distress created among the families of conscripts beggars description. One gentleman who was appointed to deliver the notices to the "unfortunates," was so much overcome by the heart rending scenes he was compelled to witness among the wives and children, after delivering two or three of the "death warrants," resigned his commission, saying he had "no taste for such business."

☞ The abolitionists have had Petersburgh taken several times, during the last ten days; and consider it a great victory, that the rebels did not take Washington. The Inquirer in its programme for 1865, pays a high compliment to McClellan and is evidently impressed with the ability and foresight of Lincoln and his Generals. The people will, on the Fourth of March 1865 relieve all of them of command; and put the reins of power into hands honest and capable and patriotic.

☞ One night last week the Bloomsburg "Loyal League" actually crept out of the hole into which it had retired at the first call of the Governor, and finding all quiet along the Potomac, the danger over, the invasion at an end, and all the rebels gone "back to ole Virginny;" began to sing "Rally round the flag, boys," with great gusto.

Comment would only weaken the force of a simple statement of the facts. It is so much easier to sing "down with the copperheads," led by HANS alto, than it is to subjugate rebels and emancipate niggers that our "Loyal Leaguers" prefer the former.

☞ WILLIAM THE FIRST, King of Wurtemberg, died on the 25th of June, at his capital of Stuttgart. He was the oldest sovereign in Europe and perhaps in the world. He was born on the 27th of September, 1784 and was therefore in his 83d year. He commenced his reign in 1816. There was only one king of Wurtemberg before him, the reigning sovereigns, before his father's time having been called dukes. King William was married three times, and his son by his third wife, succeeds him. He is 42 years old, unmarried, and ascends the throne as Charles I., of Wurtemberg.

☞ One Million more of men are to be conscripted, and Five Hundred thousand Poor men are to be torn and dragged from their families in the beginning of Winter, leaving them to freeze and starve, with coal at six dollars per ton, and flour at 6 cents a pound; and all for what? According to the Lincoln programme, for the subjugation of the South, and the Emancipation of the niggers. Already, including the blacks, more than two millions have been called for that object, and nothing is accomplished.

POSTSCRIPT!

THE WAR.

A telegram from Washington states that the government is in receipt of information from Sherman's army to the effect that on Monday General Sherman, having previously crossed the Chattahoochee river, advanced his whole army five miles south of the river, and crossed Peach-Tree creek, meeting, with the exception of slight skirmishing, with no resistance from Johnston's army. The movement is such as to force Johnston into the defenses of Atlanta, and places General Sherman in a position to shell the city. Doubtful dispatches, founded on a statement published in the Norfolk New Regime, indicate that a great battle has been fought before Atlanta, resulting in the complete overthrow of Johnston's army, and the capture of the city with fifteen thousand prisoners. This statement, it is added, is "no doubt premature." It probably originated in the imagination of some unknown but rather over sanguine person.

On Saturday morning last, a large rebel force said to be under the command of General Forest, captured the federal stockade at Brownesboro, on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, the garrison of one hundred men escaping. After their success, the invading force moved on Huntsville, and drove in our pickets at that place after a sharp skirmish. No further intelligence of the operations of the enemy at this has been received. Additional forces were leaving Louisville for the succor of Huntsville. The strength of the rebels is stated at from eight to ten thousand; that of our forces at five thousand, who occupy a strongly fortified position.

The New Orleans True Delta claims to have positive intelligence that the rebel Gen. Dick Taylor left Alexandria three weeks previously for Richmond, and that the troops lately under him are now commanded by Gen. Walker. An expedition was being fitted out at New Orleans to proceed eastward, for what purpose is not stated; but it is supposed that its destination is Pensacola, and its object to co-operate with Gen. Sherman in his movements.
